"The Friendship Of Those We Serve Is The Foundation Of Our Progress"

He's My Main Man was the Main Man at Liberty Lions

SHELBYVILLE, TN- The 13th Annual Liberty Lions Club Walking Horse Show was held on Friday night, June 15, 2012. The show started promptly at 6:30 pm with the presentation of the flags. Ritz American Idol was the flag horse. He is ridden and trained by Jeff Byrom and owned by Bruce White. The National Anthem and Invocation was by Lion Larry Hames. The Bedford County Agriculture Center in Shelbyville was dusty with all the horses working the track and the crowd was thrilled to see the water truck make a lap around the ring.

The judge, Paula Gambill Roddy, made her debut marking the cards of the 31 classes, while ringmaster, Spencer Neeley, assisted her. The announcer for the evening was Lion Bob Finney, and Chase Williams was the organist. Jennifer Potts Barr was the photographer for the evening and Lamar Mitchell was the farrier on call. The show affiliated with S.H.O.W. Hio and the show manager Lion Paul Gambill and show secretary, Lion Tim Parker, both were pleased with the turnout.

The final class of the evening making the gate call had four top entries. First place was given to He's My Main Man and Winky Groover for Rising Star Ranch. Reserve went to The Thug with Dick Peebles in the irons for proud owners, Luckey and Kay Easterling. The SCOOP congratulates all the winners at the Liberty Lions Club Show. For more information, news, upcoming events, candid and page by page coverage, visit THE SCOOP's FREE website at www.thescooponline.com.

ANOTHER FUN YEAR AT GERMANTOWN

GERMANTOWN, TN- The Germantown Charity Horse Show was four days of fun and good horses. The show was held June 6-9, 2012. For the first time in many years, there was not a drop of rain. There were vendors present, as well as food catered by the Commissary in Germantown. From Hunter-Jumpers, to Saddlebreds, to Walking Horses, there was something there for everyone!

The Honorable Justin Jenne' judged the exciting 42 classes. Other officials included Paddock Master, Adam Hensley of Shelbyville, TN; Photographer, Terry Young of Lexington, KY; Organist, Charles Ritchie of Memphis, TN; and Farrier, Gary Wilson of Lenoir City, TN.

Bee Bee King with Jimmy McConnell at the reins won the Walking Stake Championship for owner, Rachel Castaldi. Reserve in the class went to Casey Wright aboard Jail Time for proud owners, Sammy and Gayle Cagle. Owners and exhibitors from all across the country made an appearance at this fantastic show, including the states of California, Arizona, Texas, Tennessee, Mississippi, New Jersey, and many others!

JOHNNY RITZ LIT UP LAWRENCEBURG, TN IN MEMORY OF ANDY ADKINS

Joe Cotten and Johnny Ritz was honored to have won the Andy Adkins Memorial Trophy in the Riders' Cup Walking Horse Stake. This is such a special trophy to have won. They were met by Chad Cotten, Mac Benham, Amber Lewis, Colby and Katie Cotten, and Andrea Baker.

LAWRENCEBURG, TN- The Lawrenceburg Lions Club presented their Fourth Annual Tennessee Walking Horse Show located at the Rotary Park in Lawrenceburg, TN on Friday, June 8, 2012. The show started at 6:30 pm with the presentation of the flags and the invocation. The judge for the 29-class event was the Honorable Brandye Mills from Pinson, AL, while Jack Greene worked hard in center ring capturing the blue ribbon action shots. The show affiliated with PRIDE HIO and the government was in attendance, but didn't decrease the support of the show. Bobby Belew and Greg Johnston were pleased with the turnout.

Everyone came out to support the show both horse people and locals. The concession stands filled with homemade pies, white beans and corn bread and other yummy food really put smiles on people's faces. One of the most memorable classes of the night was the Amateur Three Year Old Stallion class. Chase Adkins, Andy Adkins' older brother, showed and won with Confederate

Jose, a horse selected by Andy and owned by their grandparents, John and Becky Shape. A large group of friends and family came to the hometown show to support the ride.

The final class of the night was the Riders' Cup Walking Horse Championship class. Five entries went through the gate to compete for top honors. First in the class was the Hoyte Eakes owned entry, Johnny Ritz, with Joe Cotten aboard. This duo adds another win to their resume and claimed the first leg of the Andy Adkins Memorial Trophy. Following in reserve and leaving with the red ribbon was George W. McClintock with Brock Tillman for owners, Rick and Marla Lovett. This duo was recently the Petersburg, TN Walking Horse Stake Champion.

The Scoop For The Walking Horse Industry

MISSISSIPPI CHARITY HORSE SHOW DONATES $50,000

For several years, the Blair Batson Children's Hospital in Jackson, Mississippi has been the charity of choice for the Mississippi Charity Horse Show. This year the show which was held March 29-31 was thrilled to be able to donate $50,000 to the hospital. This is the 82nd year for this fabulous horse show which is the epitome of southern hospitality. Money raised for this generous gift was obtained from sponsorships, entries, a great auction, and the passing of the hat each night.

Please see the Letter to the Editor from Robert Taylor, President of the Mississippi Charity Horse Show

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

I have been president of the Mississippi Charity Horse Show for the past five years. This show has been in existence for eighty-two years and has done much for charities. It is a three-night Tennessee Walking Horse Show held each spring. Our association is all volunteer and no salaries are paid.

In the last three years, we have given the Blair Batson Children's Hospital in Jackson a total of $105,000. Last year, the hospital chose to dedicate an examining room in their new emergency room to our show. The last two years donations have been $35,000 and $50,000 respectively. This was done with the USDA present five of the six nights and our entries were found to be approximately ninety-eight percent compliant. In our economic world today, four percent unemployment is considered full employment so I would say that ninety-eight percent compliant is excellent, especially when you consider it is subjective to one person's opinion. Based on the number of tickets written at routine traffic roadblocks, I would say that the number of persons driving without license or insurance falls far below ninety percent. I, for one, am very glad that we do not advocate closing our automotive factories because of this non-compliance. As long as there are children, animals, and humans, unfortunately there will be a certain amount of abuse. Why would we want to punish the ninety-eight percent who work hard to do what is right?

The southeast United States is recognized as being one of the most generous groups of people in our country. Over the past five years as president of our show, I can surely say that Tennessee Walking Horse owners rank at the top of the list. There are many shows in our industry who give to charities and organizations who have scholarship funds and camps for the youth.

One can only imagine the good that tax-deductible charities could do for others if they were as diligent with their funds as is the Jackson, Mississippi show. We would like to thank all the trainers, owners, and exhibitors for their generosity and for treating their horses with great care and respect.

Sincerely,
Robert Taylor
Jackson, Mississippi

JOSE'S BUDDY HOLLY AND GREG BRYANT WIN THE CALIFORNIA CELEBRATION

POMONA, CA – The California Celebration was held on June 9-10, 2012 at the LA County Fairplex. The Honorable Ginger Simpson of Huntland, TN judged the 43-class, two day show. Show Manager, Mary Kay Hartman, kept everyone organized and the show moving along.

Many of the great California horses shown will soon be on their way to Shelbyville for the end-of-summer shows and the Celebration.

The Tennessee Walking Horse Association of California (TWHAC) is dedicated to the promotion of the Tennessee Walking Horse. TWHAC sponsors a number of shows each year and is also involved with the non-competitive enjoyment of the Tennessee Walking Horse as a trail and pleasure mount, sponsoring numerous trail rides and Fun Day shows throughout the year.

The gorgeous and talented Jose's Buddy Holly won the Open Stake (Canter) class with Greg Bryant in the irons for owner, Lorraine Seth. The Open Specialty Stake honors went to Lucky Grand Slam with Melvin Parham directing "Slam" to the blue ribbon award for owners, Judy and Ron Jones of Chino Hills, CA and Flagstaff, AZ. Thank you to all the trainers, exhibitors, and spectators for supporting this show.

Congratulations to all of the winners at the California Celebration. To view the complete results and page by page print edition, visit our FREE website at www.thescooponline.com.

PRESIDENT IRBY'S RESPONSE TO NASHVILLE TENNESSEAN

“There has been no scientific evidence reported that proves pads and action devices harm the horses. In fact, the only study known, which is the Auburn Study, proves the 6 ounce action devices and current pads do not harm the horse. Unscrupulous people sore horses, not pads and action devices. To say they should be banned because it motivates people to sore horses is like saying we should ban automobiles because people speed or run stop signs. The Tennessee Walking Horse Breeders' & Exhibitors' Association is 100% only for the sound horse, and is against soring or harming horses in anyway. We are dedicated to the welfare and protection of our great breed!”

TWHBEA INTRODUCES MOTIVATED MARES PROGRAM

Lewisburg, TN - The Tennessee Walking Horse Breeders' and Exhibitors' Association (TWHBEA) is proud to introduce the new Motivated Mares Program. This program, which is open to all registered TWHBEA mares, mirrors the popular GO! Gelding Program. There have been many requests for a program that recognizes mares participating in all disciplines and TWHBEA is very pleased to offer this new opportunity for mare owners the world over.

The Motivated Mares Program is open to all registered TWHBEA mares regardless of age. The mare owner/rider must be a current TWHBEA member in good standing to participate. Upon paying the annual nomination fee, the nominated mare is eligible to participate in any category of this program. The program is broken down into two award categories, Category I-The Motivated Mares Competition Division and Category II-The Motivated Mares Super Mare Division. The Motivated Mares Competition Division is divided into five areas, performance, pleasure, versatility, endurance trail, and recreational trail. Each division is further broken down into two age categories, Junior Mare (4 years & Under) and Senior Mare (5 years & Over). The Super Mare Division is divided into two awards, The Flatshod Super Mare of the Year Award and The Performance Super Mare of the Year Award. Winners of these divisions will be the horses with the most overall points in their discipline at year's end. The Super Mare Awards will be awarded to the Mares who were awarded the most points during the year in their division.

This program will run from year to year. Points will begin accumulating beginning on November 1 of each year running through October 31 of the next year. Points will begin to accumulate after entry forms have been turned in and all nomination fees have been paid. The Motivated Mares Program Points Log must be turned in by November 1 and will be verified by TWHBEA. For shows that are not turned into TWHBEA to be published as show records on IPeds, a class sheet signed by the show secretary verifying the placing, must be included with the Log Book. Points will be earned by the placing of each mare in a judged competition with the only exception being the Recreational Trail division. Single judge shows will be counted as single points, three judge shows will be counted as double point shows, and five judges will be counted as triple point shows. The points in a single judge show will be awarded by 1st place 10 points, 2nd place 9 points, etc. Recreational Trail mares must fill out the Motivated Mares Recreational Trail Log where for each 5 hours of recreational riding one point will be awarded, thus for 50 hours of recreational riding (time in the saddle) the mare would earn 10 points. A detailed Log must be kept naming place, time and distance ridden.

There will be an annual nomination fee of $20.00 for each Competitive Division entered. $10.00 will be placed in the Competitive Division that the horse is nominated for and $10.00 into either the Flatshod or the Performance Super Mare of the Year money. All monies collected will be paid out in a given year. The owner of record at the conclusion of each point year as determined above will be the recipient of the Motivated Mares Programs cash awards which will be awarded at the TWHBEA Awards Banquet each year. TWHBEA will match the nomination fees up to the first 100 mares.

The top five mares in each division of The Motivated Mares Competitive Division (Category 1), will receive monetary awards with recognition given also to mares ranking 6-10. There will be only two winners with payout for the Motivated Mares Super Mare Division (Category 2). The winners will be the two mares, one Flatshod and one Performance horse, with the highest overall points in their respective competitive division.

TRAINERS' ENFORCEMENT INITIATIVE SET TO BEGIN

The Walking Horse Trainers' Association's Enforcement Initiative will begin with its swabbing protocol at participating horse shows on June 15, 2012. The new initiative will test for caustic agents and masking agents through gas chromatography-mass spectrometry (GC-MS) technology.

Any entry testing positive for a foreign substance violation through the enforcement initiative will result in the trainer receiving a two-week suspension of their trainers' license and all violations will be made public on the WHTA web site. In addition, all violations will be made public to industry HIOs accepting the protocol.

ARAB, ALABAMA SUMMER CLASSIC

ARAB, AL-The Walking Horse Association of Alabama held their Summer Classic Horse Show on June 16, 2012. The show was located at the Arab Horse Arena in Arab, Alabama. The show started at 6:00 pm. The show was affiliated with PRIDE HIO and the USDA was in attendance. Show chairpersons, Brenda May and Nancy Hawkins, did an excellent job putting on this show.

The man having the hard task of the night was the Honorable Joe Herald from Oakland, KY. He handled the difficult job of judging the 32 class show. Jennifer Barr was the photographer for the show, while THE SCOOP was pleased to capture the winning candid as the champions exited the arena. The show didn't charge for admission, but donations were happily accepted. That was something very unusual and different about this show.

Charlie Green made a great show to exhibit his winning ways in the Walking Horse Stake Canter Class aboard Southern Dollar for owner, Brian Turpen. Congratulations to all the winners this weekend from THE SCOOP staff! Please visit our FREE website at www.thescooponline.com.

Southern Dollar and Charlie Green started off the night by winning the Riders' Cup Open Specialty and finished the evening by winning the Riders' Cup Walking Horse Championship for owner, Bryan Turpen.

Leavenworth and Scott Beaty Named Stake Class Champion

CARTHAGE, TN - The South Carthage Civitan Club hosted the 48th Annual Smith County Horse Show Friday, June 15, 2012 at the Smith County Agriculture Center in Carthage, TN. The Honorable Jackie Bryom judged the 28 class event. The club's most outstanding project is its annual $500 and $1,000 college scholarships awarded to Smith County students, but they also work hard to raise money that they can contribute to organizations such as Little League Baseball, Girls Softball, Carthage and Gordonsville bands and other charitable organizations.

The Master of Ceremonies for the event was John Hood of Murfreesboro, TN. The individual appointed to manage the show ring as ringmaster was Jim Broyles of Carthage, TN. Others that played an important role in making this show a success were show chairman Mike Lee of Carthage, TN, organist Wayne Nabors and treasurer Dewayne Wilmore. These fine gentlemen kept the show running smoothly throughout the evening.

Two entries made the call to the center ring to compete in the Championship Stake class. This is the class that the audience looks forward to most. Leavenworth and Scotty Beaty took home the top honors in this class for owner, Mary Anna Mitchell. The Amateur Specialty class had four noteworthy entries, but it was Okey Dokey Jose who led the pack with Bethany Allred for owner Fred Allred. The Amateur Ladies Specialty had eight horses and riders battling it out for the blue and in the end it was George Clooney and Bethany Allred who won this class. The reserve honors went to the good team of Oops You Better Be Good and Harolene Willis. Another proud owner at the show was Bobby and Kim Parker as they watched Ryan Gannon guide Mr. Jose Walks to the blue in the Park Pleasure Open Specialty.

Congratulations to the winners of the Smith County Horse Show! For a complete list of show results, please visit the industry's HOTTEST FREE WEBSITE, www.thescooponline.com.

Trainers' Enforcement Initiative Set To Begin (continued)

The new enforcement initiative of the WHTA will be administered by independent veterinarians and/or veterinarian technicians. The results will be sent to the independent lab identified by the Tennessee Walking Show Horse Organization (TWSHO), who has helped administer and fund the initiative. Those results will be reviewed by an Independent Commissioner outside of the Horse Industry for imposition of the appropriate penalty in conjunction with the TWSHO and WHTA representatives. Testing and results will take 7-10 days to receive.

"Our board and our membership understand the importance of this initiative as we continue to place importance on the welfare of our horse. We have a great horse capable of great things and this initiative will prove the natural ability of the Tennessee Walking Horse. We urge all horse shows that allow Tennessee Walking Horses to embrace and implement this testing," said President Jamie Hankins.

"Although we are extremely disappointed in the recent joint statement of the American Association of Equine Practitioners and American Veterinary Medical Association, we are encouraged that it clearly and correctly pointed out that our action device and package cause no harm to our horse," concluded Hankins.

Any trainer or entry that refuses to submit to the testing prior to showing will not be allowed to enter the class and will receive a suspension of their license for two weeks.

Large industries tend to resist fundamental change; however, it does occur. Automakers from Audi to Toyota have removed unsafe vehicles from the road, even at great cost to their companies. The tobacco industry, though it continues to make unsafe products, can no longer market to children and is highly taxed to discourage volume sales.

Some of these industries were dragged into better citizenship. Some food manufacturers and distributors have been more proactive, improving labeling and the nutritional content of their products after health risks were identified.

Of course, reforms from within often occur to head off civil lawsuits. It needn't get that far for the Walking Horse industry. It's a given that the Tennessee Walking Horse Breeders' and Exhibitors' Association should enforce zero tolerance of abuse among its members. But why not also fund a program of education and awareness on humane treatment of animals in coordination with schools, 4-H Clubs and farm associations? Make soring an atrocity that only happened in the past.

Most important of all, stop the fear — fear by individuals and businesses whose livelihoods depend on horse shows — that bringing abuse to light will only hurt them economically. The fans who truly care about horses will keep coming to the shows even without the "big lick," and probably will gain new legions of fans confident that the horses are being treated humanely.

Editorial from the Nashville Tennessean

A NEW PATH FOR WALKING HORSE INDUSTRY

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has stepped up to prove that it takes abuse of Tennessee Walking Horses seriously. That's good news, but what is more important is whether the show-horse industry has learned that it must change for the better.

On June 5, the USDA announced a new rule requiring minimum penalties for violations of the Horse Protection Act. Though the act was put in place 40 years ago, it has not been consistently enforced, and the maiming and beating of these animals has continued to the present.

The new rule means that any of the outside organizations that often conduct inspections of horses before shows must impose the same level of federal penalty at every show. Any horse found to be sored will automatically be disqualified from competition, and those responsible will be suspended from shows and other events.

The USDA had little choice other than to take a tougher line after the recent release of an undercover video made by the Humane Society of the United States. That video made it possible for millions of people worldwide to see the depraved way that some horses are treated, to condition them into a high-kicking gait that will bring prize money and glory to the horses' owners and trainers.

In the past, the industry has reacted publicly to cases of soring, issuing handfuls of suspensions and forming the inspection organization SHOW. But the soring cases always came back; if, indeed, they ever ceased.

So how might it be different this time? As shocking as the video is, the public and inspectors might think the new rule means people who care about horses can rest easy. But even though the show-horse industry cannot truly self-regulate, it certainly can reform itself from within.

UNIFIED HORSE SHOW DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM NEWS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(June 15, 2012 Shelbyville, Tennessee) – The Unified Horse Show Development Program (UHDP), an arm of the Foundation for the Advancement and Support of the Tennessee Walking Show Horse (FAST), fully supports the Walking Horse Trainers' Association's new Enforcement Initiative. The new initiative will use gas chromatography-mass spectrometry swabs to ensure caustic agents and masking agents are removed from horses entering competition.

"We are very supportive of the WHTA and their initiative to remove those trainers who choose to use illegal substances in the preparation of their horses. The welfare of our animals has and will continue to be at the forefront of UHDP and FAST's mission," said UHDP Chair Deborah Williams.

The UHDP was formed to assist new horse show development as well as help existing shows that need financial aid. The group will also seek to revitalize previous Walking Horse venues and help with walking horse events across the nation. The UHDP will focus its aid to horse shows primarily outside of the states of Tennessee and Kentucky. Horse events and shows will have to apply to the UHDP for financial aid. Applications can be found at www.fastwalkingshowhorse.org.

The program also includes a mentoring program. UHDP will offer mentoring services to groups that request help with organizing their shows and putting together events. The UHDP and FAST proudly promote all show disciplines of the Tennessee Walking Horse.

White Pine, TN

IN SPITE OF LOW NUMBERS, EAST TENNESSEE CLASSIC STILL MAKES DONATION TO SMALL MIRACLES

White Pine, TN – On June 15-16 at the Walter State Expo Center, the East Tennessee Classic attempted to have their 43rd Annual Horse Show. What started out to be a great fund raiser for the Small Miracles Therapeutic Organization very quickly turned bad as seven USDA officials came on the scene with the intent to shut down the show. The East Tennessee Classic decided that even though the show was in the hole by a great margin, they would still make a large donation of $2,000 to this great cause. The East Tennessee Classic show management is to be highly commended for a job well done. Judges Bill Bailey, Dean Byard, and Frankie Roark marked the cards for the 64 entries that made the gate call for the two night event. The announcer was Scott Frye, the organist was Jane Frye, and Equine Images by Kim was the official photographer. The show was affiliated with PRIDE HIO and Josh Baxter was on hand for all of the farrier needs.

Please visit the SCOOP's FREE website at www.thescooponline.com for the latest news and results.

The beautiful Lexi Stinnett and I Command Applause won the Youth 12-17 Stake class. This team also won Youth 12 -17 on Friday night.
