FIFTH ANNUAL BETTY FREEMAN MEMORIAL

Lebanon, TN – The Fifth Annual Betty Freeman Memorial Horse Show Classic was held Friday, August 17, in the covered arena at the James E. Ward Agricultural Center. This horse show is held in conjunction with the Wilson County Fair.

The Honorable Billy Young had the difficult job of making the decisions in the classes. The show was presented by the Middle Tennessee Ford Dealers. The trophies were sponsored by the Wilson Bank and Trust and ribbons were sponsored by Freeman Foals and Watch Out Jose. All winners received a sack of feed courtesy of Edwards Feed and a gift from Wilson Farm Cooperative. The proceeds from this show benefit Betty Freeman's favorite charities.

Taking home another blue ribbon was WC Maxximize and Jeff Givens in the Model class. Julia Cole and Cash In My Dollar claimed the honors in the Amateur Four Year Olds and Sally Reiley's entry, Starry Eyes, added another blue to her collection in the Lite Shod Open class. Carroll Counts and Generator's Freefalling made the victory pass in the Amateur Canter class. The Jimmy Reece family owned entry, U Hit Blackjack with Chad Way in the irons, made an outstanding show to win the Three Year Old Stallions class. The Amateur Park Pleasure class saw Wayne Westbrook and Outlined In Silver in the winner's circle. Claiming the title of Walking Stake Champion was Tin Man's Party Doll and Drew Graves for Robbie Spiller. These are a few of the highlights from this show which saw some very talented horses go through the gate.

Complete results follow and may be viewed on our FREE website at www.thescooponline.com.

Maxximize and Jeff Givens added another blue to their very impressive collection of wins for owner, Jo Ann Dowell.

The Scoop For The Walking Horse Industry

CELEBRATION LEADING THE WAY IN HORSE SAFETY WITH ENHANCEMENTS TO THE TRAINERS INITIATIVE

Shelbyville, TN – Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration Board of Directors today announced historical reforms that will ensure that The Celebration leads the way in reforming the industry so all horses are treated humanely and they are trained in a safe environment. Today's measures will enhance science based testing recently announced by the Walking Horse Trainers' Association (WHTA's) Enforcement Initiative and strengthen the stringent testing methods currently employed by the Celebration. For the first time ever swabbing results will be made public during the event and violations will be punished severely by suspending trainers' licenses, disqualifying horses, removing ribbons, trophies and prize monies.

"The Celebration is the premier Tennessee Walking Horse event in the world, so it is only fitting that we lead the way in reforming the industry so that all horses are treated humanely and trained in a safe environment," said Dr. Doyle Meadows, CEO of the Celebration. "The Celebration's highest priority is placed on the safety of the horses, which is why all of the horses participating in our event are inspected by the Horse Industry Organization (HIO) that employs the strictest inspection process and strongest penalties in the business."

Every horse participating in the Celebration® will be tested for foreign substances through the WHTA's Enforcement Initiative program. This swabbing program is an objective, science-based inspection initiative to swab the pasterns of horses in competition in order to detect substances that harm the horse or mask substances that could have harmed the horse. Celebration is going one step further and paying to expedite the swabs so that the results will be available during the event – this is a first in the history of the Industry. The swabbing results will then be made public and those found in violation will be punished in accordance with the Trainers' Initiative. This is also the first time that classes will be retied accordingly removing ribbons, trophies and prize monies. A trainer found in violation will have their license suspended in line with WHTA initiative protocol and the horse will be disqualified.

"We applaud The Celebration's commitment to horse safety and to preserving this rich Tennessee tradition for future generations," said Jamie Hankins, WHTA President. "Not only is The Celebration going above and beyond anything that has ever been done in the Industry, they are footing the bill as well. We are happy to see such strong support for the WHTA's Enforcement Initiative. Together we are reforming the Industry so that only sound horses compete in the show ring."

These new measure are in addition to the normal SHOW HIO inspection and USDA inspection. This will be the most intense and severe punished inspection of TWH and Celebration in history. Last year, The Celebration had a 93% compliance rate and 98.9% agreement between SHOW HIO and USDA inspectors. Additionally, the USDA only found 1.1% of all horses the inspected out of compliance with HPA. These new measures will raise the bar even higher.

FACTS ABOUT THE CELEBRATION

- Founded in 1939, The Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration® is based on a vision of Henry Davis of Wartrace, TN. It has grown into the world's largest and most prestigious event celebrating one of Tennessee's most valuable assets - the Tennessee Walking Horse.
- The 2012 Celebration is the 74th Annual Celebration.
- The event is an 11-day and night annual festival in Shelbyville, TN, taking place in the summer, during which more than 2,660 horses compete in 171 classes and more than $650,000 in prizes are awarded.
- The Celebration® names 39 World Champions of the breed and the festival culminates in its main attraction, the crowning of the World Grand Champion®, on the Saturday evening prior to Labor Day.

ECONOMIC AND CIVIC IMPACT TO THE COMMUNITY

- Selling nearly a 170,000 tickets to fans from more than 40 states each year, The Celebration® has an economic impact on Middle Tennessee's economy, comparable to a NASCAR race and bigger than the Music City Bowl and the Country Music Marathon.

- The economic impact on Shelbyville and Bedford County by the Celebration event alone has been estimated by a recent survey to be approximately $38.5 million annually.
- Additionally, events in Calsonic Arena and the grounds throughout the year bring in another $13 million annually.
- Many local civic clubs and charities depend on the 11-day event to raise funds to serve their community.
- At present, approximately 17 civic clubs use the Celebration as their annual fundraiser and have raised more than $3.5 million over the past 15 years. Last year alone, these clubs grossed nearly $400,000 and netted more than $240,000 by operating food booths, parking cars, producing and selling programs, and selling souvenirs.
- All of the clubs use the proceeds to fund various programs throughout the county, including youth-oriented programs, recreational and sports leagues, as well as programs that help the disabled, the poor, or the disadvantaged.

MONDAY EVENING CLASS SCHEDULE MODIFIED

In an effort to allow the trainers with multiple entries more preparation time between splits of the Two-Year-Old Stallion class, The Celebration® will conduct Classes 111 and 112 between the splits. Traditionally the three splits, A, B, and C have been shown back to back to back. On Monday evening, August 27, the class schedule will be as follows:

|------|--|
| 107 | Owner-Amateur Gentleman Drivers, Fine Harness |
| 108 | *Walking Mares, Five Years & Over, Over 15.2 (Canter) |
| 109 | *Classic Park Pleasure Walking Horses |
| 110A | *Two-Year-Old Walking Stallions |
| 111 | Owner-Amateur Riders 50 Years and Over on Park Pleasure Walking Horses |
| 110B | *Two-Year-Old Walking Stallions |
| 112 | Owner-Amateur Gentleman Riders on Show Pleasure Walking Horses |
| 110C | *Two-Year-Old Walking Stallions |
| 113 | Elite Owner-Amateur Lady Riders on Walking Stallions |
| 114 | *Walking Mares, 15.2 and Under (Canter) |
| 115 | Owner-Amateur Riders on Park Performance Walking Horses |
| 116 | Owner-Amateur Riders on Walking Mares or Geldings |
| 117 | *Walking Stallions, 15.2 and Under (Canter) |

Class 111, Owner-Amateur Riders 50 Years and Over on Park Pleasure Walking Horses, and Class 112, Owner-Amateur Gentleman Riders on Show Pleasure Walking Horses will show earlier in the evening performance. "Hopefully this will allow the trainers more time and opportunity to show multiple entries in the Two-Year-Old Stallions class while allowing Classes 111 and 112 to show earlier in the evening," said Dr. Doyle Meadows, CEO of The Celebration®.

30TH ANNUAL SPRING HILL LIONS CLUB

Spring Hill, TN – The 30th Annual Spring Hill Lions Club Horse Show was held on Saturday, August 18, at the Spring Hill Ball Park. Russ Thompson from Chino Hills, California, judged the sixteen-class event. This year's show featured all flatshod and halter classes. Due to the grass track, all classes were specialty classes. Ghost On Parole captured the Yearling Fillies class and went on to take all the honors in a very competitive Halter Championship with Mary Hickerson as the handler for Harlinsdale Farm.

The fellowship is always good at Spring Hill, as well as the food. Featured at the concession stand were country ham sandwiches and delicious homemade desserts.

Complete results and candid pictures follow. Please visit our FREE website at www.thescooponline for the latest industry news.

THE Flat List

1. Bakery at Martin Farm

If caramel cake is your dessert of choice, then ordering one from Cena Martin is a must! The buttery cake, with its rich, sugary, dense caramel frosting just melts in your mouth. Mrs. Martin makes many more exciting flavors such as coconut, butter pound cake with custard sauce and even jam cake. What's better is that these cakes are delivered on a silver platter in an adorable pink box with a black ribbon. Cupcakes are her new biggest hit. Her summertime favorite flavors are Very Chocolate, Strawberry, Coconut, Carrot Cake, Wedding Cake, Red Velvet, White Coconut and Luscious Lemon. Make your box seat neighbors jealous by ordering some for your horse show guests! Call Cena to order your cake today at 931-580-2362.

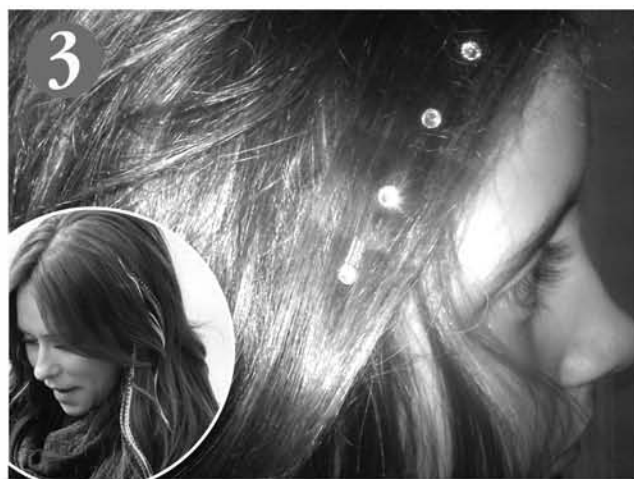

2. J. Jordan Boutique

If you've picked up a recent issue of People, Elle or Lucky magazine, you know the hype Miss Me Jeans have been getting. If you've been out of the loop, this is your official notice that you need to pick up a pair today! So, where can you get such a hot item? J. Jordan Boutique, of course! This great boutique has many other fashionable items, from adorable summer dresses to feather headbands, so stop by today! J. Jordan Boutique is located at 104 Public Square East, Shelbyville, TN 37160.

3. Joi de Vie Salon and Spa

All the celebrities are doing it, and so can you! Steven Tyler showed off his plumes on American Idol and other stars such as Jennifer Love Hewitt, Keidi Klum, Kesha and Tori Spelling are following suit, adding feather and color extensions to their hair. This local salon can add any color or style of feather to your tresses, a trend that will make you a fashionista and all of your friends jealous. Also, the other big trends for the season are bling for your hair and hair chalk. Of course while you're there, if you're in the mood for a facial or mani and pedi, they are happy to accommodate! Call Lynn Dropka at 931-703-4562 to make an appointment.

4. God Is...Everything

The mission of the God Is...Everything™ is "to inspire and encourage." Well, you can do just that while making a fashion statement when you sport their bracelets and T-shirts. Bracelets are inscribed with the words "God Is..." on the top side, and underneath, it is revealed just what He may mean to you, with words like "My Anchor. Hebrews 6:19." Each bracelet is hand painted and embellished and would be the perfect accessory for a night out at the horse show. You can find these bracelets in boutiques all over the southeast, but J. Jordan in Shelbyville and Bell Buckle or Merle Norman in Murfreesboro are the places to pick yours up while you're in town for the Celebration. Also, visit www.godiseverything.net for more information.

5. CF Smith Food Town

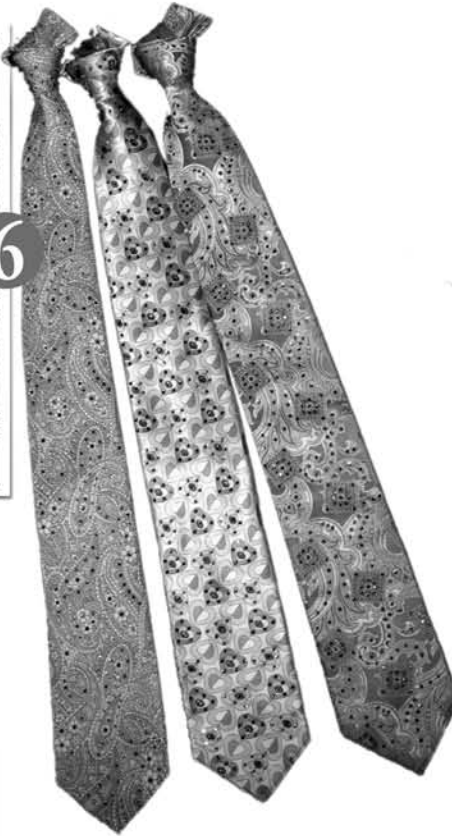

Did you rent that great house with the big grill out back? Tired of eating fast food? Well, put the grill to work and make your taste buds happy by treating them to the best meat in town! Smith's Grocery is THE place to pick up your specialty cuts, be it beef, pork or whatever makes your mouth water. They can do it all. Stop by CF Smith Food Town, located at 803 Deery St., Shelbyville, TN or give them a call at 931-684-6565 to place your order!

6. Bling Tie Affair

We know you want to win that World Championship, so you better look like a World Champion while you're at it! Designer Patti Pollack has carved out a niche in the tie market, geared towards the sophisticated rider. One of a kind designer ties are hand embellished with Swarovski crystals by Patti herself. Her newest trend is custom crystallizing your western saddle. Order yours today so that you can stand out from the crowd! Call Patti at 408-202-5752 to create your custom tie.

7. Art, Antiques & Collectibles

This says it all, as this store has everything you could ever want and more! We love it for many reasons, but since we had to narrow it down, we'll start with Shelbyville Boutique Fashion, the trendy clothing stall located in the southwest corner of the antique mall. From stylish jewelry, including these adorable horse earrings, to scarves, bohemian inspired dresses and peasant tops, it's worth stopping in to see the latest fashion. Dina D'Argo's artwork is another must-have find. This artist displays her equine inspired acrylic paintings discovered at the antique mall. D'Argo describes her style as a "refined blend of abstract and representational, with loose brush strokes, lush colors and textural effects." Christmas presents anyone??? Stop by this amazing destination today, located at 123 Public Square South in Shelbyville.

MEET THE JUDGES

Nathan Clark

Nathan Clark has been looking forward to the challenge of judging the greatest horse show in the world his entire life. This year Nathan will be making his third appearance, having judged in both 2008 and 2010. At the age of 35, this will be his 36th consecutive Celebration that he has attended, so it's safe to say The Celebration® has been an important part of Nathan's life.

Nathan has been involved in the industry since birth and has experienced it from the perspective of a trainer and a judge. Clark's judging resume includes the Celebration Spring Fun Show, Delta Fall Classic, Wartrace, Fayetteville, Germantown Charity, Mississippi State Charity, Columbia Spring Jubilee, Woodbury, Pulaski, Southern Championship, Ohio Celebration, and Big D Charity. Nathan becomes the second generation of his family to judge at The Celebration®. His father, Steve, was on the panel in 1998. Clark says, "Judging The Celebration® is the greatest of all achievements for myself in the horse business." Nathan is married to his wife of ten years, Anna, and they have two boys, Frank and John Winston.

Joel Weaver

After judging the Celebration Spring Fun Show in both 2004 and 2012, Joel Weaver is now making his debut as a judge at the Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration®. Joel resides in Shelbyville, TN, with his wife Kristy Butler Weaver. He has three children, Stratton, Lake, and Ireland. Joel has been involved with the Tennessee Walking Horse for many years, and he has passed his love for our great breed on to his children. Apart from his judging appearances at the Celebration Spring Fun Show, Joel has also judged shows such as the Red Carpet Show of the South, Alabama Jubilee, Gulf Coast Charity, and multiple one-night shows.

Chris Bobo

The grandson of the late C.A. Bobo and son of Bill Bobo, both Tennessee Walking Horse World Grand Champion® trainers and riders, Chris Bobo is a third generation Tennessee Walking Horse enthusiast. He currently resides in Shelbyville, TN, and graduated in 1996 from Freed Hardeman University. Although this will be Chris's first appearance on the Celebration judging panel, he is no stranger to the judge's card. Chris judged the Great Celebration Mule and Donkey Show in 2012. He has also judged the Mississippi Charity, Gulf Coast Charity, West Coast Trainers, International Pleasure and Colt Grand Championship, Big D, Marshal County Horseman's, and multiple one-night shows. Chris is married to Katybeth Beasley Bobo, and they have two sons, Elijah and Benjamin.

Carol Smithson

A Clarksville, TN, native, Carol Smithson will be making her debut at this year's Celebration on the Pleasure Judging panel. Although this is her first time judging at The Celebration®, she is no stranger to the big oval. Carol began showing Tennessee Walking Horses at the young age of five. Having owned and trained multiple World Champions and International Champions, Carol has experienced great success in the Tennessee Walking Horse industry. She has also trained two TWHBEA Supreme Versatility Champions and WHOA Register of Merit Champions. Carol currently holds the title of Chairperson of the SHOW Judges' Committee and is a current SHOW DQP.

MEET THE JUDGES

Jennifer Bingham

Jennifer Bingham was born and raised in Burlington, KY. She moved to Middle Tennessee in 1994 to attend college at Middle Tennessee State University where she majored in Finance with an emphasis in insurance, and so she could be closer to the heart of the Tennessee Walking Horse. She currently resides in Shelbyville.

Jennifer's first trip to the Celebration was in 1988, where she placed reserve in the Walking Pony class. In 1992, Jennifer earned her first World Championship in Equitation, and in 2000, she claimed the Owner-Amateur Novice Lady Riders on Novice Mares & Geldings World Championship with Something Extra Special.

Jennifer is no stranger to the center ring at The Celebration®. This year will mark her fourth consecutive year to judge this world class event. Other notable shows around the country that Jennifer has judged include the Celebration Spring Fun Show, Gulf Coast Charity Horse Show, SSHBEA World Championship Show, Land O Sky, East TN Classic, Germantown Charity Show, and multiple one night shows.

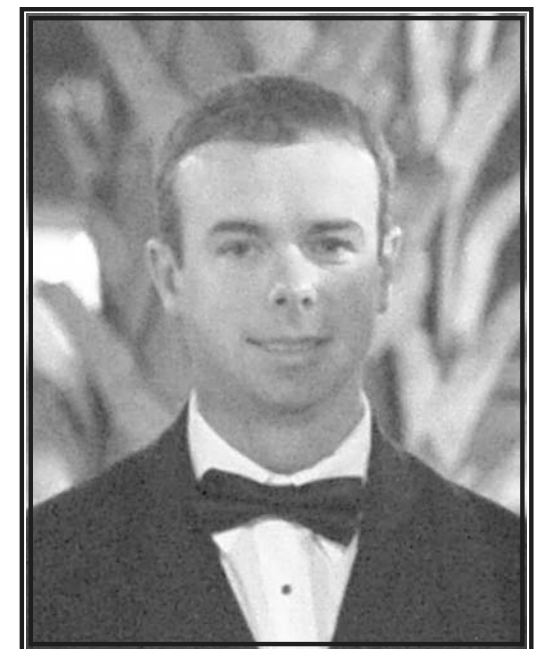

Connie Waldo

Originally from Montana, Connie Waldo moved to Middle Tennessee following her retirement from Montana State University where she worked in Information Technology - Computer Operations and the Student I.D. department. She made the move to Tennessee to pursue a more competitive show ring career. Connie grew up with horses and participated in 4-H as a child. She is noted as an accomplished pleasure horse rider and judge. Her first TWHNC Ribbon was in 1995 on a two year old performance filly that she trained herself from her home in Montana. Her most memorable Celebration memories are of her four World Grand Championships® on a horse she trained named Drop The Hammer. Connie is an AAAA Master Judge with S.H.O.W. She serves on the S.H.O.W. Judges panel and The Celebration® Advisory Board. She is a Certified Riding Instructor and has traveled around the United States and Canada presenting clinics to Walking Horse Enthusiasts. Her 25 year judging career spans a wide variety of shows including multiple gaited breed shows. As a S.H.O.W. Judge, she has judged many multiple day and one-night shows and the 2010 International.

Brent Grider

Born and raised in Columbia, KY, Brent Grider has been involved in the walking horse industry his entire life. He is the son of Ronnie Grider, the grandson of the late O.E. Grider and the nephew of Tommy Grider and Donnie Grider, all of which are long time Walking Horse enthusiasts. Brent is married to his wife of seven years, Courtney, and they have a daughter, Harper who is six. Brent operates Grider Stables located in Columbia, home of numerous World Champions. Brent won his first World Championship in 2006 aboard Witch Revival and won two World Championship titles at last year's show with Generating The Command and Major Sky Command. While this is Brent's first time in the big oval, he has been a licensed judge since 2002. He judged the Gulf Coast Charity Celebration Horse Show, managed by The Celebration® this year. Other notable shows that he has judged include Columbia Spring Jubilee, Alabama Jubilee, Kentucky Celebration, Kentucky Ladies Auxiliary and multiple shows in Tennessee, Missouri, Arkansas and Iowa. When asked how he felt about being chosen as one of the judges for this year's show, Brent said, "I am very honored and excited to be selected as one of this year's judges and look forward to a great 2012 Celebration."

Rossy

Kate

Laura Lester, age 21, currently lives in Franklin, TN, but is originally from Hopkinsville, KY. Laura pursued her love for design by attending the O'More College of Design in the Fall of 2009 and graduated in the Spring of 2012. Laura created her first collection of five sassy little outfits - the "Rossy Kate" Collection - which came out in the Summer of 2011 and her second collection of trendy little outfits, "Ruffled Feathers", which followed in the Fall/Spring of 2011-2012. This collection was chosen to appear at the O'More Fashion show, where these cute little numbers were a huge hit!

Laura decided to go back to the name "Rossy Kate" for her custom clothing. This name was established in Summer of 2012. The name is a combination of Laura's niece's names. Ella Ross and Emory Kate. "Rossy Kate" is custom designed children's sizes 3-12. Laura collaborates with mothers, grandmothers, and children to design an outfit that is completely custom to their liking.

She keeps many fabrics on hand and also clients buy their own fabric. She custom makes all of her patterns and alters them to fit each child. Basically, each piece is one of a kind and is unique to each child wearing it!

Laura is very involved in the Tennessee Walking Horse industry. She has been showing walking horses since 2005. This year she will be competing in the Amateur Four Year Old class with Masq Of Jazz showing out of Knox Blackburn Stables and in the Amateur Pony division on I'm Major Payne under Simpson Stables. Laura is very excited to see her little models displaying her custom clothing at this year's Celebration. Look for Candy, Counti and WhiteLei Green, Irelyn Weaver, Jayden Jackson, Beth and Jessica Lawwell to take a peak at her work.

Laura would like to give credit where it is due and she is very appreciative for all her mom's hard work and would like to thank both of her parents and Ben Gray for their support.

Look for Laura at the Celebration or call her cell at 270-348-2891 if you're interested in a custom outfit! She is currently taking fall and holiday orders.
