Turnbow and former owner, Lynn Womack, made a World Grand Championship ride in the Open Show Pleasure class Saturday night. The Emericks were sitting in their box. They couldn't take their eyes off of him. His gait was outstanding and his looks were nothing but elegance. After a call to trainer, Russ Thompson, they purchased this champion. The Emericks are very excited to make their debut in California with Roger Emerick in the irons.

WALK TIME Charlie

Walk Time Charlie winning in the Calsonic Arena in 2011 with Chad Baucom in the irons.

Walk Time Charlie was foaled March 15, 2007. He was bred and owned by Robert Stannard of Lebanon, KY until he was sold to John Callicutt in June, 2011. In July, 2011, Walk Time Charlie became the property of the winning trio of Kilgore, Holland, and Callicutt. Walk Time Charlie was sired by Lined With Cash, whose record as a breeding stallion is without question. However, it is interesting to note that his dam, Rebel's Design, is the dam of Willie Twilight, who is undefeated in 2012 and is the Owner/Amateur Two Year Old Stallions World Champion with Lorraine Rosbury in the irons. Willie Twilight was recently purchased by the Keith and Lorraine Rosbury from John Callicutt. Rebel's Design has had three foals – Walk Time Charlie, Willie Twilight, and Big Smoothie, a black stallion whose show ring career is still in front of him .

Preliminary stud night set the course for what would be the final decision on the last Saturday night. Another unanimous decision was made by the five judges at the Celebration in the B Division Stallions Five & Over 15.2 & Over Canter class. Scoring a blue on all 5 judges cards was Walk Time Charlie with Chad Baucom in the irons for owners, Neal Holland and Bob Kilgore from Decatur and Tuscaloosa, AL and John Callicutt from Seagrove, NC. He won this class out of 8 top entries competing for the top title.

The week was filled with excitement and everyone was talking about Walk Time Charlie and Chad Baucom's preliminary performance. Little did anyone know that this duo would come back Championship night even better. As the final class of the TWHNC was called to the ring and everyone stood to the sound of Larry Bright's organ and the Flat Walk Boogie, twelve top entries answered the gate call. Chad Baucom came in on Walk Time Charlie and did all three gates to perfection both ways of the ring. When the judges inspected the horses for conformation, the crowd roared for "Charlie" as he showed his good looks as a future breeding stallion for our industry. As the saddles were placed back on and the stake horses took the rail, Walk Time Charlie made a fantastic performance to win the crowd's approval and the judges, too. This team was sitting tight, looking right, and on the last Saturday night. Scoring once again a unanimous decision was entry number 432, Walk Time Charlie and Chad Baucom. The team made a flawless ride in the spotlight to claim the roses and title of the 2012 World Grand Champion in front of a near-capacity crowd that was on their feet with excitement and cheers following the announcement and as they made their victory pass.

Bringing the first World Grand Championship title to the Carolinas was this year's rider, Chad Baucom. He began riding as a young child. He grew up with all the essentials for becoming a great horseman like his father. He began as most do, breaking colts and grooming, and had the love of showing Tennessee Walking Horses. This fine young man captured his first Celebration blue in 1977 on a mare named Ace's Doing Doll in the 11 & Under class. He later gained a World Grand Championship aboard Charcoal's Delight in the 15.2 & Under division. In 1995, Baucom was Reserve World Grand Champion with Star Of The Future for owners, Wildwood Farm and the McLaughlin family. In 2010, he directed Moody Star to a Reserve World Grand Championship title for Wilsene Moody. Chad is the 2011 Walking Horse Trainer of the Year and has been the North Carolina Walking Horse Association Trainer of the Year multiple times. He is the father of two, Tyler and Kayla, both of whom are following in the father's footsteps as outstanding riders.

This champion was selected after an amazing amateur performance with John Callicutt in the saddle at the 2011 National Trainers' Show. He was also 2011 Spring Fun Show Four Year Old Open Canter Reserve Champion and 2011 Tony Rice Four Year Old Champion.

Kilgore and Holland saw something extra special and knew this horse had what it would take to be a World Grand Champion and bought a partnership in Walk Time Charlie. The partnership owners of Walk Time Charlie have been involved with many World Grand Champions. Neal Holland and Bob Kilgore have been associated with World Champions in the past, but this was the first time for The Callicutt family to win the big stake and they were ecstatic. The owners are very proud of Baucom's success with this horse and thank everyone for joining them at the "walk off" on both Saturday nights.

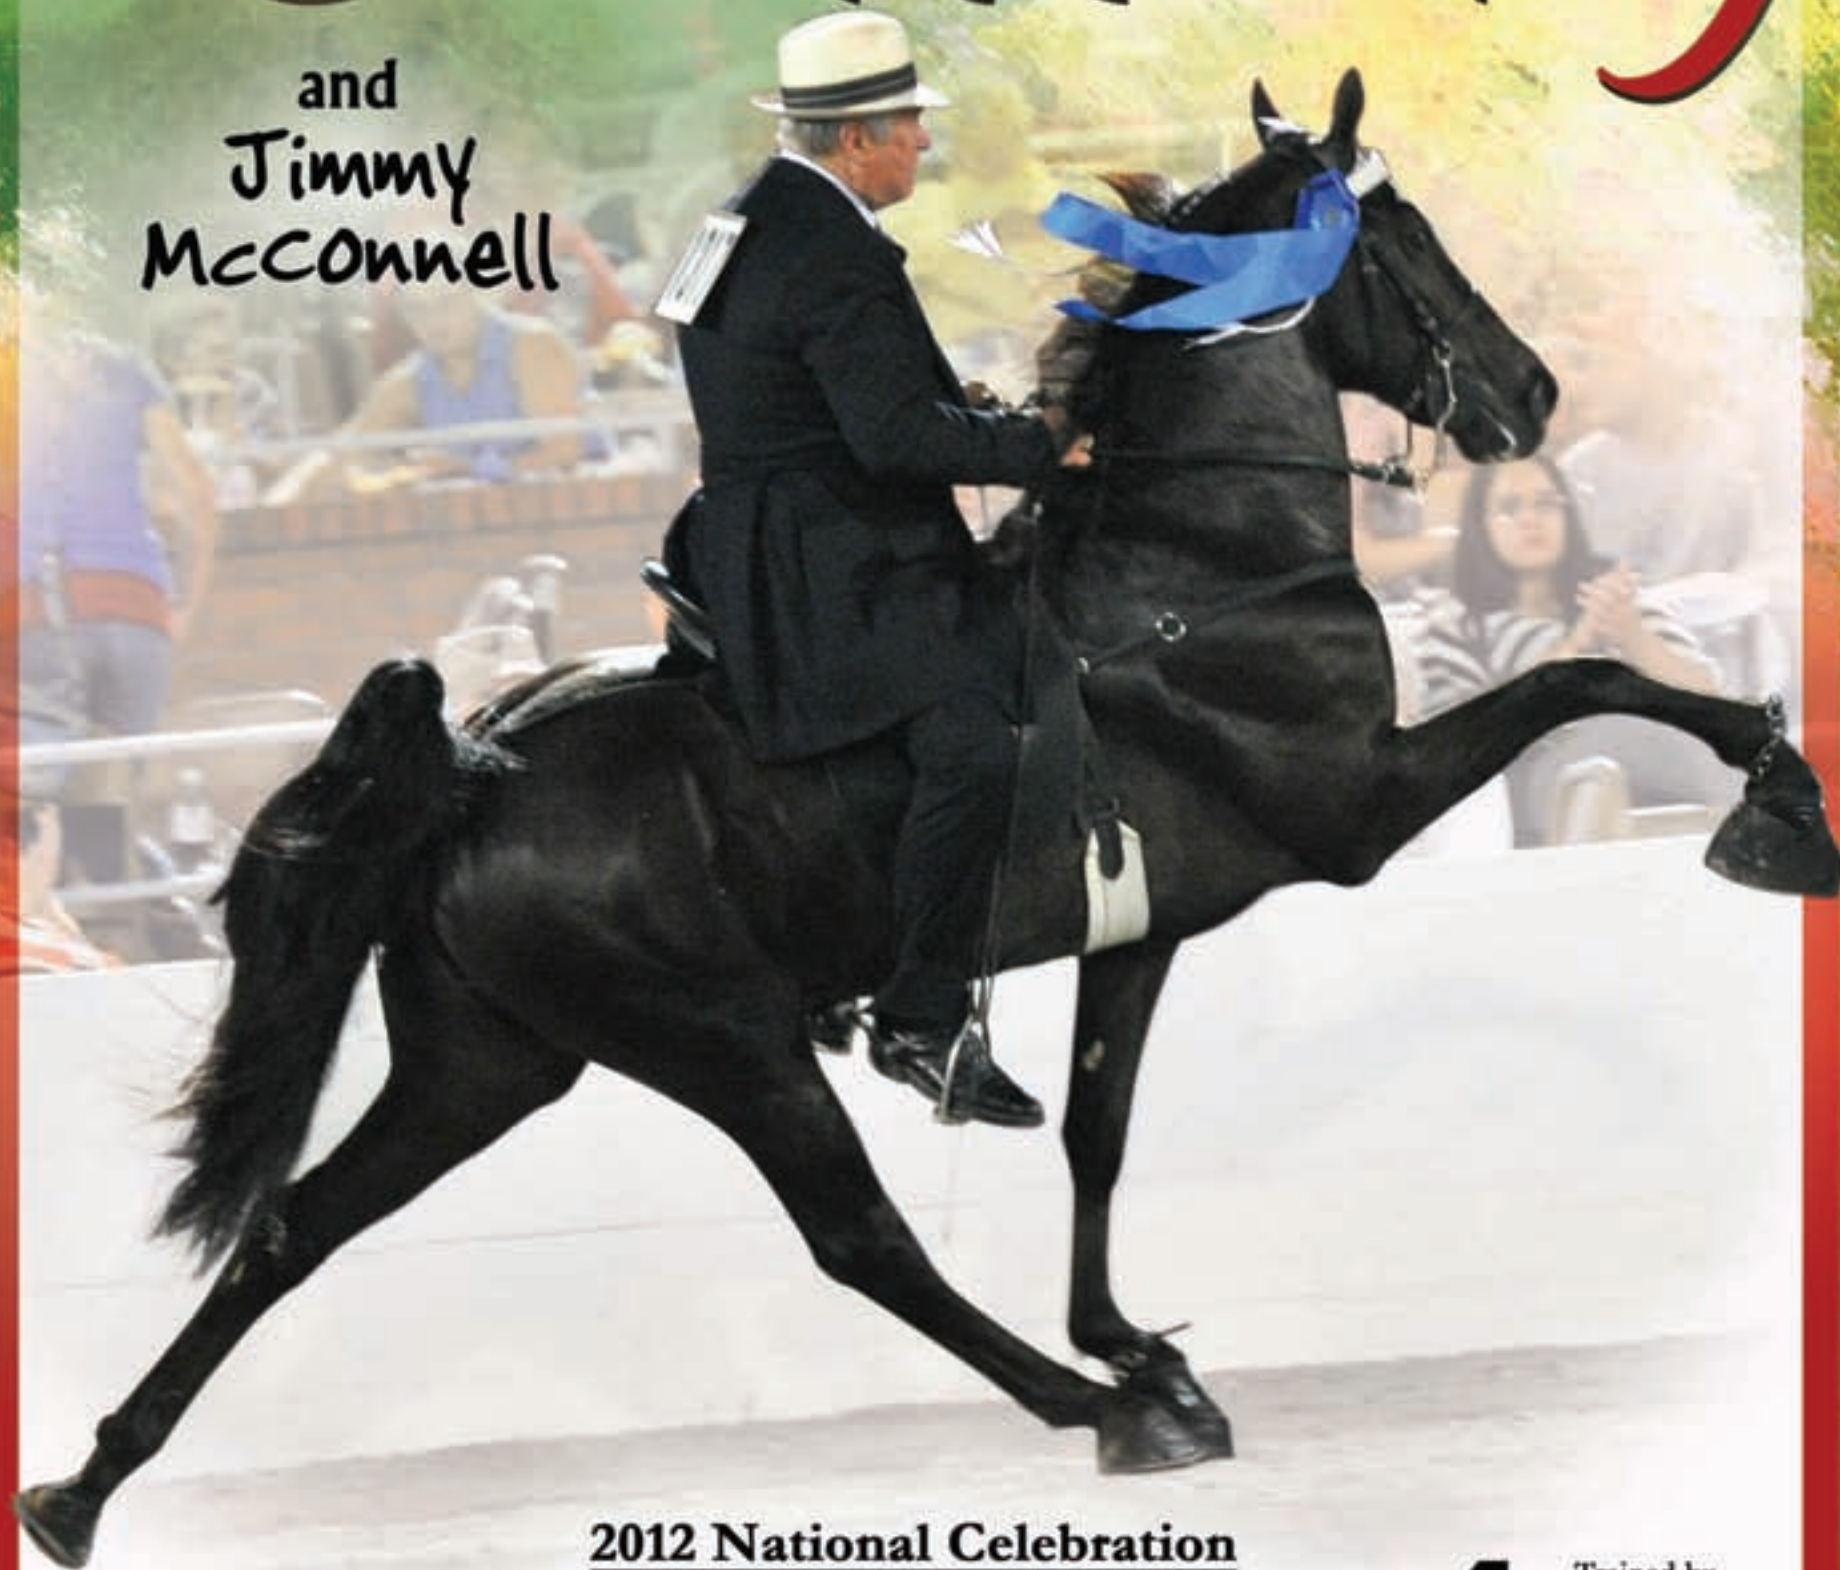

Arrangements have been made for the first special exhibition of the newly crowned World Grand Champion to be at The Tennessee State Fair in Nashville, TN. This will be the first public appearance for Baucom and Walk Time Charlie since being crowned the 74th Annual National Celebration World Grand Champions over the Labor Day weekend.

Walk Time Charlie will be available for fans to see and visit on Wednesday, September 12, 2012 from 6:00PM-8:00PM with an exhibition to follow in the equestrian center on the fairgrounds. The Tennessee State Fair runs from Friday, September 7 through Sunday, September 16, 2012.

2012 Celebration Highlights

Compliments of The Walking Horse Report

WGC Walk Time Charlie

Four Year Old WGC Honors

Three Year Old WGC Jose It Ain't So

Two Year Old WGC Nine Gold

It's Saturday Night in Shelbyville! There's just something different about Championship Saturday. Over a hour prior to show time, there was a buzz all over Shelbyville that's just not present most any other time.

Opening up the evening's program tonight was the Lead-Line Ponies, Riders 6 Years and Under World Grand Championship, class 164, which promised to be as exciting as any tonight, as all 16 of the expected teams made the gait call to show for the Saturday night crowd as Judge Nathan Clark served as Call Judge. Of course, everyone had their favorite and was not shy about letting the panel know who they were. There were cheers coming from every part of the historic big oval. When the spotlight came on, it settled on the team of Rattle & Snap and Ashtyn Claire Brown, with mom Carla Brown at the lead as they made the memorable walk in the spotlight for Ashtyn Claire Brown of Columbia, Tenn. This team was reserve in this class in 2011 and won in 2012 with a unanimous decision of the judging panel. Rascal Flatts and Grace Wilhelm were reserve, with mom Kristen Wilhelm at the lead, for Byrom and Wilhelm of Bell Buckle and Shelbyville, Tenn. Texas Pete and Julia Paige Callaway were third, with mom Jada Callaway at the lead for Julia Paige Callaway of Shelbyville, Tenn.

Class 165 featured the Owner-Amateur Riders on Walking Ponies World Grand Championship. All 11 of the expected duos made the gate call to work for Judge Brent Grider and his panel. Making her third ride in the spotlight of the 2012 Celebration was Lilly Waites, this time with Prime Poison with a unanimous decision of the panel for The Andrew Waites Family of Hattiesburg, Tenn. The Dixie Lineman and Gail Walling were reserve for Judy McDonald and Gail Walling of Tullahoma and Wartrace, Tenn. Samsung and owner/exhibitor George Ann Pratt rounded out the top three and carried the yellow streamers back to Shawnee Mission, Kansas.

Show Pleasure Walking Horses World Grand Championship (Riders Cup), class 166, was up next bringing the professional trainers to the track for the first time of the night with seven of eight anticipated making their way down the hill to work for World Grand Championship acclaim as Judge Joel Weaver called the gaits in the class. Riding away with the roses in the division was Turnbow and Lynn Womack up for Womack & Sims of Murfreesboro, Tenn. A Line Dancer and Bill Callaway pulled into the second position for S & J Enterprises of Huntsville, Ala. Coin's Black Stroke, a Classic Horse, and John Puckett were third for Jean O'Brien of Bell Buckle, Tenn.

Class 167 brought the Walking Weanling World Grand Championship down the hill with all 10 of the expected teams working down the hill from Calsonic Arena to show off for Judge Jennifer Bingham and her cohorts. Making the memorable spotlight walk was Amanda Wright and I'm King Of The Ring for The Andrew Waites Family and The George Wright Family of Hattiesburg, Miss. and Mt Juliet, Tenn. Wright won in 2011 with the Waites & Wright Family owned Intimidator's Cover Girl, so with this win, they retired the Dave Spence Memorial Challenge Trophy, the J. French Brantley Memorial Challenge Trophy and the KES Incorporated Challenge Trophy. My Diamond Back and Sylvester Skierkowski were reserve for Bobby and Freda Jones of Manchester, Tenn. Nat King Cole and Lynn Womack were third for Dr. Lorell Beattie of Crossville, Tenn.

Owner-Amateur Riders on Walking Mares or Geldings World Grand Championship, class 168, was up next with 15 entries taking the track to work for the opportunity to make the spotlight ride in the class as Judge Chris Bobo called the gaits. Judge Bobo informed the teams early on that there would be additional work required in this division. Entering the Amateur ranks in style, Victoria's Secret and Maisie McSwain rode to the winner's circle for Maisie and Mandi McSwain of Gainesville, Ga. The Royal Dollar and Lee McGartland pulled into the second position for Mike and Lee McGartland of Ft. Worth, Texas. Rosetta Stone and Patty Marek of Marek and Smith of Shelbyville, Tenn. It was time again for Steppin' Into Cash. Tonight $3,000.00 was given away compliments of First Community Bank of Bedford County. Tonight's winner was Jennifer Zeller of Science Hill, Ky. $10,000 was given away during the 2012 Celebration compliments of Shelbyville Area Merchants. What a great addition this was to The Celebration.

Class 169, Park Performance Walking Horses World Grand Championship was up next on the schedule with all nine of the teams expected making the call to work as Judge Nathan Clark served as Call Judge. Making that ultimate victory ride tonight with the approval of all five judges was The Moonshine Man and Phillip Trimble up for Bob Cunningham of Talladega, Ala. Antonio Banderas and Ryan Gannon were reserve for Hall & Hall of Smyrna, Tenn. San Juan and Tim Smith were third for Mr. and Mrs. Eric Lackey of Thomasville, N.C.

Owner-Amateur Riders on Three-Year-Old Walking Horses World Grand Championship featured 17 of the 20 with reservations making the trip down the big hill to take the rail in the historic big oval in hopes of riding away with the roses tonight. Judge Brent Grider led the panel in the class. Making that ride to the winner's circle was Blue's Master and Lee McGartland up for Mike and Lee McGartland of Ft. Worth, Texas. With this win, coupled with a win in this class with He's Slim Shady in 2009, McGartland retired the I'm Cousin' Commotion Memorial Challenge Trophy, the Tom Jones Memorial Challenge Trophy, the Jeanne Gilmore Webb Memorial Challenge Trophy and the William D. Anderson Memorial Challenge Trophy. Defending The Title and Jason Myatt accepted the reserve WGC title for Jerry Myatt of Alvaton, Ky. Just Bet The Line and Libby Doub were third for David and Libby Doub of Estill Springs, Tenn.

Class 171, brought the Trail Pleasure entries to the big oval for the Owner-Amateur Youth Riders 6-17 Years on Trail Pleasure Walking Horses World Grand Championship (Optional Tack). Nine of the 11 on the official Lions Club program worked to the track to show for the large Saturday night crowd as Judge Nathan Clark called the gaits in the class. Picking up another set of roses, after winning the Equitation Championship on Monday Morning, Allison Thorson and Suiza make the winning ride in this division taking the honors home to Huron, Ohio. Gi Gi's Lunch Money and Claire Hankins were reserve for Jennifer Hankins and Linda Vaughn of Paris, Ky. and Valley City, Ohio. Dark Picture Show and Jada Cassidy were third for Lloyd Cassidy of Mt. Sterling, Ky. During a break in the action, the Walking Horse Trainers' Association crowned the 2012 Trainer Of The Year to Tim Smith.

The Two-Year-Old Walking Horse World Grand Championship (Riders Cup), class 172, was up next and promised to be an outstanding class, as were all three of the preliminary classes, with 10 of the 13 on the books taking the rail to work and show their very best as Judge Joel Weaver called the gaits. Riding to the winner's circle with the approval of all five judges and the loud approval of the crowd was Nine Gold and Michael Wright up for Dr. Bill and Denise McMillian of Slatillo, Miss. This duo was champions in the Two-Year-Old Stallions, Div B preliminary on Monday night. Jimmer Fredette and Dale Watts pulled into the second spot for Deborah Williams of Argyle, Texas. A Natural Nine and Todd Smith were third for Luttrell and Matthews of Alvaton, Ky. and Shelbyville, Tenn.

The Stars Of The Future exhibition was up next on the program where all of the World Grand Champions of the Youth Division came to the big oval to exhibit their horses. Those exhibiting included Lilly Waites & Lined Walkin', Youth Walking Pony World Grand Champions, who made her final ride as a Juvenile exhibitor tonight. Next, was Allison Thorson riding her Equitation mount, Time To Strut and returned later to present her Trail Pleasure WGC, Suiza. Jackson Stephens, who rode B B King's Jazz to the Youth Park Pleasure WGC, was up next to exhibit. Sellars Veazey and American General, Youth 11 and Under WGC, exhibited next and then Ashtyn Claire Brown and Rattle And Snap, Lead Line WGC's made their way to the ring. Lilly Waites returned with her second mount, Cadillac's Bum, Youth 12-17 WGC. What a great presentation and what a great display of talented horses and talented young riders!

Class 173 featured the Owner-Amateur Riders on Lite Shod Walking Horses World Grand Championship. Ten of the 11 with reservations worked to the track to show for their chance at a spotlight ride tonight as Judge Carol Smithson called the gaits in the class. Capturing the roses and the silver in the division was Kick Start Jazz and Justin Manis riding for Justin Manis and Charlene Richardson of Mt Juliet, Tenn. 2X The Magic and owner/exhibitor Susan Coleman of Unionville, Tenn., were reserve in the class. Lil' Wayne and Carlan Cotton were third for Jeff Gillespie of Tazewell, Va.

Owner-Amateur Riders on Four-Year-Old Walking Horses World Grand Championship, class 174, was up next on the program. Eight of the 10 expected made their way to the historic big oval to work as Judge Jennifer Bingham served as Call Judge for the class. Riding down victory lane with a unanimous decision of the judging panel was the reigning Three-Year-Old Amateur WGC, I'm Pushin' In Line and Janice Fostek up for Joe Fostek of Roanoke, Va. She's A Shady Sister and Lee McGartland were reserve for Mike and Lee McGartland of Ft. Worth, Texas. Prime Country and Ann Callicutt rounded out the top of the class for John Callicutt of Seagrove, N.C.

Class 175, the Park Pleasure Walking Horses World Grand Championship featured five of the nine on the books as Judge Connie Waldo called the gaits in the class. Riding to the winner's circle for the second consecutive year, and this time with a unanimous decision of the judging panel, was B.B. King's Jazz and Brock Tillman up for Stephens and Womack of Grayson, Ky. Traveling Dr. Williams and Steve Sanders were reserve in the class for Sonny and Debbie Sanders of Brownsboro, Ala. Caper's Shakes & Shadows and owner/exhibitor Don Woodson of Shelbyville, Tenn., collected the yellow streamers in the class.

Owner-Amateur Riders on Walking Horses World Grand Championship, class 176, was up next, and of course that meant only one more class remained, the Tennessee Walking Horse World Grand Championship, but first there were 10 outstanding teams showing for the roses in this division that showcased all three gaits that makes our Tennessee Walking Horse famous. Judge Chris Bobo served as lead judge for this event. Walking down that winning line was On The Line and Suzanne Moore riding for Bud Moore of Catherine, Ala. Moore was so excited about her win that she went the wrong way out of the line-up and had to turn around to go all the way back around in the spotlight. Ah, that spotlight ride was so nice that she thought she'd do it twice! This team also won the Amateur Stallion preliminary on Wednesday night. The Games We Play and Clay Mills were second in the class riding for Corbin Mills of Mt. Airy, N.C. El Zorro Star and Kenny Compton were third for Rick Compton of Tazewell, Va.

It was finally the time that everyone has waited on all year, class 177, The Tennessee Walking Horse World Grand Championship. After a quick drag of the track by the big orange Kubota tractor, official organist Larry Bright started his signature "Flat Walk Boogie" and it was time to call the entries to the big oval. All 12 entries presented to inspection answered the gate call for the class and Judge Nathan Clark was the Call Judge for what promised to be an outstanding class. Judge Clark advised the entries early on that additional work would be required to tie the class and to anticipate a workout. Once the initial work was complete, it was time to line up the entries, six on east side and six on the west side and remove the saddles for the conformation judging. Once this was complete, the saddles were back on and the riders back up. Five entries were asked to pull in for a workout, Walk Time Charlie, Ozone's Cut Above All, Folsom Prison Blues, I'm Copperfield and Puttin' Cash On The Line. All the others were asked to take the rail first for their additional work. Then, these entries were asked to park in and the entries mentioned above were asked to take the track and see which one would be the 2012 Tennessee Walking Horse World Grand Champion. Once that work was complete, all of the entries were asked to line up on the grass on the south turn to await the judge's final decision. Capturing the title of 2012 Tennessee Walking Horse World Grand Champion with a unanimous decision of the judging panel was the team of Walk Time Charlie and Chad Baucom up for Holland, Kilgore and Callicutt of Decatur, Ala., Seagrove, N.C. & Shelbyville, Tenn. With this win, the Monroe, N.C. native, Chad Baucom captures his first Tennessee Walking Horse World Grand Championship. He's Copperfield and Knox Blackburn were reserve World Grand Champions riding for The Mike Walden Family of Chattanooga, Tenn. Folsom Prison Blues and Steve Dunn rounded out the top three for The Jimmy Smith Family of Oliver Springs, Tenn.

Once the owner's photo was taken it was time to take one more look at the 2012 Tennessee Walking Horse World Grand Champions, Walk Time Charlie and Chad Baucom and then, the 74th Annual Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration was in the history books. What a great Celebration it was! In a year with so much uncertainty and doubt, all we had in Shelbyville was one great Celebration, proving once again, that the world's greatest show horse always comes through. Make plans now to be back in Shelbyville next year for the 75th Annual "Diamond Anniversary" Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration.

It's Championship Friday in Shelbyville at the 74th Annual Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration.

Up first on the evening's schedule was class 151A, Owner-Amateur Lady Drivers, Fine Harness. Seven of the eight with reservations worked their way carefully down the hill to show off their good walking ways and their elegant buggies and attire as Judge Chris Bobo called the gaits in the class. Driving to the winner's circle was Clutch's Power Play and Kathy Owen at the lines for Double Springs Farm of Murfreesboro, Tenn. I'm Chesapeake Bay and Joyce Myers were reserve for Joyce Meadows and Joyce Myers of Atlanta, Ga. and Shelbyville, Tenn. He's Extraordinary and Ashley Diamond Pollack were third for Pollack's Silver Spur Ranch of Saratoga, Calif.

Owner-Amateur Lady Riders, Fine Harness, class 151B, was up next on the program with five of the seven anticipated beating the clock to show their very best for Judge Nathan Clark and his panel. Making the winning drive was Foolish Dollar and Wilsene Moody-Kwok in the cart for O & W Moody Ltd. of Delaware, Ohio. DJ Jazzy Jeff & owner/exhibitor Dorothy Davenport of Clarksville, Tenn., was reserve in the class. Armed Assassin and Tamara Gavin-Kasser were third for Carol Ann Gavin of Wartrace, Tenn. During a break in the action, the Celebration crowd was graced with a visit from 2012 Miss Tennessee Chandler Lawson of Tullahoma, Tenn. Miss Lawson was driven around the big oval in a very nice 1957 Chevrolet Bel Air Convertible compliments of Lee Roy Cunningham of Shelbyville, Tenn.

Well, it was finally time to hand out some roses! Class 152 brought the Western Lite-Shod Walking Horses World Grand Championship to the ring. All five of the expected teams made the call to work for championship acclaim tonight as Judge Connie Waldo called the gaits. Riding to the tri-color and securing their second set of roses after winning the Open English Lite-Shod WGC last evening, was Catastrophic and owner/exhibitor Laurie Toone of Shelbyville, Tenn. Lil Wayne and Bobby Richards were reserve for Jeff Gillespie of Tazewell, Va. GiGi's Jamaican Generator and Leigh Stuart were third for Kaitlyn Rippey of Greenbrier, Tenn.

Class 153 featured the Owner-Amateur Youth Riders 6-17 Years on Walking Ponies World Grand Championship to the ring with all four of the teams on the official program making the gate call to work as Judge Brent Grider served as Call Judge for the event. As the spotlight searched the lineup, it finally settled on the team of Lined Walkin' and Lilly Waites, up for the Andrew Waites family of Hattiesburg, Miss. With this win, coupled with their win in 2010, the duo retired the J.E. Beasley, Jr. Memorial Challenge Trophy, the Little Big Man Challenge Trophy and The Master Plan/Gen's Sundance Lady Challenge Trophy. Tommy Lee Jones and owner/exhibitor Benjamin Bowen of Randolph, Miss., were the popular reserve team in the class. Roll The Gold and Allison Thorson rounded out the top three for ThorSport, Inc., of Sandusky, Ohio.

Back in the pleasure division, class 154 was the Owner-Amateur Riders on Park Pleasure Walking Horses World Grand Championship with 11 of the 15 pre-entered teams making the call to work for World Grand Championship acclaim tonight for Judge Jennifer Bingham and her cohorts. Picking up his second set of roses was B B King's Jazz with Mikki Eldridge up for Stephens and Womack of Grayson, Ky. B B King's Jazz was a winner last night in the Youth Park Pleasure World Grand Championship with Jackson Stephens in the saddle. He also was a winner in this same class last year with previous owner Jeanne Patterson in the irons. Tijuana Tex and Darden Gladney pulled into the second position for Gladney Farms of Minden, La. Heat Index and Lisa Baker were third for Mike and Lisa Baker of Valley Springs, Calif.

It was time for Steppin' Into Cash once again and tonight, $2,000 was given away compliments of Heritage South Community Credit Union of Shelbyville, Tenn. Bonnie Shofner of Somersville, Ky., was the winner tonight.

Class 155 brought the Susan Gordon Memorial Owner-Amateur Riders on Walking Horses World Grand Championship to the historic big oval. All eight of the expected teams made their way down the hill to work for the Friday night crowd for their chance to make that memorable spotlight ride tonight as Judge Joel Weaver served as Call Judge for the class. Making that spotlight ride with a unanimous decision of the panel, just as they did in the Amateur Stallions preliminary on Friday night, was He's Vida Blue and Kay Green up for Dr. Jim and Kay Green of Meridian, Miss. Absolute Proof and Meg Callaway were the reserve champions for Ricky Young of Boaz, Ala. Sky Miles and Beth Sims were third for the Mike Chiappari family of Santa Rosa, Calif.

During a break in the action, the Susan Gordon Horsemanship Award was presented in center ring to Becky Coleman of Money, Miss.

Class 156 brought the Walking Horse Trainers' Auxiliary Members on Walking Horses to the big oval with 10 entries making the gate call to work as Judge Jennifer Bingham called the gaits in the section. Riding to the winner's circle was Powerstroke's Evening Star and Jill Derickson up for McGee and Ingraham of Lenoir, N.C. and Shelbyville, Tenn. It's worthy of note that Jill Derickson won this class 20 years ago (1992) on Countdown Heatwave and 10 years ago (2002) on Solar Generated and now, in 2012, on Powerstroke's Evening Star! Mucho Pavo and Beth Lawwell were reserve for Ty Irby of Shelbyville, Tenn. They Call Me Samson and Karen Bean rounded out the top of the class for Bill Bean of Tomball, Texas.

The Trail Pleasure entries were up for class 157, Owner-Amateur Riders on Western Trail Pleasure Walking Horses World Grand Championship. Nine of 10 with reservations worked down the hill to show their very best in hopes of walking away with a World Grand Championship title and a set of roses tonight as Judge Chris Bobo called the gaits in the class. When the work was complete and the entries lined up, the spotlight turned on once again looking for a Champion in the division. The light stopped on the team of The Wicked Master and Sheryl Volkman up and taking the honors back out west for John and Sheryl Volkman of Livermore, Calif. This team preceded this win with preliminary wins in the Amateur 3-gait Trail Pleasure on Thursday Morning and the Amateur Trail Pleasure class on Sunday Night. Jose's Firecracker and Wayne Westbrook pulled into the second position for Bob and Wayne Westbrook of Shelbyville, Tenn. A Red Ruby and Liz Gassaway were third for Liz and Mitchell Gassaway and Mackenzie Morgan of Shelbyville, Tenn.

The Trainers "Ride for the Roses" World Grand Championship (Riders' Cup), class 158 was up next. This is a fairly recent addition to The Celebration schedule, but has been a very well received class. The class is for trainers that have never won a World Grand Championship and they must have shown (horse and rider) at the 2012 Celebration. Thirteen of the 21 on the official Lions Club program made their way down from Calsonic Arena in hopes of riding away with their very first set of roses tonight. Judge Chris Bobo served as Call Judge for the class. Making that first ever spotlight ride tonight and taking the honors back to Southwest Virginia was the team of ACC and Steve Hankins up for Rick Compton of North Tazewell, Va. Miss Ebony Rose and Ross Campbell collected the red streamers for Sudie Reed of Jasper, Ala. I'm Splashed and Tim Smith were in the third position for Hillview Promotions and Lindsey Landrum of Tupelo, Miss.

Wild Turkey and Keith Johnson of Shelbyville, Tenn., the reserve World's Champion Hackney Road Pony to Wagon came to exhibit for the Friday Night celebration crowd.

Owner-Amateur Novice Riders on Novice Walking Horses World Grand Championship was up next on the schedule, class 159, with 21 entries making the call, making it the largest class of the evening, to work for Judge Nathan Clark and his panel. Of course, these Novice Riders are looking for their very first set of roses as well and they were working hard to accomplish that goal. The crowd appreciated their hard work as well as it seemed everyone in the Celebration Arena was cheering loudly for their favorite as they passed the judges. Making that final ride in the Novice division and riding away with that first set of roses was Jose's Centerfold and owner/exhibitor Bill Williams up of Ripley, Tenn. Cougar and Tommy Vinson were reserve for Dr. Tommy and Pat Vinson of Columbus, Miss. Wired For Cash and Leslie Dotson were third for the Terry Dotson family of Kingston, Tenn.

The young riders were back on the track for class 160, Owner-Amateur Youth Riders 12-17 Years of Walking Mares or Geldings World Grand Championship. Fourteen of the 15 expected made their way to the rail to work for Judge Brent Grider and his panel. Making the spotlight ride for the second time tonight was Lilly Waites, this time riding Cadillac's Bum, making the stellar performance to capture World Grand Championship honors for the Andrew Waites family of Hattiesburg, Miss. Pushin' That Jazz and Robert Cortner were close behind in the second position riding for Robert Cortner and Alex Luttrell of Alvaton, Ky. and Winchester, Tenn. Be Cool and Jaelyn Compton were third for Rick Compton of Tazewell, Va.

The trainers were back for what promised to be an exciting class, the 15.2 and Under Walking Horse World Grand Championship (Riders' Cup). Six of the eight entries with reservations made the class, but never fear, they were six very good entries and promised an outstanding class. Judge Joel Weaver served as Call Judge for the class. Early on, Judge Weaver advised the teams that there would be a workout in the class. When all of the exciting work was complete and the crowd had let the judges know who their favorites were, the panel made their decision and called the team of Mr. Heisman and Brandye Mills to the winner's circle to collect all of the awards that come with a World Grand Championship for Randall and Sadie Baskin of Franklin, Tenn. A Strong Need For Cash and Michael Wright were reserve champions for Jim and Jeanne Roberts of Wildersville, Tenn. Jimmy McConnell and Bee Bee King rounded out the top of the class for Rachel Castaldi of Skillman, N.J.

Just two classes remain on the Friday evening program and class 162 featured the Owner-Amateur Riders on Two-Year-Old Walking Horses World Grand Championship. Fourteen entries answered the gate call and Judge Jennifer Bingham served as the Call Judge for the class. Riding away with the roses in the class was I Am Mayhem and SueAnn Dowell in the irons for Jo Ann Dowell of Powell, Ohio. I'm In High Definition and Kenny Compton pulled into the second position for Rick Compton of North Tazewell, Va. I'm A Title One and Jason Myatt completed the top three in the large, competitive class for Jerry Myatt of Alvaton, Ky.

The final class of the evening was the much awaited Four-Year-Old Walking Horses World Grand Championship, and what a thrilling class it should be. One could tell that the Friday night crowd was awaiting this class as well because with the hour being past 11:30 p.m., very few fans had left. They were all eager to see what this class would bring. They entered the ring to Larry Bright's signature "Flat Walk Boogie" and all six expected made the gate call to work for the title of Four-Year-Old World Grand Champion. Judge Chris Bobo served as Call Judge for the class. Making the flawless performance to impress the judges and the crowd was Honors and Larry Edwards, champions of the Four-Year-Old Stallion Preliminary on Sunday night, riding with a unanimous decision of the panel for Dan, Keith and Kelley McSwain of Gainesville and Duluth, Ga. Siege and Scott Beaty were reserve champions for Fred Allred of Jamestown, Tenn. The Jazz Player and Jimmy McConnell were third for Jimmy and Edith Dilday of Dresden, Tenn.

And with one final pass by the newly crowned Junior World Grand Champion Honors and Larry Edwards, the Friday night session of the 74th Annual Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration was in the record books at 11:52 p.m., and all that remained was Saturday night, and we all know what happens on Saturday night! It promises to be another outstanding night of competition that you will not want to miss. Make sure you're in Shelbyville and be a part of a Celebration like no other. You'll be glad you did!

It's Championship Thursday in Shelbyville! It was time to call class 139 Owner-Amateur Youth Riders 6-17 Years on Park Pleasure Walking Mares or Geldings World Grand Championship. Three of the four with reservations made their way down the hill for their chance at a spotlight ride tonight as Judge Carol Smithson called the gaits in the class. Making that unforgettable spotlight ride with a unanimous decision of the panel was B B King's Jazz and Jackson Stephens up for Stephens and Womack of Grayson, Ky. Lindsey Landrum and Santana's Coin were reserve for McNeely, Landrum and Cortner of Blowing Rock, N.C., Franklin and Winchester, Tenn. Fog At The Ritz and Abbey Fleming were third for Jim Upchurch of Jackson, Tenn.

Class 140 brought the Novice Riders on Novice Trail Pleasure Walking Horses World Grand Championship to the historic big oval with eight of the nine on the program beating the clock to work for their first set of Celebration roses. Judge Connie Waldo served as Call Judge for the event. As the spotlight searched looking for the next World Grand Champion in the division, it finally settled on the team of Line Item Veto and Rachel Jernigan up for Rachel Jernigan and Bo Teague of Shelbyville, Tenn. This duo claimed the Novice Western Trail Pleasure and Amateur Three-Year-Old Western Trail Pleasure World Championships on Thursday morning. Juan Carlos and Fred Weaver pulled into the second position in the event for Lisa Weaver and Lily Catherine Holland of Doyline, La. and Decatur, Ala. GiGi's Lunch Money and Bruce Vaughn were third for Jennifer Hankins and Linda Vaughn of Paris, Ky. and Valley City, Ohio.

The performance horses made their first appearance of the evening in class 141, Elite Owner-Amateur Riders on Walking Horses World Grand Championship. Sixteen of 19 on the official Lions Club program worked to the track to show for their chance at the tricolors as Judge Jennifer Bingham called the gaits. For those unaware, the Elite division is for those riders who are 50 Years of Age and Over. It was an excellent class, but there could only be one team that would ride away with the World Grand Championship title in the class and that would be the Classic Horse, meaning one 15 Years or Older, John FK's Pusher and Robin MacDonald up for Bruce and Robin MacDonald of Atlanta, Ga. This is not the first time this team has ridden away with the roses in this division as they topped the Elite division in 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2007 and they were back tonight with the roses. Kid Callahan and Ed Breedlove pulled into receive the red streamers for Keith Breedlove of Buford, Ga. Play Something Country and owner/exhibitor Jeff Smith of Greer, S.C., rounded out the top three in the class.

It was time to get in a western frame of mind for class 142, Western Park Pleasure Walking Horses World Grand Championship (Riders' Cup). Six of the eight expected worked to the rail in hopes of impressing the judges and the Thursday night crowd as Judge Jennifer Bingham called the gaits. When the work was complete, it was the popular and stylish team of Armed & Trigger Happy and Patrick Thomas riding with the roses for Cassique Plantation/Fred and Bernice Rowan of Bluemont, Va. This team won their Western Park Pleasure Open Specialty event on Monday Morning. Dragonfire, a Classic Horse, and owner/exhibitor Jim Heiting pulled in for the reserve honors taking them home to Riverside, Calif. Double Shot Of Cash and Laurie Toone were third for Tamara Hader of Bainbridge, Ga.

The young riders were up next on the evening's program in class 143, Owner-Amateur Youth Riders 6-11 Years on Walking Mares or Geldings World Grand Championship. All 15 of the expected teams made the long trip down from Calsonic Arena to work for their chance at the roses tonight as Judge Chris Bobo led the panel in the event. It was a great class, but only one could make that ride of a lifetime tonight and that team was The American General and owner/exhibitor Sellers Veazey of Tifton, Ga. This duo topped the Youth 11 and Under Gelding division on Friday night. Anyone who took a look at tonight's edition of the Walking Horse Report saw the priceless victory pass photo from the preliminary class of young Sellers with an absolutely priceless smile. Ah, it was certainly a Celebration moment! Jose's Delightful Pusher and Landon Callicutt was reserve for John Callicutt of Seagrove, N.C. The Prime Suspect and Eli Davis rounded out the top of the class for Shamrock Farms of Shelbyville, Tenn.

During a break in the action it was time to draw for tonight's Steppin' Into Cash drawing. Tonight's winner of $1,000.00 sponsored by Lee Adcock Construction of Shelbyville, Tenn., was Darlene Buckner of Lancaster, S.C.

Class 144 brought the Owner-Amateur Riders on English Trail Pleasure Walking Horses World Grand Championship to the ring with six of the seven on the books beating the clock to work for their very own set of roses as Judge Chris Bobo called the gaits. Riding away with the roses in the event was GiGi's Majestic and owner/exhibitor Jordan Howell of Murfreesboro, Tenn. This team topped the English Trail Pleasure preliminary on Wednesday morning and was Reserve World Grand Champions in 2011. Confederate Jazz and Kasey Kesselring accepted the reserve title for the Kesselring family of Montverde, Fla. Jose's Firecracker and Wayne Westbrook were third for Bob and Wayne Westbrook of Shelbyville, Tenn.

Fourteen of the 18 on the program for class 145, Owner-Amateur Riders on Show Pleasure Walking Horses World Grand Championship, made their way down the hill to the big oval to show for the Thursday night crowd, who were slightly damp from a brief rain shower, but holding on strong. Judge Nathan Clark led the panel in the large class. Making that spotlight ride in the class with a unanimous decision of the judging team was Godfather By Ultra Copy and Courtney Luttrell up for Courtney and Alex Luttrell of Alvaton, Ky. and Shelbyville, Tenn. With this win, coupled with their win in 2010, this team retired the Bedford County and Bedford County Board of Commissioners Challenge Trophy and the Bobby Luna Memorial Challenge Trophy. Turnbow and Lynn Womack were reserve for Womack and Sims of Murfreesboro, Tenn. Spooky Dollar and Stephanie Elliott were third for Stephanie Elliott and Danny Gattis of Tusculumbia, Ala.

The Owner-Amateur Riders on Walking Horses, 15.2 and Under, World Grand Championship, class 146, was up next on the evening's schedule. Eight of the 10 expected made the call to work for their spotlight moment as Judge Brent Grider called the gaits in the class. Making the repeat win in the division was the team of I'm P. Diddy and Sherri Pollack up for Pollack's Silver Spur Ranch of Saratoga, Calif. and Shelbyville, Tenn. With their 2011 and 2012 wins in this class, the team retired the Final Keeper Challenge Trophy, the Radford Hulan Challenge Trophy and the Steve Hill Memorial Challenge Trophy. He's Shady In Black and Lee McGartland were reserve for Mike and Lee McGartland of Ft. Worth, Texas. Boure' and owner/exhibitor Tam Brogdon carried the third award back to Panama City Beach, Fla.

The pleasure horses were back for class 147, Country Pleasure Walking Horse World Grand Championship. Fourteen of the 16 entries on the official Lions Club program supplement took to the track to work for Judge Nathan Clark and his cohorts in hopes of riding back out a World Grand Champion! Capturing that title for 2012 was Wicked Image and Dr. Jana Anderson was up for Dr. Jana Anderson of Shelbyville, Tenn. This team topped the Two and Three-Year-Old Country Pleasure preliminary on Wednesday morning and the Novice Country Pleasure division on Thursday Morning. Bustline and Vicki Benjamin headed back to West Tennessee with the reserve honors for Fred and Vicki Benjamin and Mackenzie Morgan of Humboldt and Shelbyville, Tenn. Designer Champagne and Maggie Moore rounded out the top three in the class for Jim Leek and Maggie Moore of Albany, Ga. and Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Owner-Amateur Riders on Park Performance Walking Horses World Grand Championship was up next on the evening's schedule, class 148. Fifteen of the 17 expected answered official announcer Bobby Sands' call and came to work as Judge Joel Weaver served as lead official in the class. Riding away with the win with a unanimous decision of the panel was The Concealed Weapon and Patti Pollack up for Pollack's Silver Spur Ranch of Saratoga, Calif. and Shelbyville, Tenn. Now, both Pollack sisters had a set of roses, as Sherri won the Amateur 15.2 Championship with I'm P. Diddy just a few classes earlier. San Juan and Eric Lackey pulled into the second position for Mr. and Mrs. Eric Lackey of Thomasville, N.C. Avenger's Lady Threat and Lane Webb were a good third in the class for John Cabe and Lane Webb of Cornersville and Lewisburg, Tenn.

Class 149 featured the Lite-Shod Walking Horses World Grand Championship (Riders' Cup) with all seven of the programmed entries working to the track to show for that World Grand Championship acclaim as Judge Carol Smithson called the gaits. Making the spotlight ride was Catastrophic and owner/exhibitor Laurie Toone of Shelbyville, Tenn. Absolut Skyy and Hannah Pulvers were reserve for Pulvers, Howell and Anderson of Shelbyville and Murfreesboro, Tenn. Lil Wayne and Bobby Richards collected the yellow streamers for Jeff Gillespie of Tazewell, Va.

The final class, and highlight of the night, was up next, class 150, the Three-Year-Old Walking Horse World Grand Championship (Riders' Cup). Nine of the 10 on the entry sheet made the gate call to work for the final spotlight ride of the final Thursday night of the 74th Celebration as Judge Jennifer Bingham served as Call Judge. Everyone in the house tonight knew that this would be one exciting class and it certainly was, however, only one team would garner the title of Three-Year-Old Walking Horse World Grand Championship. That title would go to the team of Jose It Ain't So and Jonathan Watts, winners of the Three-Year-Old Stallion, Div. B preliminary on Friday Night, riding for Deborah Williams of Argyle, Texas. I Am Jose and Casey Wright, winners of the Three-Year-Old Stallion, Div. A preliminary, were reserve for Billy and Debbie Woods of Lexington, Tenn. Street Jazz and Jimmy McConnell were third for Rachel Castaldi of Skillman, N.J.

It's Wednesday night . . . the final night of preliminary competition of the 74th Annual Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration. Up first on the evening schedule was class 128, Fine Harness. Eight of the 12 elegant driving teams made their way carefully down from Calsonic Arena to work as Judge Joel Weaver called the gaits in the first class of the night. Making that winning drive tonight was Foolish Dollar and Brad Davis at the lines for O & W Moody, Ltd of Delaware, Ohio. Clutch's Power Play and Scott Beaty were reserve in the class for Double Springs Farm of Murfreesboro, Tenn. A Show Down and John Puckett were third for J.W. Beard of Troy, Ala.

The amateur riders were up next for class 129A, Owner-Amateur Riders on Three-Year-Old Walking Mares or Geldings. Nineteen of 34 with reservations worked to the track to show their winning moves for Judge Jennifer Bingham and her panel. Making the winning pass in the excellent class was Mario and Allison Thorson up for ThorSport, Inc. of Sandusky, Ohio. Generating The Command and owner/exhibitor Florence Edwards of Dawson, Ga., pulled into the second position in the class. Lindsey Lohan and Kim Butler accepted the yellow streamers for Bruce and Kim Butler of Morehead, Ky.

Owner-Amateur Riders on Three-Year-Old Walking Mares or Geldings, class 129B, brought 22 entries down the hill to show off for the vocal Wednesday night crowd. Judge Chris Bobo led the panel in the class. Riding to the top of the stellar class was Miss Ebony Rose and owner/exhibitor Sudie Reed up taking the honors back to Jasper, Ala. This classy young mare topped the Three-Year-Old Mare, Sec. B with trainer Ross Campbell on Saturday night. She's Limitless and Molly Walters pulled into the second spot for the Molly Walters family of Rancho Mirage, Calif. Chips N Salsa and owner/exhibitor Nancy Groover of Waco, Texas was third in the class.

The trainers hit the track for class 130, Walking Geldings, Five Years and Over, Over 15.2 (Canter) (Riders' Cup) with seven of the 12 expected taking the rail to work as Judge Nathan Clark called the gaits. One team certainly will be famous after their win tonight and that was the team of Country And Famous and Mickey McCormick in the irons for Rick and Marla Lovett of Mobile, Ala. Paroled From San Quenton and Josh Watts were reserve in the class for Dr. Ann Rea of Summit, Miss. Like A Rolling Stone and Link Webb accepted the yellow ribbon for Dr. Barbara Moersch of Jacksonville, Ala.

Class 131 featured the Park Performance Walking Horses, Five Years and Over (Riders' Cup). Twelve of the 25 on the official Lions Club program came to the ring while announcer Bobby Sands and organist Larry Bright saluted the veterans and members of the active duty military in the audience. Topping the class with a unanimous decision of the panel was The Moonshine Man and Philip Trimble up for Bob Cunningham of Talladega, Ala. San Juan and Tim Smith were reserve for Mr. and Mrs. Eric Lackey of High Point, N.C. All American Ritz and Howard Hamilton were third for Cynthia Wright of Jackson, Tenn.

During a break in the action it was time for "Steppin Into Cash." Tonight, $500 was given away compliments of Coldwell Banker/Seagroves Neese Real Estate of Shelbyville, Tenn. Yvonda Campbell of Shelbyville, Tenn., was tonight's happy winner. So, as you can see, it PAYS to come The Celebration!

Amateur Owned & Trained Walking Horses, No Professional Training within 90 days was up next on the evening schedule, class 132. Thirteen of the 24 on the program worked to the track to get some recognition for all the hard work that goes into owning and training your own horse. Judge Joel Weaver led the panel in the class. Making that winner's circle walk tonight was ACC and Kenny Compton up for Rick Compton of North Tazewell, Va. This made ACC's second blue of the 2012 Celebration as ACC and Jaelyn Compton topped the Youth 14 & Under Pony class on Friday night. All American Made and owner/exhibitor Chad Adams of Goldsboro, N.C., pulled into the second position. Better Stand Back and Tam Brogdon rounded out the top three for Brogdon and Heffington of Panama City Beach, Fla. and Shelbyville, Tenn.

The Young Trainers were up for class 133, Young Trainers, 35 and Under, on Walking Mares or Geldings (Riders' Cup). Nine entries worked to the track to show in the class as Judge Jennifer Bingham called the gaits. Even though it wasn't quite midnight yet, it was only 9:02 p.m., but that didn't bother the team of Miss Midnight Rider and Philip Trimble as they made that special ride down victory lane for Shelia Bullington and Maria Perry of Frankin and Ethridge, Tenn. Jose's Centerfold and Casey Wright were reserve in the class for Bill Williams of Ripley, Tenn. Goodbye Joe and John Allan Callaway were third for C & E Miller Farms of Elberton, Ga.

Owner-Amateur Riders on Walking Stallions, Five Years and Over (Canter) was up next with nine of the 20 on the books working to the track to show for Judge Chris Bobo and his cohorts. Walking the line to the winner's circle was On The Line and Suzanne Moore in the irons for Bud Moore of Catherine, Ala. This duo had an impressive 2012 resume already with wins at the Mississippi Charity Horse Show, the Gallatin Lions Club Horse Show, the Columbia Spring Jubilee and the Money Tree Classic. The Games We Play and Clay Mills were reserve for Corbin Mills of Mt. Airy, N.C. El Zorro's Star and Kenny Compton claimed the yellow streamers for Rick Compton of Tazewell, Va.

An always fun class was up next, class 135, Mare & Foal. The momma's and babies were all shined up and walking down the hill towards the historic big oval. Five of the seven teams expected worked the ring in hopes of impressing Judge Nathan Clark and his staff. Walking down victory lane was the momma and baby team of Pusher's Jr. Miss and Miss Martini with Karen McGee and Lynn Womack at the lead for Howard and Beth Henderson of South Fulton, Tenn. Getting Even and Detroit's Dark Spirit with Alice Klein and Blaise Broccard were reserve for Maggie-Mae, Jon and Sherry White of South Lyon, Mich. Whoopin' It In Command and The Commanding General Lee with Nathan Mills and Logan Goostree were third for Nathan Mills and Logan Goostree of Nashville, Tenn.

During a break in the action, the 2011 Racking Horse World Grand Champion, Score At Halftime and Jonathan Bellamy were on exhibition to excite the Wednesday night crowd.

Walking Horses, Mares and Geldings (Riders' Cup), class 136, brought 10 entries to the ring to show their very best as Judge Brent Grider called the gaits in the class. Trouble On The Line and Gary Edwards made the winning ride in the class for Hannah McCurdy of Piedmont, Ala. This made the second win for Trouble On The Line as Dr. Tom Morgan rode to the winner's circle earlier in the week. Escape From Alcatraz and Steve Dunn were reserve for Larry and Pam Russell of Pontotoc, Miss. Poker Face and Chad Baucom were third for Clay Mills and Kayla Baucom of Mt Airy and Monroe, N.C.

The night was quickly drawing to a close with only two classes remaining on the schedule. Class 137 featured the Park Pleasure Walking Stallions, Four-Years and Over (Riders' Cup). Six of the 12 on the books took the rail to work as Judge Brent Grider served as Call Judge for the class. Lined Up At The Ritz and Patrick Thomas, 2012 champions at the Columbia Spring Jubilee and the Money Tree Classic, rode to the top of the class with a unanimous decision of the panel for Cassique Plantation and Fred and Bernie Rowan of Bluemont, Va. Traveling Dr. Williams and Steve Sanders were reserve for Sonny and Debbie Sanders of Brownsboro, Ala. Marching Orders and Bobby Kellett were third for Ron Jones, RPC Farms of Greeneville, Tenn.

The final class of the night, class 138, brought the Walking Horses, Stallions (Riders' Cup) to the track. Thirteen entries made the gate call to work for Judge Joel Weaver and his staff. Absolute Proof and John Allan Callaway topped the division for Ricky Young of Boaz, Ala. Sweep Up The Gold and Charlie Green were reserve for Andrew Morrison of Hattiesburg, Miss. The Golden Sovereign and Tim Smith were third for Evergreen Walking Horse Farm of Shelbyville, Tenn.

We've come to Tuesday of the 74th Annual Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration. This is the next to the last night of preliminary competition, as the championships get underway on Thursday night. The 11 classes of competition on the evening schedule certainly should provide an entertaining evening, if the rain clouds that showed up earlier this afternoon will go ahead and pass.

The judges for the 74th Annual Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration include Jennifer Bingham of Shelbyville, Tenn. (Pleasure, Halter & Performance), Chris Bobo of Shelbyville, Tenn. (Pleasure, Halter & Performance), Nathan Clark of Arab, Ala., (Pleasure, Halter & Performance), Brent Grider of Columbia, Ky. (Performance & Halter), Carol Smithson of Clarksville, Tenn. (Pleasure), Connie Waldo of Naples, Fla. (Pleasure), and Joel Weaver of Shelbyville, Tenn. (Performance & Halter).

As always, promptly at 7 p.m., official flag horse Counterfeit Dollar and Bud Seaton were at the gate and ready to present the colors and get the opening ceremonies underway. The invocation for the evening performance was given by the Rev. Glenn Forsee of the First Assembly Of God of Shelbyville, Tenn., followed by the singing of the National Anthem by Ashley Francis of Cookeville, Tenn.

Up first on the evening schedule was class 118, Four-Year-Old Walking Mares (Canter)(Riders' Cup) with nine of the 10 with reservations making the call to work for Judge Joel Weaver and his cohorts. Riding to the winner's circle with a unanimous decision of the panel was Powerstroke's Evening Star and Herbert Derickson up for McGee and Ingraham of Lenoir, N.C. and Shelbyville, Tenn. The Sky Queen and Casey Wright were reserve for Bob & Jamie Gullic of Harrisburg, Ill. Jose Gun Powder And Lead and John Allan Callaway were third for Tommy Jowers of Leesburg, Ga.

Owner-Amateur Riders on Walking Mares or Geldings, Five Years and Over (Canter), class 119, was up next on the program with nine of the 16 expected taking to the rail as Judge Jennifer Bingham called the gaits in the class. Making that World Championship ride for the second consecutive year was He's Wild Eyed & Wicked and Mike Walden in the irons, with a big smile on his face, riding for the Mike Walden family of Chattanooga, Tenn. Cheatin' Danger and owner/exhibitor Trish Harrison Spivey of Morristown, Tenn., rode in to accept the red streamers. Black Cash Delight and Gail Walling were third for Mark and Gail Walling of Wartrace, Tenn.

Class 120 brought the Owner-Amateur riders on Two-Year-Old Walking Mares or Geldings to the big oval 25 strong to work as Judge Chris Bobo served as the Call Judge. Judge Bobo advised the entries from the outset that additional work would be required in the class. Once the initial work was complete, the panel asked 13 of the original 25 to remain on hand to work for the 10 honors in the class. When all the work was finally complete, it was the team of Conga Line and Courtney Luttrell, 2012 champions at the Columbia Spring Jubilee, dancing their way to the winner's circle for Stone Manor Farm of Alvaton, Ky. Twilight Fever and Tyler Baucom pulled into the second position for Abe Matthis of Morganton, N.C. High Society Ritz and David Sisk rounded out the top three in the class for Houston Manning and Kenny Smith of Hindman, Ky.

Owner-Amateur Riders on Walking Ponies, Mares or Geldings, class 121, brought 13 of the 23 on the official Lions Club program to the historic Celebration Arena to show as Judge Nathan Clark served as Call Judge. Taking home the blue tonight was Sweet Sevens and owner/exhibitor Allison Thorson of Huron, Ohio. The Lady's Man and Maisie McSwain were reserve for Dan and Elaine McSwain of Gainesville, Ga. A Shady Character and Hayden Burks collected the golden streamers for Thrasher, Graves and Burks of Woodbury and Shelbyville, Tenn.

The professional riders were back for class 122, Show Pleasure Walking Stallions (Riders' Cup) with 13 of the 18 expected working down the hill to show for top honors in the class as Judge Brent Grider served as Call Judge. Walking to the winner's circle was Iron Work's Tin Man, a classic horse, and trainer Chad Way up for Ray Jones Trucking of Greenville, Ky. Beau Jazz and Justin Harris were reserve for MacDonald and Oliver of Atlanta, Ga. and Bowling Green, Ky. Coin's Black Stroke, also a classic horse, and John Puckett were third for Reggie Pimental of Bell Buckle, Tenn.

In the break between classes, it was time for "Steppin Into Cash" and tonight $500 was given away, sponsored by Duck River Electric Membership Corporation, to Iris Schumann of Shelbyville, Tenn.

Class 123A was up next on the program, Owner-Amateur Riders on Three-Year-Old Walking Stallions. Fifteen of the 23 entries with reservations made the call to work for their moment in the winner's circle tonight as Judge Joel Weaver called the gaits for the section. Making the winning pass in the class was Roethlisberger and Debbie McGill up for Al Morgan and Debbie McGill of New Market and Knoxville, Tenn. Gin Rio and Becky Coleman picked up the red ribbon to take home to Greenwood, Miss. Street Jazz and Bob Medina were third for Rachel Castaldi of Skillman, N.J.

Owner-Amateur Riders on Three-Year-Old Walking Stallion, Class 123B, was up next with 14 of the 21 on the books taking the rail in the historic big oval to work for their chance at World Championship acclaim on this Tuesday night. Judge Jennifer Bingham served as Call Judge for the class. Capturing the title was the team of Defending The Title and Jason Myatt riding for Jerry Myatt of Alvaton, Ky. This duo had 2012 wins at the Walking For Cancer Horse Show, the Spring Fun Show, the Woodbury Lions Club Horse Show and picked up two strong reserves at the Gulf Coast Charity Celebration. Blue's Master and Lee McGartland were reserve for Mike and Lee McGartland of Ft. Worth, Texas. Command On Parole and Sheryl Crawford were third for Metcalf and Crawford of Bainbridge and Carrollton, Ga.

Class 124 brought the Owner-Amateur Riders on Walking Mares or Geldings, 15.2 and Under down the hill with 13 of the 28 on the official Lions Club program to work for Judge Chris Bobo and his panel. Making her second victory ride of the night was Courtney Luttrell and this time she was aboard the good mare She's Caliente making the winning pass for Stone Manor Farm of Alvaton, Ky. Luttrell was in the winner's circle earlier in the night in the Two-Year-Old Amateur Mare & Gelding class with Conga Line. Jose's Vengeance and Rae Shumate-Tysor were reserve taking the honors home to Cummings, Ga. Bella Sera At The Ritz and Patti Pollack collected the yellow ribbon for Pollack's Silver Spur Ranch of Saratoga, Calif. and Shelbyville, Tenn.

Park Pleasure Mares or Geldings, Four-Years and Over (Riders' Cup), class 125, came next with five of the 15 on the program working hard for blue ribbon acclaim in the class as Judge Chris Bobo called the gaits in the class. B B King's Jazz and Brock Tillman, the reigning Park Pleasure World Grand Champions, rode to the winner's circle with the approval of all five judges for Stephens and Womack of Grayson, Ky. Heat Index and Jamey Thompson picked up the red ribbon for Mike and Lisa Baker of Valley Springs, Calif. Jose's Baby Doll and Jeff Laughlin were third for Doris Penick of Walterboro, S.C.

The Young Trainers, 35 Years and Under, on Walking Stallions (Riders' Cup), class 126 on the official Lions Club program, brought eight entries to the track to work as Judge Nathan Clark called the gaits in the class. Proving they were the real champions in the division, Absolute Proof and Bill Callaway, made the victory pass in the division for Ricky Young of Boaz, Ala. The classic horse, I'm Packin' A Pistol and Aaron Self pulled into the second position for Rick Compton of Tazewell, Va. Jose's Star Attraction and Justin Jenne' rounded out the top of the class for Willard and Linda Townson of Woodville, Ala.

Class 127, Owner-Amateur Novice Gentleman Riders on Novice Mares and Geldings, rounded out the Tuesday evening performance with 11 of the 17 on the books making the call for their chance to pick up their very first Celebration blue in the very last class of the Tuesday night performance. Judge Brent Grider served as Call Judge in the class. Picking up their first ever Celebration blue and taking it back home to West Tennessee was the duo of Jose's Centerfold and owner/exhibitor Bill Williams taking the title back home to Ripley, Tenn. By the way, they secured that first blue with a unanimous decision of the judging panel. Headed back Carolina way with reserve honors was Tarheel's Intimidator and owner/exhibitor Cliff Rivers of Chesterfield, S.C. A Kentuckian rounded out the top three as West Point and owner/exhibitor David Bullock took the third award back to Mt Vernon, Ky. With a final victory pass from Bill Williams and Jose's Centerfold, the Tuesday night performance was complete at a quite early 10:20 p.m.

It's Monday night, the halfway point of the 74th Annual Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration. Getting the evening started off right was class 107, Owner-Amateur Gentleman Drivers, Fine Harness. Six of the eight expected made the call to work in the class as Judge Brent Grider called the gaits. It's interesting to note that out of the six, four of the horses were grey in color. Interesting indeed. Driving to the winner's circle for the second consecutive year was the team of Carolina Confederate and Jeffrey McGee at the whip for Laura McGee of Shelbyville, Tenn. With this win, the team retired the Scott Edwards Memorial Challenge Trophy. Clutch's Power Play and Ben Harrell were reserve in the class for Double Springs Farm of Murfreesboro, Tenn. Foolish Dollar and Jack Kwok were third for O & W Moody, LTD of Delaware, Ohio.

The trainers hit the track for the first time of the Monday night session for class 108, Walking Mares, Five Years and Over, Over 15.2 (Canter) (Riders' Cup). Six of the 15 expected beat the clock and worked down the hill to show for Judge Joel Weaver and his staff. Making the victory ride was Main Sweetie and Phillip Trimble up for James Vernon of Boonville, Miss. Southern Dollar and Charlie Green were reserve for Bryan Turpen of Melbourne, Ky. Out On Bond and Jerry Collier were third for Harold Malone of Tusculumbia, Ala.

Classic Park Pleasure Walking Horses (Riders' Cup) was up next on the schedule with six of the 15 with reservations taking the rail to show for World Championship acclaim as Judge Connie Waldo called the gaits. Walking to the winner's circle was Double Shot Of Cash and Laurie Toone up for Tamara Hader of Bainbridge, Ga. This was this team's seventh 2012 blue ribbon win. Motown's Title Masterpiece and Steve Sanders were reserve for Sonny and Debbie Sanders of Brownsboro, Ala. I'm Gunpowder And Lead and Charlie Moore were third for Kathy Baker of Lewisburg, Tenn.

Now, it was time to take a look at the first section of Two-Year-Old Stallions (Riders' Cup), Class 110A. Eleven of the 22 with reservations made the gate call to show and impress as Judge Jennifer Bingham led the panel in the section. Making that impressive performance was Keep Your Cash and Winky Groover riding for Crawford Colts of Carrollton, Ga. This youngster was a winner at the Eagleville Lions Club Horse Show and picked up good reserves at the Petersburg Lions Club Horse Show and Pulaski, Tenn.'s Red Carpet Show of the South. Ready To Play and John Allan Callaway were reserve for James Griffith and Doug Potter of Alvaton, Ky. Jose's Double Down and Casey Wright rounded out the top three for Billy and Debbie Woods of Lexington, Tenn.

To give the trainers a little more time in between the Two-Year-Old Stallion splits, the decision was made to show a class between each split, so we move to class 111, Owner-Amateur Riders 50 & Over on Park Pleasure Walking Horses. Nine of the 18 expected worked down the hill to show as Judge Jennifer Bingham led the panel in the class. Capturing the win, even after casting a shoe on the second way, which was capably replaced by Celebration farrier Louie Staton, was Tijuana Tex and Darden Gladney up for Gladney Farms of Minden, La. B B King's Jazz and Libby Stephens pulled into the second position for Stephens and Womack of Grayson, Ky. Santana's Coin and John McNeely accepted the yellow streamers for McNeely, Landrum and Cortner of Blowing Rock, N.C., Franklin and Winchester, Tenn.

Then, it was time for the evening's edition of the "Steppin' Into Cash" promotion. Tonight's prize is $500.00 sponsored by Peoples Bank of Bedford County. Tonight's winner was Sharon Higginbotham of Lewisburg, Tenn.

Then, it was time to call class 110B, Two-Year-Old Stallions to the track with nine of the 21 with reservations taking the rail to show off for Judge Chris Bobo and his cohorts. He may be "gold" but his color was blue tonight as Nine Gold and Michael Wright impressed the judges and the crowd to ride to the winner's circle with the approval of all five judges for Bill and Denise McMillian of Sattillo, Miss. This marked this team's fourth 2012 win with previous wins coming at the Germantown Charity Horse Show and the Woodbury Lions Club Horse Show. No Dinero and John Allan Callaway were reserve for Alan Riddle of Kings Mountain, N.C. Jimmer Fredette and Dale Watts were third for Deborah Williams of Argyle, Texas.

Class 112 was up next on the revised schedule for the evening, Owner-Amateur Gentleman Riders on Show Pleasure Walking Horses. Sixteen of the 22 expected worked down from Calsonic Arena to show for Judge Brent Grider and his colleagues. Headed down victory lane in the large, competitive division was Limestone Lucy and owner/exhibitor Steve Heitmiller of Laguna Beach, Calif. Lucy already picked up one Celebration blue in the open Show Pleasure division with trainer Knox Blackburn. Ironwork's Tin Man and Grant Jones were a popular reserve for Ray Jones Trucking of Greeneville, Ky. Star In The Making and Tyler Baucom accepted the gold streamers for Tyler and Kayla Baucom of Monroe, N.C.

With that, it was time to call for the final section of Two-Year-Old Stallions, class 110C. Thirteen of the 21 programmed entries made the call to work for Judge Nathan Clark and his staff. Making the impressive performance in this section was I'm Bob Marley and Jimmy McConnell up for the Molly Walters family of Rancho Mirage, Calif. A Natural Nine and Todd Smith pulled into the reserve position for Luttrell and Mathews of Alvaton, Ky. and Shelbyville, Tenn. Master Of The Ritz and Brandye Mills were third for Stewart and Trimble of Arab, Ala.

Now we've seen all the Two-Year-Old Stallions and didn't they look good! What an exciting Championship class that will be on Saturday night!

Next, we had the opportunity to enjoy the exhibition of our Equitation World Grand Champion, Allison Thorson of Huron, Ohio, who was crowned earlier today in Calsonic Arena. This was a repeat win for Thorson, as she captured the title in 2011 as well.

With the Two-Year-Old Classes complete, we get back on track and call class 113 to the ring, Elite Owner-Amateur Lady Riders on Walking Stallions. Nine of 18 worked down the hill to show their walking ways for Judge Joel Weaver and the good sized Monday Night crowd that remained on hand at 9:45 p.m. Making that sentimental journey down victory lane was Lined With Poison and Lucky Collins up for Don and Lucky Collins of Bell Buckle, Tenn. John FK's Pusher and Robin McDonald were reserve for Bruce and Robin MacDonald of Atlanta, Ga. Star and owner/exhibitor Wilsene Moody-Kwok of Delaware, Ohio and Shelbyville, Tenn., were third.

The trainers were back for class 114, Walking Mares, 15.2 and Under (Canter) (Riders' Cup) with three of the nine in the official Lions Club program making the gate call to work as Judge Jennifer Bingham called the gaits in the class. Dance All Night and Tim Smith rode away with the win in the division with a unanimous decision of the panel for Rita Hudgens of Franklin, Tenn. Miss Sharon Stone and Eddie Barclay were reserve for Noel Botsch of Jackson, Mo. Sweepstakes Gypsy Lady and Mickey McCormick were third for Jeannae Patterson of Gulf Hammock, Fla.

Class 115 brought the Owner-Amateur Riders on Park Performance Walking Horses to the historic big oval with 12 of the 15 on the books making the call to work as Judge Chris Bobo called the gaits for the division. Making the winning ride was the reigning WGC Park Performance team of The Concealed Weapon and Patti Pollack up for Pollack's Silver Spur Ranch of Saratoga, Calif. This team has become quite the familiar face in this division as they have captured top honors in this class in 2005, 2006, 2007, 2010, 2011 and now 2012, and they did it this year with a unanimous decision of the panel. Ted Who and Mike Walden pulled in for the red streamers for the Mike Walden family of Chattanooga, Tenn. Antonio Banderas and Jennifer Hall rounded out the top of the class for Hall and Hall of Smyrna, Tenn.

Owner-Amateur Riders on Walking Mares or Geldings, class 116 was up next on the schedule with 16 entries making the gate call to work for Judge Nathan Clark and his staff. Capturing the blue in the division was Victoria's Secret and Maisie McSwain in the irons for Maisie and Mandi McSwain of Gainesville, Ga. This duo had 2012 wins at Edison, Ga. and the Columbia Spring Jubilee and secured this win with a unanimous decision of the panel. A Specialist and Gail Walling were reserve for Judy McDonald of Tullahoma, Tenn. Country & Famous and Miles Irby were third for Rick and Marla Lovett of Mobile, Ala.

Finally, it was the class that the Monday Night crowd stayed around for, class 117, Walking Stallions, 15.2 and Under (Canter) (Riders' Cup). Eleven of the 22 expected worked down from Calsonic Arena to work to impress the judges and the crowd as Judge Brent Grider led the panel in the final class of the night. Riding to the winner's circle was Bee Bee King and Jimmy McConnell up for Rachel Castaldi of Skillman, N.J. With this win, and a previous win in 2008, the team retired the Lottery Memorial Challenge Trophy and The Paul Watlington Memorial Challenge Trophy. Mr. Heisman and Brandye Mills were reserve for Randall and Sadie Baskin of Franklin, Tenn. A Strong Need For Cash and Michael Wright were third for Jim and Jeanne Roberts of Wildersville, Tenn. It was one great class and will certainly make for another great Championship come Friday Night.

It's Monday morning in Shelbyville and that means it's the final morning performance of the 74th Annual Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration. The morning schedule features 13 classes from the Trail Pleasure, Lite-Shod, Plantation Pleasure, Park Pleasure, Show Pleasure, Equitation and Halter divisions highlighted by the Auxiliary Equitation, Youth Medal Championship (Canter).

Up first on the morning schedule was class 94, Flat Shod Pleasure Driving, 2 or 4 Wheel Vehicle. Eight of the ten expected drove up to Calsonic Arena to work as Judge Chris Bobo called the gaits in the first class of the morning. Making the winning drive was Overpass and Patti Pollack at the lines for Pollack's Silver Spur Ranch of Saratoga, Calif. and Shelbyville, Tenn. Jose's Baby Doll and Jeff Laughlin were reserve for Doris Penick of Waltherboro, S.C. Score's Heartbreaker and owner/exhibitor Kathy Owen of Murfreesboro, Tenn., rounded out the top three in the class.

It was time to get in the western way for class 95, Western Lite-Shod Walking Horses (Riders Cup) with four of the seven with reservations made their way to the rail to show as Judge Nathan Clark served as Call Judge for the class. Walking their way down victory lane with the approval of all five judges was Catastrophic and owner/exhibitor Laurie Toone of Shelbyville, Tenn. This makes Catastrophic's third 2012 Celebration win as Mackenzie Morgan captured a blue on Friday morning and Toone was in the saddle on Friday night winning the blue. Leigh Stuart and Gigi's Jamaican Generator were reserve for Leigh Stuart of Alvaton, Ky. Major Orders and Evan Morgan were third for Westmark Farms of Somerville, Tenn.

Equitation Riders 18 and over (Canter) was up next in class 96E with 2 of the 3 expected making the gate call to show for Judge Brent Grider and his panel. Once the rail work was complete, individual pattern work was required. When all of the work was complete, it was Rachel Burch of College Grove, Tenn., a past Youth Equitation WGC, riding to the winner's circle this morning. Carmen Franck of Montpelier, Wa., was reserve in the class.

The Park Pleasure entries were up next for class 97, Owner-Amateur Novice Youth Riders 6-17 on Novice Park Pleasure Walking Mares or Geldings. Three of the four on the official Lions Club program made their way up from the warm up ring to work for their chance at their very first Celebration blue. Judge Carol Smithson served as Call Judge for the class. Riding out of the Novice division this morning was Tyler Diamond Pollack and Overpass for Pollack's Silver Spur Ranch of Saratoga, Calif. and Shelbyville, Tenn. This was Overpass' second win of the morning as Patti Pollack drove to the win in the Pleasure Driving class. The Grizzly and Mackenzie Niston were reserve for David Mesimer of Statesville, N.C. Stolen Gem and Brooke Morris collected the yellow streamers for Jim, Jason and Brooke Morris of Perryville, Mo.

Staying in the Novice division, class 98 featured the Owner-Amateur Novice Riders on Novice Lite-Shod Walking Horses with 11 of the 17 on the program making the call to work for their chance at that coveted Celebration blue as Judge Connie Waldo called the gaits in the class. Heading out of the Novice division this morning were Absolut Skyy and Jana Anderson up for Pulvers, Howell and Anderson of Shelbyville and Murfreesboro, Tenn. Kick Start Jazz and Justin Manis were reserve for Justin Manis and Charlene Richardson of Mt. Juliet, Tenn. Caterpillar and Frank Mosley were third for Westmark Farm, Hunter Morgan and Frank Mosley of Somerville and Shelbyville, Tenn.

Class 99 brought the Owner-Amateur Riders on Plantation Pleasure Walking Horses to the ring with two entries making the call to work as Judge Jennifer Bingham called the gaits for the event. Riding to the winner's circle for the second time for the 2012 Celebration was Hello I'm Johnny Cash and Sherri Pollack riding for Pollack's Silver Spur Ranch of Saratoga, Calif. and Shelbyville, Tenn. Gen's Double Action and owner/exhibitor Rufus Dale of Canton, N.C. were reserve.

The babies of the industry, the weanlings, were up next in class 100, Weanling Colts, of 2012 Foal. Seventeen of the 18 on the official Lions Club program walked their way up to Calsonic Arena to show off their best looks and moves for Judge Joel Weaver and his panel. Taking control of the competition and making that victory walk was I'm King Of The Ring and Amanda Wright at the lead for The George Wright Family of Mt. Juliet, Tenn. The Illuminati and Karen McGee walked into the second position for Debbie Davis of Shelbyville, Tenn. My Diamond Back and Sylvester Skierkowski picked up the golden streamers for Bobby and Freda Jones of Manchester, Tenn.

Adding a little variety to the Monday Morning schedule, class 101 brought the Owner-Amateur Youth Riders 12-17 Years on Show Pleasure Walking Mares or Geldings to Calsonic Arena with six of the 18 with reservations taking the rail to work for Judge Jennifer Bingham and her cohorts. Santana's Renaissance Man and owner/exhibitor Allison Thorson of Huron, Ohio, rode away with the win in the division. This marked their sixth win as a team during the 2012 show season. Bronco Billy and Jessie Laughlin accepted the red ribbon for Joe Laughlin of Waynesville, Mo. Perfection of Jazz and Hailey Puckett were third for King and Way of Shelbyville, Tenn.

Back in the Trail Pleasure division, class 102 featured the Owner-Amateur Novice Riders on Novice English Trail Pleasure Walking Horses. Fifteen of the 21 expected came to work for their shot at that very first Celebration blue as Judge Chris Bobo led the panel in the class. Riding out of the Novice division this morning was the team of Contemporary Jazz and Kasey Kesselring riding proudly for Kesselring and Gray of Montverde, Fla. Wicked Endeavor and Jana Anderson were reserve for Allen, Irby and Anderson of Pleasanton, Calif. and Shelbyville, Tenn. Gi Gi's Lunch Money and Bruce Vaughn were third for Jennifer Hankins and Linda Vaughn of Paris, Ky. and Valley City, Ohio.

Three of the eight expected beat the clock to work in class 103, Western Park Pleasure Walking Horses (Riders Cup). Judge Nathan Clark served as Call Judge in the class. Happy to walk to the winner's circle with a unanimous decision of the panel was the team of Armed & Trigger Happy and Patrick Thomas riding for Cassique Plantation and Fred and Bernie Rowan of Bluemont, Va. Dark Spirit's Mack Daddy and Leigh Stuart were reserve for Shirley Stuart of Bowling Green, Ky. Lights On Cody and Jeff Byrom rounded out the class for Larry and Joe Allman of Shelbyville, Tenn.

It was time to hand out some roses in Calsonic Arena as class 104E brought the Auxiliary Equitation, Youth Medal Championship (Canter) to the ring with seven entries on hand to work for championship acclaim. Of course, Equitation is the art of riding a horse and is judged solely on the rider and not the horse. Once the rail work was complete, it was time to line up for the individual inspections and pattern work. When the work was complete, announcer Mark Farrar, Jr., called Allison Thorson of Huron, Ohio, champions in 2011 as well, to the winner's circle and advised she had won the title with a unanimous decision of the judging panel. With this win, Thorson retired the Alice Eve Klein Equitation Challenge Trophy. She will be back in the big oval this evening after class 110C to make her exhibition for the Monday night crowd. Kaitlyn Rippey of Greenbrier, Tenn., was reserve in the class, while Allison Lane Holt of Shelbyville, Tenn., was third.

Lite-Shod Walking Horses, Two Years Old (Riders Cup), class 105, was up next with 10 of the 12 on the program beating the clock to work as Judge Carol Smithson called the gaits in the next to the last class of the Monday Morning performance. Making that victory ride in the division was I'm Magic Mike and Allison Smart up for Phyllis Langley of Sandpoint, Id. This duo had already picked up a win in the same division at the International Grand Championships. Pusher's Arc and owner/exhibitor Laurie Toone of Shelbyville, Tenn., pulled into the reserve position. A Major Gold Strike and Jeff Laughlin rounded out the top of the class for Doris Penick of Walterboro, S.C.

Class 106, Weanling Fillies, of 2012 Foal, rounded out the Monday morning performance with all 12 of the expected teams walking their way to Calsonic Arena to show off for Judge Nathan Clark and his panel. She's A Real Diamond and Robert Nelms made that walk to the winner's circle this morning for Carol Hargett of Shelbyville, Tenn. Adorable Diamond and Beverly Lamp pulled in to accept the red streamers for Keith and Lorraine Rosbury of Bell Buckle, Tenn. Miss Martini and Karen McGee were third for Howard and Beth Henderson of South Fulton, Tenn.

Ah, Sunday . . . A day of rest! Not during the Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration! While there were no day classes, there was activity all over the grounds today including the WHTA Trainers' Auxiliary Dog Show in Calsonic Arena and tonight, the action resumes in the historic Celebration Arena with 13 classes of competition on the evening's schedule, highlighted by the final class of the evening, the Four-Year-Old Walking Stallions.

The first class on the evening's schedule was class 82, Owner-Amateur Youth Riders 12-14 Years on Walking Mares or Geldings. As the horses made their way down the hill, organist Larry Bright opened the show in his usual Sunday Evening style, with "Just A Closer Walk With Thee," as he has for all the years that he has played at The Celebration. Eleven of the 21 with reservations made the gate call to work for Judge Brent Grider and his panel. This duo was champions at the Tazewell County Classic and reserve champions at the Spring Fun Show in 2012. Walking away with the win was the team of Be Cool and Jaelyn Compton up for Rick Compton of Tazewell, Va. Jose' Caliente and owner/exhibitor Chris Elliott of Tuscumbia, Ala., rode into the second position. Stewwinder and Kosten McWaters were third for LaRue McWaters of Ashford, Ala.

The Park Pleasure entries took to the rail for class 83, Owner-Amateur Riders on Classic Park Pleasure Walking Horses with nine of the 14 on the official Lions Club program working to the rail as Judge Carol Smithson called the gaits in the class. Riding to the winner's circle was MP1 and Katie West up for Katie West and Jane Hill of Murfreesboro and Church Hill, Tenn. Headed back Marshall County way with reserve honors was I'm Gunpowder And Lead and owner/exhibitor Kathy Baker of Lewisburg, Tenn. Motown's Title Masterpiece and Justin Manis rounded out the top three for Sonny and Debbie Sanders of Brownsboro, Ala.

Class 84 brought the Elite Owner-Amateur Lady Riders on Walking Mares or Geldings to the big oval. Ten of the 19 expected came to show off for the Sunday Night crowd as Judge Joel Weaver led the panel in the section. If there was one team that was sky high after making a great performance and riding to the winner's circle with a unanimous decision of the judging panel it was Rocky Mountain Sky and Robin MacDonald as they did just that riding for Bruce and Robin MacDonald Of Atlanta, Ga. Dollar's Bright Star and Jannie Chapman pulled into the second position for Bill and Jannie Chapman of Owen Crossroads, Ala. Jose's Miss Dolly and Jean O'Brien were third for O'Brien and McLaughlin of Florence, S.C. and Bell Buckle, Tenn.

It was time to get in a western frame of mind for class 85, Owner-Amateur Riders on Western Trail Pleasure Walking Horses. Fourteen of the 22 on the books made their way to the big ring to work for the Sunday evening crowd as Judge Connie Waldo called the gaits.

Riding to the big oval winner's circle was Wicked Gold and Sheryl Volkman up for John and Sheryl Volkman of Livermore, Calif. This duo already has one 2012 World Championship on their stall door that they won in the Three-Gait Trail Pleasure division on Thursday morning. However, it's always fun and memorable to ride out of the big oval with a Celebration blue! A Red Ruby and Liz Gassaway accepted the red streamers for Liz and Mitchell Gassaway and Mackenzie Morgan of Shelbyville, Tenn. Bedazzled By Jazz and owner/exhibitor Lisa Baum of Shelbyville, Tenn., rounded out the top of the class.

The young riders were up next on the schedule in class 86, Owner-Amateur Novice Youth Riders 6-11 Years on Novice Walking Mares or Geldings. Thirteen of the 21 on the program made their way down the hill to work for their very first Celebration blue, a memory they certainly would never forget. Judge Jennifer Bingham served as Call Judge for the class. Riding out of the novice division and making a memory of a lifetime was Walk On Command and Jessica Lawwell up for Roger and Barbara Jenkins of Brentwood, Tenn. The team made this memory with the approval of all five judges. Major Genius and Taylor Stickler were reserve for Kelly Stickler of Kingsport, Tenn. Gen's Black Gin Creation and Storm Chiappari Sims were third for the Mike Chiappari family of Santa Rosa, Calif. and Shelbyville, Tenn.

It was again time for this evening's edition of Steppin' Into Cash, where tonight $500.00 was given away compliments of Cooper Steel of Shelbyville, Tenn. It took two tickets tonight to get a winner, but Ava McMeen of Mt Pleasant, Tenn., was present and did go home $500.00 richer.

Staying in the Novice division, class 87 brought the Owner-Amateur Novice Riders on Novice Show Pleasure Walking Horses to the rail with 20 of the 30 on the official Lions Club program beating the clock to work for their very first sentimental journey down victory lane as Judge Chris Bobo serves as Call Judge for the class. A novice no more, Spooky Dollar and Stephanie Elliott made that memorable ride down victory lane for Stephanie Elliott and Danny Gattis of Tuscumbia, Ala. Pearl Gunn and Linda Imler were reserve in the class for Linda Imler and Sally Fleck of Newman, Ga. and Shelbyville, Tenn. Jubilee's Awesome Dream and Shannon Cotter received the gold streamers for Ed and Shannon Cotter of Ross-ville, Tenn.

The young riders were back for class 88, Owner-Amateur Youth Riders 15-17 Years on Walking Ponies with five of the nine expected making the call to work for Judge Nathan Clark and his cohorts. It may have been a small class, but it was certainly a very talent laden class with several past World Champions and World Grand Champions and all five have been shown very successfully throughout the 2012 season. However, there was only one blue ribbon and that honor went to the team of Lined Walkin' and Lilly Waites up for the Andrew Waites family of Hattiesburg, Miss. With this win, coupled with their 2011 win in this division, the team retired the Billy Boyd Memorial Challenge Trophy, the David Bledsoe Memorial Challenge Trophy and the Master Plan Challenge Trophy. Roll The Gold and Allison Thorson was reserve in the class riding for ThorSport, Inc., of Sandusky, Ohio. Tommy Lee Jones and owner/exhibitor Benjamin Bowen of Randolph, Miss., accepted third.

Class 89 was a very special class as it was the Owner-Amateur Riders on Walking Horses, Riders 70 Years and Over. We've had the Classic Horse class and now we have the Classic Rider class! Thirteen of the 23 expected made the call to work as Judge Brent Grider called the gaits in the class. It truly is a testament to our breed that riders from 6 years of age to 70 years of age (and much, much older) can ride and show our horses. Not just every breed can say that! Riding to the top of the class once again was the team of Kudos For Cash and Dr. W.H. Hill up for Dr. and Mrs. W.H. Hill of Powder Springs, Ga. This win, coupled with his win in 2011, he retired his own challenge trophy, The Dr. W.H. Hill Challenge Trophy. Did I mention that Dr. Hill is a little older than 70? He's actually 94 years young and will turn 95 in November! He won this class in 2006-2009 with Cash's All Star and returned in 2011 and 2012 to capture the class with Kudos For Cash. Very impressive indeed! Jose's Delightful Pusher and Kenneth Callicutt pulled into the second position in the class for John Callicutt of Seagrove, N.C. Heidi McWilliams and Ritz's Big Dipper rounded out the top three for McWilliams Farms of Cookeville, Tenn.

The pleasure entries were back for class 90, Owner-Amateur Youth Riders 12-17 Years on Park Pleasure Walking Mares or Geldings with five of the eight expected working down the hill to show for Judge Jennifer Bingham and her panel. Riding away with the win was Santana's Coin and Robert Cortner up for McNeely, Landrum and Cortner of Blowing Rock, N.C., Franklin, Tenn., and Winchester, Tenn. Fog At The Ritz and Abbey Fleming were reserve in the class for Jim Upchurch of Jackson, Tenn. Miss Cheyenne and Mackenzie Niston were third for Larry Mesimer and Gordon Ezzell of Concord, N.C. and Rocky Mount, N.C.

Class 91A brought the Owner-Amateur Riders on Four-Year-Old Walking Mares or Geldings to the track with 16 of the 22 on the program making the call to work for Judge Joel Weaver and his staff. Headed to the winner's circle, with organist Larry Bright playing "Yellow Rose of Texas" in the background was She's A Shady Sister and Lee McGartland in the irons for Mike and Lee McGartland of Ft. Worth, Texas. This win was preceded with 2012 wins at the Spring Fun Show and the Woodbury Lions Club Horse Show. More Horse Power and Jannie Chapman collected the red streamers for Bill and Jannie Chapman of Owen Crossroads, Ala. Poker Face and Clay Mills were third for Clay Mills and Kayla Baucom of Mt. Airy and Monroe, N.C.

Owner-Amateur Riders on Four-Year-Old Walking Mares or Gelding, class 91B, brought 13 of the 22 with reservations down the hill to show for the Sunday evening crowd. Judge Jennifer Bingham served as Call Judge for the class. Riding away with the win was Dirty Sexy Money and Laura Brandon up for Laura M. Brandon of Franklin, Tenn. This team had a 2012 resume that included wins at the National Trainers Show, the Gulf Coast Charity Celebration and the Eagleville Lions Club Horse Show. Splashing At The Ritz and Sara Moersch were reserve for Dr. Barbara Moersch of Jacksonville, Ala. Powerstroke's Evening Star and Pam Ingraham were third for McGee and Ingraham of Lenoir, N.C. and Shelbyville, Tenn.

Back in the novice division for a final time tonight, class 92 brought the Owner-Amateur Novice Lady Riders on Novice Walking Stallions to the ring 15 strong with each team in hopes of walking away with their very first Celebration blue tonight. Judge Chris Bobo led the panel in the class. Riding out of the Novice division tonight was Gin Toddy and owner/exhibitor Sue Irby of Shelbyville, Tenn. Wired For Cash and Leslie Dotson remained a Novice for another day and accepted the reserve honors for the Terry Dotson family of Knoxville, Tenn. Bobby Boucher and Tammy Valmus rounded out the top of the class for Valmus and Rogers of Bell Buckle, Tenn. and Eatonton, Ga.

It was finally time for the highlight of the evening, the Four-Year-Old Walking Stallions (Canter) (Riders' Cup). Twelve of the 18 with reservations made the gate call to work as Judge Nathan Clark called the gaits for the class that promised to be worth waiting for. Worth waiting for it certainly was as the reigning Three-Year-Old WGC Honors and Larry Edwards rode to the winner's circle with approval of all five judges and the loud approval of the Sunday Night crowd for Dan, Keith and Kelley McSwain of Gainesville and Duluth, Ga. I'm Deuce and Casey Wright were reserve for Billy and Debbie Woods of Lexington, Tenn. The Jazz Player and Jimmy McConnell were third for Jimmy and Edith Dilday of Dresden, Tenn.

It's Saturday Night in Shelbyville at the 74th Annual Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration. The first class on the evening's schedule was class 72, Owner-Amateur Lady Riders on Walking Geldings. Sixteen of the 33 with reservations made the gate call to work for Judge Chris Bobo and his cohorts. Cashing in on Saturday night with a winning performance was The Royal Dollar and Lee McGartland up for Mike and Lee McGartland of Ft. Worth, Texas. This win was preceded with 2012 wins at the Mississippi Charity Horse Show, the Gulf Coast Charity Celebration and the Germantown Charity Horse Show. Jazz Country and Patti Pollack were reserve in the class for Pollack's Silver Spur Ranch of Saratoga, Calif. and Shelbyville, Tenn. Bold Vengeance and Heather Beard were third for Judy McDonald of Tullahoma, Tenn.

The professional trainers hit the track early tonight as class 73A featured the Three-Year-Old Walking Mares (Riders' Cup). Nineteen of the 28 expected made their way down the hill to work as Judge Nathan Clark called the gaits in the class. Topping the section was the team of Silver Fog and Dan Waddell up riding for Rachel Castaldi of Skillman, N.J. Justin Harris and Busted At Pebble Beach pulled into the second position for Bruce and Robin MacDonald of Atlanta, Ga. I'm Fleur De Lis and Travis Craft rounded out the top three for Dowell and Smith of Powell, Ohio and Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Class 73B, Three-Year-Old Walking Mares (Riders' Cup) brought 19 of the 29 on the official Lions Club program off the hill to work in this section as Judge Brent Grider served as Call Judge for the division. From a field of 19, the winning team impressed all five judges and won their title with a unanimous decision of the panel and taking the honors was Miss Ebony Rose and Ross Campbell riding for Sudie Reed of Jasper, Ala. Strokin' At Sunrise and Herbert Derickson were reserve for McGee and Ingraham of Lenoir, N.C. and Shelbyville, Tenn. Jose's The First Lady and Gary Edwards were third for Maisie and Mandie McSwain of Gainesville, Ga.

Young Trainers, 35 Years & Under, on Walking Horses, 15.2 & Under (Riders' Cup), class 74, was up next on the program. Nine of the 20 programmed entries worked down to the historic big oval to show for Judge Joel Weaver and his panel. Riding to the win with a unanimous decision of the panel was I'm Packin' A Pistol and Aaron Self up for Rick Compton of Tazewell, Va. I'm Packin' A Pistol is a "Classic Horse," meaning one that is 15 years of age or older. What a statement that a horse of that age is still able perform at a World Championship level. I'm Splashed and Tim Smith were reserve for Karla Landrum of Franklin, Tenn. Skywatch's Masterpiece and Bill Callaway were third for Bill Hill of Knoxville, Tenn.

Now, during a break in the action, it was time to try to give away some money with the "Steppin' Into Cash" promotion. Tonight, $1,000.00 was given away compliments of Deb and Rick Insell, Ben and Lana Craig and Tad and Teresa Craig. The winner tonight was Valerie Nelson of Lebanon, Tenn. If you read The Report's nightly coverage last night, you'll recall that last night's winner, Hunter Henson of Gallatin, Tenn., was a guest of this reporter, and no, I have not seen a commission at this point. Well, Valerie Nelson and her family were guests of this reporter tonight. Who could imagine? Think this reporter will see a commission off of tonight's winnings? On with the horse show!

It was time to get in a western frame of mind for class 75, Owner-Amateur Riders on Western Park Pleasure Walking Horses, Five Years & Over. Six entries made the call to work in the section as Judge Nathan Clark called the gaits. Headed back out west with top honors in the division with a unanimous decision of the panel was the "Classic Horse" Dragonfire and owner/exhibitor Jim Heiting of Riverside, Calif. Sky Full Of Gold and Patti Pollack pulled into the second spot for Pollack's Silver Spur Ranch of Saratoga, Calif. and Shelbyville, Tenn. Yao Ming and owner/exhibitor Nicole Coffey rounded out the top three in the class.

Class 76 featured the Owner-Amateur Novice Youth Riders 12-17 Years on Novice Walking Mares or Geldings with 12 of the 19 with reservations making the call to work for their chance at their very first Celebration blue tonight. Judge Jennifer Bingham served as Call Judge for the class. Riding right out of the Novice division tonight and winning their very first Celebration blue was Stenwinder and Koston McWaters riding for a very happy LaRue McWaters of Ashford, Ala. The Mississippi Hippie and WhitLei Green stay novices for another day and garner the red streamers. Absolute Bullet Proof and Jordan Dempsey were third for Charles and Joy Gleghorn of Fayetteville, Tenn.

Class 77A brought the Two-Year-Old Walking Mares (Riders' Cup) to the historic Celebration Arena with 16 of the 23 on the books answering the call to have the chance to work for the judging panel, led by Judge Chris Bobo, and the Saturday night crowd. Riding away with the win was Jane's Silver Lining and Herbert Derickson up for McGee and Ingraham of Lenoir, N.C. and Shelbyville, Tenn. This win, coupled with McGee and Ingraham's 2010 win with Powerstroke's Evening Star, retired the Leon and Clara Jean Forrester Challenge Trophy and the Maude C. McDonald Memorial Challenge Trophy. This team had 2012 wins at the Walking With Eagle Pride Horse Show, the Liberty Lions Club Horse Show and Pulaski, Tenn.'s Red Carpet Show of the South. Atonement and Scotty Brooks were reserve for Gene Davis of Wadley, Ga. Jazzmine Lady and Winky Groover were third for Jo Ann Dowell of Powell, Ohio.

Two-Year-Old Walking Mares (Riders' Cup) class 77B, was up next on the program with 15 of the 22 expected working down the hill to show for Judge Nathan Clark and his cohorts. It was another very good, very entertaining class, but there could only be one champion and that honor would go to the team of Cash Date and Brent Coburn riding for the Terry Dotson family of Kingston, Tenn. Accepting the red ribbon was Wicked Walking Witch and Casey Wright up for JoAnn Dempsey of Tupelo, Miss. Coach's First Lady and Chad Williams rounded out the top of the class for Hixon and Barnes of Anniston, Ala. and Pigeon Forge, Tenn.

Owner-Amateur Riders on Walking Ponies, Stallions were up next, class 78, with 12 of the 22 on the official Lions Club program answering the call to work as Judge Brent Grider called the gaits in the class. Walking the line to the winner's circle in this division for the second consecutive year was the reigning WGC Amateur Pony, The Dixie Lineman and Gail Walling up for Judy McDonald and Gail Walling of Tullahoma and Wartrace, Tenn.

This duo scored 2012 wins at the Spring Fun Show, the Money Tree Classic and the Marshall County Horse Show. Prime Poison and Lilly Waites were a popular reserve riding for the Andrew Waites family of Hattiesburg, Miss. Samsung and owner/exhibitor George-Ann Pratt of Shawnee Mission, Kansas was third in the class.

Up next, it was time to hand out the first set of roses in the Walking Yearling World Grand Championship. Eleven entries made the call to work for that opportunity to walk in the spotlight tonight as Judge Joel Weaver served as Call Judge. Making that memorable walk in the spotlight with the approval of all five judges was Coachin' And Preachin' and Beverly Lamp, winners of the Yearling Colt preliminary earlier today, for Keith and Lorraine Rosbury of Bell Buckle, Tenn. Reserve honors went to Oh Pancho Oh Cisco and Roger Richards, Jr., at the lead for Dr. Roger Richards of Hendersonville, Tenn. Intimidator's Cover Girl and Amanda Wright, winners of the Yearling Filly and Amateur Yearling preliminaries, were third for the Andrew Waites and George Wright families of Hattiesburg, Miss. and Mt. Juliet, Tenn.

Class 80 featured the Owner-Amateur Novice Gentleman Riders on Novice Walking Stallions with 18 teams hoping to ride right out of the Novice division tonight and win their very first Celebration blue. Judge Jennifer Bingham served as Call Judge for the class. Riding out of the Novice division tonight was Cougar and owner/exhibitor Dr. Tommy Vinson of Columbus, Miss. Remaining a Novice for another day was Crooked Line and Benny Gray up for the Benny Gray family of Odenville, Ala. Smoke N Cash MM and Charles Stivers rounded out the top three for Glendon Stivers of Manchester, Ky.

It was finally time for the classes that all the Celebration fans have been waiting on all night, the Aged Stallions. Yes, our first opportunity to take a look at the horses that will be working to be our 2012 Tennessee Walking Horse World Grand Champion just one week from tonight!

Class 81A, Walking Stallions, Five Years & Over, Over 15.2 (Canter) (Riders' Cup) were up first and the Saturday night crowd came to their feet eagerly awaiting the entries as organist Larry Bright played his "Flat Walk Boogie." Five of the 15 expected made the gate call to work as Judge Chris Bobo called the gaits. When all the work was complete, it was the magical team of I'm Copperfield and Knox Blackburn, 2012 champions at the Gulf Coast Charity Celebration and the Spring Fun Show, riding for the Mike Walden family of Chattanooga, Tenn. This team captured their honors with a unanimous decision of the judging panel and the overwhelming approval of the crowd. Ozone's Cut Above All and John Allan Callaway were reserve riding for George-Ann Pratt of Shawnee Mission, Kansas. He's My Main Man and Winky Groover was third for Rising Star Ranch of Shelbyville, Tenn. Prior to calling class 81B, announcer Mark Farrar, Jr., made note of a couple of "feel good" items. He noted that tonight's attendance was up over 2011 and the number of horses shown thus far was up as well. Two very positive notes indeed.

Class 81B, Walking Stallions, Five Years & Over, Over 15.2 (Canter) (Riders' Cup) brought eight of the 14 on the entry book to the track to show their very best for Judge Nathan Clark and his panel. When the work was complete, it was the team of Walk Time Charlie and Chad Baucom walking to the winner's circle with an unanimous decision of the panel for Holland, Kilgore and Callicutt of Decatur, Ala. Puttin' Cash On The Line and Tim Smith were reserve in the class for the Tommy Jowers family of Leesburg, Ga. Folsom Prison Blues and Steve Dunn were third for the Jimmy Smith family of Oliver Springs, Tenn.

The stage is set for the showdown next Saturday night and it looks like it will be one exciting World Grand Championship class indeed. Don't think that all of the excitement is done, however, the Sunday night performance promises to be just as exciting with the Youth Riders 12-14, Youth Riders on Walking Ponies Riders 15-17 and the Four-Year-Old Walking Stallions. Make plans to be back in Shelbyville and don't miss a moment!

It's Saturday morning in Shelbyville at the 74th Annual Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration. Up first on the morning schedule was class 60E, Auxiliary Equitation Medal Class, Youth Division, Riders 6-11 Years. All five of the expected teams made the call to work for Judge Jennifer Bingham and her staff. After the initial rail work, each entry was asked to complete their individual pattern work. Once the work was complete, the judges determined the champion to be Claire Hankins of Paris, Ky. Keely Morrow of Franklin, Ky., was reserve in the class, while Allie Avent of Bell Buckle, Tenn., was third.

The young riders returned to the ring for class 61, Owner-Amateur Youth Riders 6-17 Years on Western Country Pleasure Walking Horses. Fourteen of the 20 with reservations made the call to work for Call Judge Chris Bobo and his cohorts. Busting out of the lineup and riding down victory lane with the approval of all five judges was Bustline and Mackenzie Morgan riding for Fred and Vicki Benjamin and Mackenzie Morgan of Humboldt and Shelbyville, Tenn. This was this duo's fourth Youth Country Pleasure win of the 2012 show season and Bustline had already captured a WC title earlier in the week with Vicki Benjamin. Cowboy On Parole and Peyton Davis were reserve for Dr. Jack and Wilsene Moody-Kwok of Delaware, Ohio and Shelbyville, Tenn. The Ghost Walker and Katie Garber were third for Brown, Irby and Gerber of Lewisburg and Shelbyville, Tenn.

The schedule moved to the halter division for class 62, Owner-Amateur Yearlings with 15 teams walking their way up from the warm up ring to work for Judge Chris Bobo and his panel. Walking away with the win in the class was Intimidator's Cover Girl and Amanda Wright, 2012 Champions at the Columbia Spring Jubilee and the TWHBEA National Futurity, at the lead for The Andrew Waites Family and The George Wright Family of Hattiesburg, Miss. and Mt Juliet, Tenn. Oh Pancho Oh Cisco and Roger Richards, Jr., walked into the second position for Roger Richards of Hendersonville, Tenn. I'm Star Gazing and Rhonda Martocci collected the yellow streamers for Rhonda Martocci and Bradley Richards of Franklin and Arrington, Tenn.

Owner-Amateur Youth Riders 12-17 on Western Trail Pleasure Horses was up next on the program with 11 of the 15 on the official Lions Club program taking the rail to work as Judge Nathan Clark called the gaits. Making the winning ride in the division was Suiza and owner/exhibitor Allison Thorson of Huron, Ohio. This duo already won the Youth Riders 12-17 English Trail Pleasure on Friday morning. A Wicked Bond and Krysta Allen were reserve riding for Krysta and Rachel Allen of Pleasanton, Calif. A Red Ruby and Mackenzie Morgan were third for Liz and Mitchell Gassaway and Mackenzie Morgan of Shelbyville, Tenn.

Class 64 brought the Amateur Owned And Trained English Trail Pleasure Walking Horses, No Professional Training Within 90 days to the track with 15 of the 17 expected working the rail in hopes of riding away with top honors in the division. Judge Carol Smithson served as Call Judge for the class. Just Doing My Time and Maggie Moore found themselves in the winner's circle after a strong performance riding for Jim Leek & Maggie Moore of Albany, Ga. & Murfreesboro, Tenn. This win made number nine of the 2012 show season for this duo. Headed back to the Lonestar State with reserve was So It Is . . . God's Gift and owner/exhibitor Kimberly Coult of Livingston, Texas. The Karma Fairy and owner/exhibitor Liz Gassaway of Shelbyville, Tenn., rounded out the top three in the class.

Class 65E featured the Auxiliary Equitation, Medal Class, Youth Division, Riders 12-14 to the track with all three of the programmed entries making the call to work for Judge Nathan Clark and his cohorts. Again, once the rail work was complete, each team was asked to complete a predetermined pattern. Once all of this was complete, top honors went to Kaitlyn Rippey of Greenbrier, Tenn., with a unanimous decision of the judging panel. Alexis King of Cornersville, Tenn., was reserve, while Allison Lane Holt of Shelbyville, Tenn., was third.

Back in the Trail Pleasure division, class 66 featured the Owner-Amateur Youth Riders 6-11 Years on Trail Pleasure Walking Horses, Optional Tack. All nine of the registered teams worked to the rail to show their very best for Judge Connie Waldo and her staff. Riding away with their second blue of the 2012 Celebration was Juan Carlos and Lily Catherine Holland up for Lisa Weaver and Lilly Holland of Doyline, La. and Decatur, Ala. High Tide Surfin' and Brady Bachert picked up the red ribbon for Brady Bachert and Stacey Richards of Wildwood, Mo. and Arrington, Tenn. Contemporary Jazz and Ashley Gray rounded out the top of the class for Kesselring and Gray of Montverde, Fla.

Class 66E, Auxiliary Equitation, Medal Class, Senior Division, Riders 15-17 Years was the last Equitation class on the morning's schedule. These riders, and those from the other preliminaries, will return on Monday morning to ride for the roses in the Equitation Medals Championship. Four entries made the call to work in this event as Judge Brent Grider led the panel. Once again, each entry completed individual pattern work once the rail work was complete. Garnering the approval of all five judges was Allison Thorson of Huron, Ohio. Thorson was the 2011 champion in this division and the reigning Equitation Medal Grand Champion and this was her 18th 2012 Equitation win. Morgan Murphy of Scott Depot, Ky., was reserve, while Meme Anderson of Bishopville, S.C., was third.

The Yearlings were back on track for class 68, Yearling Fillies and Geldings, of 2011 Foal, with 14 entries working up from the warm-up ring to show their winning moves and looks for the judging panel, led by Judge Joel Weaver. Walking their way to the winner's circle for the second time of the morning session was Intimidator's Cover Girl and Amanda Wright at the lead for The Andrew Waites Family and The George Wright Family of Hattiesburg, MS. and Mt Juliet, Tenn. Silver Belle Titleist and Chris Richards were reserve for 4-J Land & Cattle Company of Waynesville, Mo. Mr. Jessie James and Mackenzie Morgan were reserve for Ann Jameson and Mackenzie Morgan of Union, W.V. and Shelbyville, Tenn. Jose's Hannah Montana and Ashley Gray were third for Kesselring and Gray of Montverde, Fla.

The last halter class of the morning performance was class 70, Yearling Colts of 2011 Foal. Fourteen entries beat the clock to work for the judging panel, led by Judge Jennifer Bingham. Headed to the winner's circle in the division was Coachin' And Preachin' and Beverly Lamp at the lead for Keith and Lorraine Rosbury of Bell Buckle, Tenn. This talented youngster took 2012 top honors at the Liberty Lions Club Horse Show, the Woodbury Lions Club Horse Show and the Wartrace Horse Show. Oh Pancho O Cisco and Roger Richards, Jr., were reserve for Roger Richards of Hendersonville, Tenn. Jazz On My Mind and Robert Nelms were third for Carol Hargett of Shelbyville, Tenn.

The final class of the Saturday Morning performance was class 71, Owner-Amateur Youth Riders 6-17 on Lite-Shod Walking Mares or Geldings. Twelve of the 14 expected took the rail to work as Judge Chris Bobo called the gaits for the class. Garnering their second win of the 2012 Celebration, after capturing the blue in the Youth Novice Lite-Shod class on Friday Morning, was Simple Lee Dangerous and Alex Hopkins up for Kara Graham and Alex Hopkins of Niota and Sneedville, Tenn. Major Orders and Mackenzie Morgan for Westmark Farms of Somerville, Tenn. Gi Gi's Jamacian Generator and Kaitlyn Rippey were third for Leigh Stuart of Alvaton, Ky.

It's Friday Morning at the 74th Annual Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration and once again, horse show fans were greeted by unusually cool temperatures in Calsonic Arena which will make for almost perfect conditions for a horse show. Promptly at 9 a.m., official morning announcer Mark Farrar, Jr., was calling class 34, Owner-Amateur Novice Youth Riders 6-17 Years on Novice Lite-Shod Walking Mares or Geldings with five of the six with reservations making the gate call to work for Judge Connie Waldo and her panel. These five young riders all worked very hard in hopes of leaving Calsonic Arena with their very first Celebration blue. Picking up that first win with a unanimous decision of the panel was Simple Lee Dangerous and Alex Hopkins up for Kara Graham and Alex Hopkins of Niota and Sneedville, Tenn. Headed back to the Buckeye state with reserve honors were Power's W.I.Z.O. and Cassie Leith in the irons for Dr. Joe Leith of Pedro, Ohio. Command's Big Money and Kathleen Burroughs were third for Charlene and Kathleen Burroughs of Oxford, N.C.

Class 35 brought 17 of the 18 on the official Lions Club program to the rail to work in the Amateur Owned and Trained Western Trail Pleasure Walking Horses, No Professional Training within 90 days. Judge Jennifer Bingham called the gaits in this second class of the morning performance. Casting the winning spell over the large, talented class was The Karma Fairy and owner/exhibitor Liz Gassaway of Shelbyville, Tenn. Wicked Imagination and Jana Anderson pulled into the second position for Dr. Jana Anderson of Shelbyville, Tenn. Just Doin' My Time and Maggie Moore collected the yellow streamers for Jim Leek and Maggie Moore of Albany, Ga. and Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Staying in the western frame of mind, class 36 featured the Owner-Amateur Riders on Western Lite-Shod Walking Horses with 11 of the 12 expected beating the clock to work for Judge Chris Bobo and his cohorts. Riding to the top of the class was the team of Catastrophic and Mackenzie Morgan riding for Laurie Toone of Shelbyville, Tenn. This win marked Catastrophic's seventh win of the 2012 season. Lil Wayne and Carlan Cotton were reserve in the class for Jeff Gillespie of Tazewell, Va. Gigi's Jamaican Generator and Nick Rippey rounded out the top three for Leigh Stuart of Alvaton, Ky.

Owner-Amateur Riders on Park Pleasure Walking Horses, Two and Three-Years-Old was up next on the morning program, class 37, with 11 of the 14 with reservations making the gate call to work for their chance at 2012 Celebration acclaim as Judge Nathan Clark served as Call Judge for the class. It's not only been a lucky day, but a lucky 2012 Celebration for the young horse, Lucky Daze. The youngster had already picked up two Celebration wins with trainer Patrick Thomas, and was back in the winner's circle this morning with a very happy Lisa Kessel in the saddle for Kevin and Lisa Kessel of Moorefield, W.V. A Little Mo Jazz and Laura Brandon were second in the class for Wallace and Laura Brandon of Franklin, Tenn. I Can't Imagine and Mason Gassaway were third for Carol Hargett and Mason Gassaway of Shelbyville, Tenn.

Owner-Amateur Riders on Western Country Pleasure Walking Horses, class 38A, brought 11 of the 16 programmed entries to the rail to work for Judge Carol Smithson and her staff. Busting out of the line-up and taking the World Championship honors back to West Tennessee with a unanimous decision of the panel was the team of Bustline and Vicki Benjamin up for Fred and Vicki Benjamin and Mackenzie Morgan of Humboldt and Shelbyville, Tenn. This was the team's fifth win of the 2012 season. Mikimoto Pearl and a very happy Cindy Adams pulled in to accept the red streamers for Adams and Howard of Readyville, Tenn. Another West Tennessee entry, I'm Rose Walker and owner/exhibitor Lauren Hamilton of Cedar Grove, Tenn., rounded out the top three in the class.

Class 38B, Owner-Amateur Riders on Western Country Pleasure Walking Horses featured 15 of the 16 expected making the gate call to work for Judge Connie Waldo and her cohorts. Shooting their way to the winner's circle was Cowboy On Parole and Wilsene Moody-Kwok up for Dr. Jack and Wilsene Moody-Kwok of Delaware, Ohio and Shelbyville, Tenn. This win was preceded with 2012 wins at Athens, Ala., Arab, Ala., and Fayetteville, Tenn.'s Blue Ribbon Horse Show. The Ghost Walker and Miles Irby were a popular reserve riding for Brown, Irby and Gerber of Shelbyville and Lewisburg, Tenn. Designer Champagne and Maggie Moore were third for Jim Leek and Maggie Moore of Albany, Ga. and Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Class 39 brought a little variety to the schedule as it featured the Owner-Amateur Youth Riders 6-11 Years on Show Pleasure Walking Mares or Geldings with five of the six expected making the call to work for Judge Joel Weaver and his panel. Taking command of the division and capturing the win was Combat Commander and Dylan Young up for Sabrina Young of Mt Sterling, Ky. This team was reserve in this division in 2011 and scored a 2012 win at Olive Hill, Ky., and good reserves at Maysville, Ky. and Morehead, Ky. Another Kentucky entry, In A Danger Zone and Svanah Martin were reserve for Kelly Martin of Hopkinsville, Ky. A Classic Horse, meaning one 15 years or older, The Summit and McKenna Dempsey were third for Charles and Joy Gleghorn of Fayetteville, Tenn.

Back in the Trail Pleasure division, class 40 featured the Owner-Amateur Riders on Four-Year-Old Trail Pleasure Walking Horses, Optional Tack with 14 entries working to the track to show their very best for Judge Jennifer Bingham and her staff. Topping the class was the duo of Bedazzled By Jazz and owner/exhibitor Lisa Baum of Shelbyville, Tenn. They had been 2012 winner's at the Gulf Coast Charity Celebration, the Walking For Cancer Horse Show and the International Grand Championships. Jose's Firecracker and Wayne Westbrook pulled into the reserve position for Bob and Wayne Westbrook of Shelbyville, Tenn. I'm Manhattan and Tamara Hader collected the yellow streamers to take home to Bainbridge, Ga.

Class 41 brought the Youth Weanlings, handlers 6-17 Years with 12 entries making the call to work under the watchful eye of Judge Jennifer Bingham and her cohorts. Organist Brian Perry played "You Must Have Been A Beautiful Baby" as the entries made their way to the ring and began work and announcer Mark Farrar, Jr., noted correctly that every mama thinks their baby's beautiful, but it's the judges job today to pick out which one's the MOST beautiful! The most beautiful today was Adorable Diamond and Molly Vaughn at the lead for Keith and Lorraine Rosbury of Bell Buckle, Tenn. I'm The King Of The Ring and Abby Bradley were reserve in the class for the George Wright Family of Mt Juliet, Tenn. I'm Eyeing To Win and Jaron Dotson were third for Dotson Brothers of Thompson Station, Tenn.

Owner-Amateur Youth Riders 12-17 Years on English Trail Pleasure Walking Horses, class 42, was featured next on the program with 11 of the 12 with reservations making the call as Judge Chris Bobo called the gaits. Walking to the winner's circle with a unanimous decision of the panel was Suiza and owner/exhibitor Allison Thorson of Huron, Ohio. This marked this team's 11th win of the 2012 season. Confederate Jazz and Kailin Kesselring were reserve for The Kesselring Family of Montverde, Fla. Gi Gi's Lunch Money and Logan Hankins were third for Jennifer Hankins and Linda Vaughn of Paris, Ky. and Valley City, Ohio.

Class 43 brought the Owner-Amateur Riders 50 Years & Over on Lite-Shod Walking Horses up to Calsonic Arena. Six of the 11 expected responded to the call and came to show for the 2012 Celebration panel, led in the class by Judge Nathan Clark. Capturing the title in the class was A Mountain Jazz and Jerry Laughlin riding for Joe Laughlin of Waynesville, Mo. Grandee Ann and owner/exhibitor Mike Henson of Mayfield, Ky., pulled into the second position. Armed Scarlett Lady and Evelyn Durant rounded out the top three for James and Evelyn Durant of Cornersville, Tenn.

In the halter division, class 44 highlighted the Youth Yearling Fillies or Geldings, Handlers 6-17 Years. Seven of the eight on the official Lions Club program walked their way to the track to show off their moves and looks for Judge Chris Bobo and his panel. Walking to the winner's circle was I'm A Farmers Daughter and Molly Vaughn at the lead for Bobby Jones and Gary and Karen Doss of Manchester, Tenn., and Minford, Ohio. Forgiveness and Briana Mosley were reserve in the class for Bobby Jones and Gary and Karen Doss of Manchester, Tenn. and Minford, Ohio. I'm Star Gazing and Bradley Richards were third for Rhonda Martocci and Bradley Richards of Franklin & Arrington, Tenn.

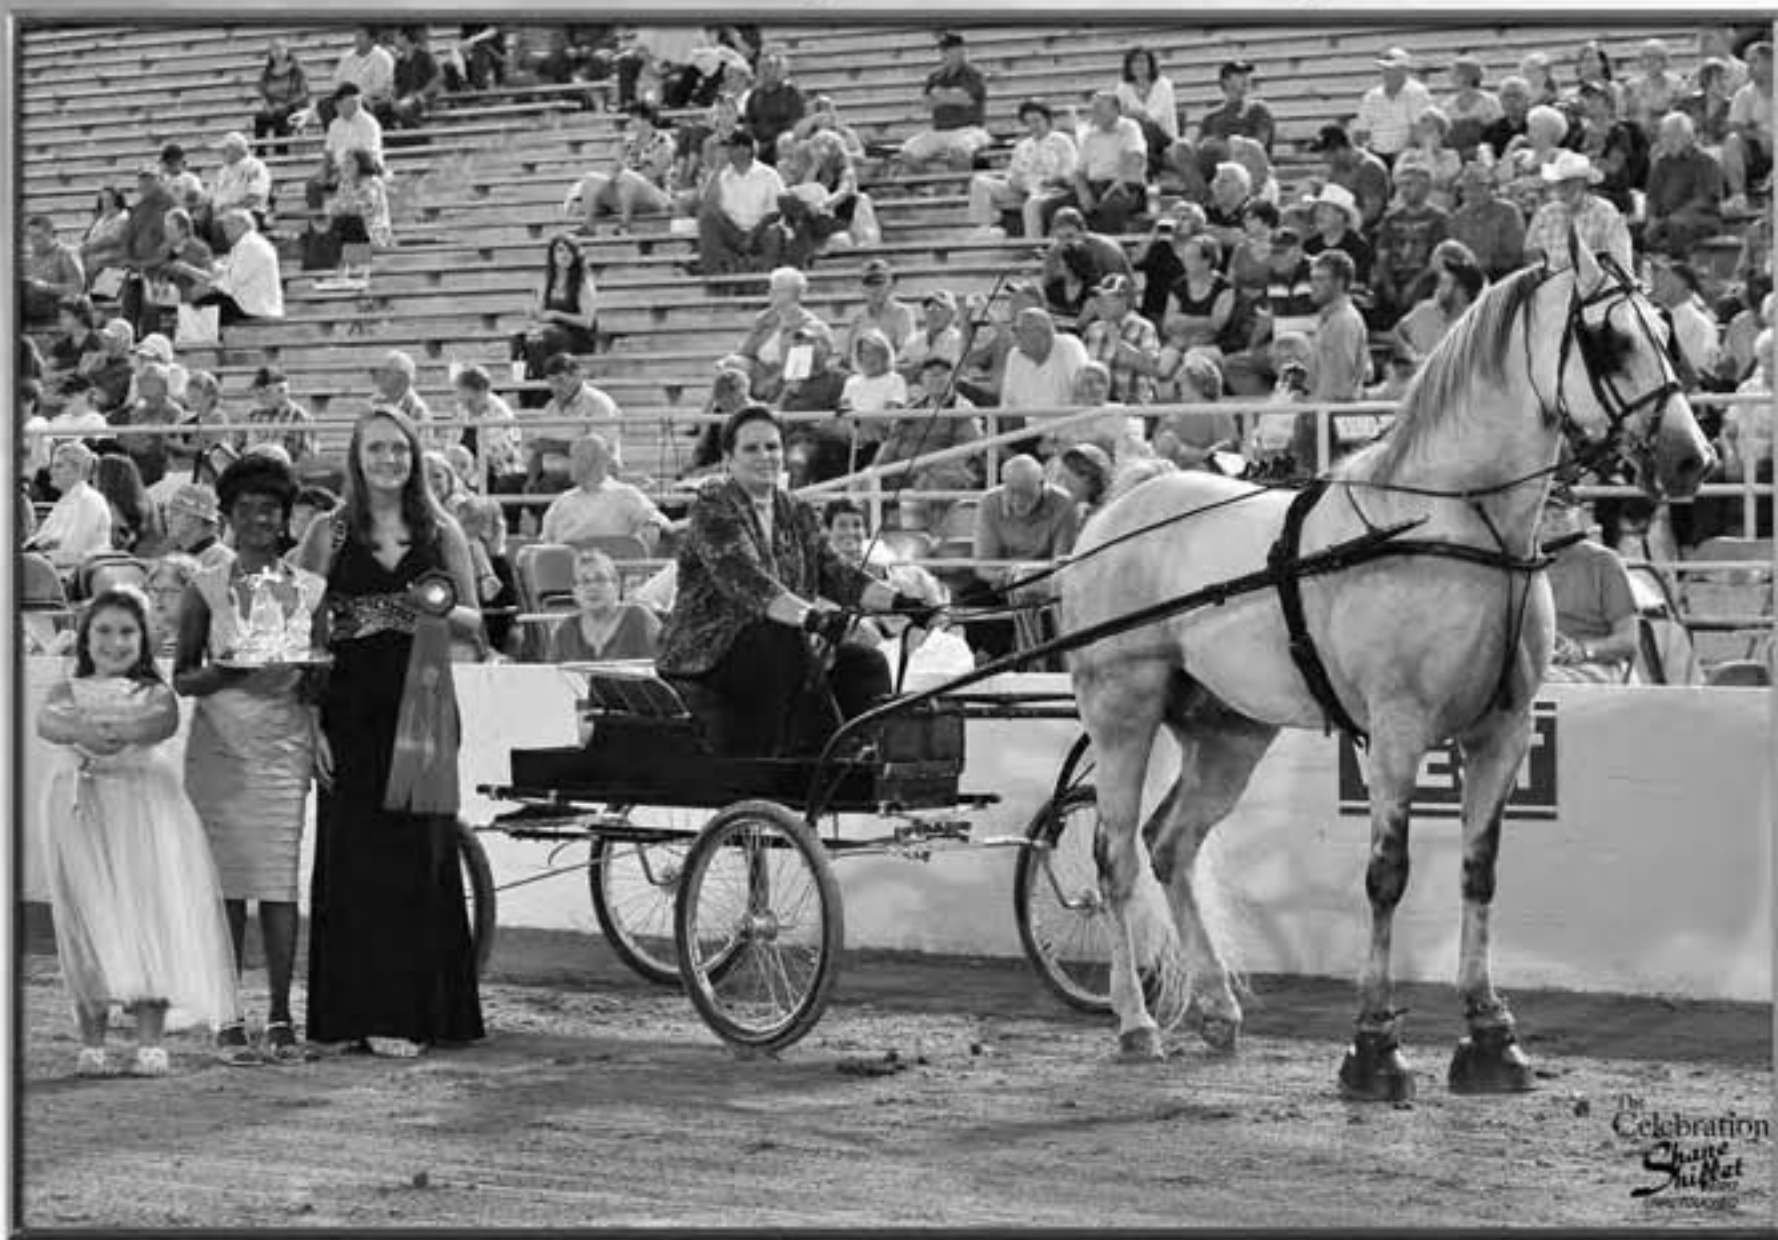

Both of the final two classes featured the young riders with class 45 bringing the Owner-Amateur Youth Riders 6-17 Years, on Trail Pleasure Walking Horses, Two and Three Years Old, Optional Tack. All 11 of the registered teams beat the clock to work in the class as Judge Carol Smithson called the gaits for the class. Juan Carlos and Lily Catherine Holland made the good ride to capture top honors in the division for Lisa Weaver and Lily Holland of Doyline, La. and Decatur, Ala. Gi Gi's Lunch Money and Claire Hankins were reserve riding for Jennifer Hankins and Linda Vaughn of Paris, Ky. and Valley City, Ohio. Out There And Lovin It and Mackenzie Morgan collected the yellow streamers for Amanda Odom and Mackenzie Morgan of Rincon, Ga. and Shelbyville, Tenn.

The final class of the Friday Morning performance was class 46, Owner-Amateur Youth Riders 6-17 Years on Park Performance Walking Horses with seven of the eight expected taking the rail to show off for Judge Nathan Clark and his panel. Making the winning performance in the class was the team of Dos Equis and Allison Thorson up for ThorSport, Inc., of Sandusky, Ohio. Avenger's Lady Threat and Lane Webb were reserve in the class for John Cabe and Lane Webb of Cornersville and Lewisburg, Tenn. Undecided and Kailin Kesselring were third for Christmas Creek Farm, LLC of Montverde, Fla.

The Scoop For The Walking Horse Industry

IMPORTANT UPCOMING DATES ON THE TWHBEA CALENDAR

Lewisburg, TN - As we approach the last four months of 2012, the Tennessee Walking Horse Breeders' And Exhibitors' Association (TWHBEA) has several important dates of which Tennessee Walking Horse breeders and owners should be aware. These dates are:

September 30

- Deadline for nomination of all current year weanlings to the National Futurity.

October 1

- All stallion reports must be postmarked by this date.
- New foal crop registration begins.

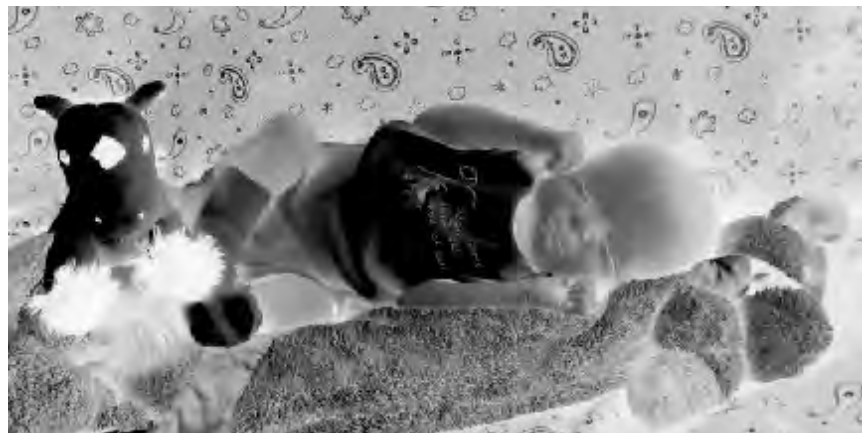

October 15

- Deadline for annual election ballots to be returned.

December 31

- Expiration date for outstanding blood typing kits and blood type to DNA conversion kits.
- Last day to take advantage of special TWHBEA negotiated rates for converting parentage verification from blood type to DNA.

LUCAS RAY REYNOLDS BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Susan and Allen Reynolds of Olive Hill, KY announce the arrival of their son, Lucas Ray Reynolds. He was born on August 27, 2012, at 7:58 a.m. He weighed 5 lbs. and 10 oz. and was 20 inches long. Lucas Ray has two very proud older brothers, Landon who is five, and Logan who is three. The proud grandparents are Kenneth and Janice Day and Charles and Ethel Reynolds of Olive Hill, KY.

THE CELEBRATION AND TENNESSEE WALKING HORSE COMMUNITY MAKE SIGNIFICANT CONTRIBUTION TO MIDDLE TENNESSEE CHARITIES

11 days of food and fun at The Celebration funds 365 days of community service

SHELBYVILLE, TN – Yesterday's announcement of better than anticipated attendance at the 74th annual Celebration is a positive sign that local civic groups will meet their annual fundraising goals. 17 local civic clubs raise money for charity at the annual Celebration and for more than half of the participating organizations; Celebration is their only or largest fundraiser of the year. More than 3.5 million dollars has been raised over the past 15 years for charity at the Celebration. Last year alone, these clubs grossed nearly $400,000 and netted more than $240,000. The overall economic impact on Middle Tennessee by the Celebration event is nearly $40 million and the Celebration facilities generate another $13 million annually through events throughout the year.

"The Celebration is honored to give back to our community by providing an opportunity for local civic organizations to make a difference in our community. The participating civic clubs are able to help a tremendous number of people due to their hard work at The Celebration and we are delighted to be a partner in their good works," said Dr. Doyle Meadows, CEO of the Celebration.

The Celebration has a proud tradition of giving revenues generated through concession sales, program sales, souvenir sales and other services such as parking cars back to the community. The 17 participating civic organizations from Bedford County run the concessions, souvenir booths and program sales at the 11 day premier Tennessee Walking Horse event. The revenue generated by these groups fund their charitable programs for the entire year.

"We rely on proceeds from the Celebration for all of our charity work and to maintain our VFW home on Depot Street. Local veterans are very important to our community and our country and without the Celebration we could not support our veterans," said David Baker, Quartermaster of VFW Post 5019.

Some of the area civic clubs participating at the 74th Annual Celebration include: American Legion Post 23, Civitan Club of Shelbyville, Community Lions Club, Disabled American Veterans (DAV), East Bedford Civic Club, Kiwanis Club of Shelbyville, Optimist Club, Shelbyville Central High School Quarterback Club, Shelbyville Breakfast Rotary, Shelbyville Central High School Band Boosters, Shelbyville Jaycees, Shelbyville Lions Club, Shelbyville Noon Rotary Club and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Without the Celebration, many of the community projects funded by local civic organizations would fold. The revenue generated among the 17 civic organizations ranges from $6,000 to $35,000 each. Nearly 100% of the net proceeds are returned to Shelbyville/Bedford County community in the service of Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Boys State, Girls State, Big Brothers & Big Sisters, Special Olympics, Great Strides, special needs children and adults, veterans, ball teams of all ages, and scholarships. Kiwanis alone gives nine scholarships to worth high school seniors. Selling nearly a 120,000 tickets to fans from more than 40 states each year, The Celebration® has an economic impact on Middle Tennessee's economy, comparable to a NASCAR race and bigger than the Music City Bowl and the Country Music Marathon.

The Scoop For The Walking Horse Industry

TWSHO ANNOUNCES FIFTH ROUND OF SWABBING RESULTS FROM THE 74TH ANNUAL CELEBRATION

Shelbyville, TN – Today the Tennessee Walking Show Horse Organization (TWSHO) has learned from the Walking Horse Trainer's Association (WHTA) the results of The Celebration's fifth round of expedited swabbing results.

According to Don Gandy, Commissioner for the WHTA Enforcement LLC, one swab from Wednesday, August 29 failed the WHTA swabbing initiative. As a result, the WHTA has suspended trainer Brad Davis' license for two weeks and The Celebration will remove Davis' ribbon, prize money and trophy as well as retie the class. Additionally, Davis will not be allowed to present a horse for inspection or participate as a rider in the remainder of The Celebration.

Last week, The Celebration announced it would be implementing historic reforms by enhancing the science based testing recently implemented by the Walking Horse Trainers' Association (WHTA's) Enforcement Initiative and strengthening the stringent testing methods currently employed at the event.

The WHTA Enforcement Initiative swabbing program is an objective, science-based inspection initiative to swab the pasterns of horses in competition in order to detect substances that harm the horse or mask substances that could have harmed the horse. Celebration is taking the initiative one step further by swabbing every horse participating in the Celebration and funding a program that expedites swabs so that the results will be available during the event – this is a first in the history of the Industry. The swabbing results will then be made public and those found in violation will be punished in accordance with the Trainers' Initiative. This is also the first time that classes will be retied accordingly removing ribbons, trophies and prize monies. A trainer found in violation will have their license suspended in line with WHTA initiative protocol and the horse will be disqualified.

TWSHO ANNOUNCES SIXTH ROUND OF SWABBING RESULTS FROM THE 74TH ANNUAL CELEBRATION

Shelbyville, TN – Today the Tennessee Walking Show Horse Organization (TWSHO) has learned from the Walking Horse Trainer's Association (WHTA) the results of The Celebration's sixth round of expedited swabbing results.

According to Don Gandy, Commissioner for the WHTA Enforcement LLC, there were no violations to report from Thursday's swabs.

CELEBRATION STATEMENT ON RESCHEDULING OF JACKIE MCCONNELL SENTENCING HEARING

SHELBYVILLE, TN - Dr. Doyle Meadows, CEO of the Celebration, issued the following statement regarding the date change in the sentencing of Jackie McConnell:

"We are disgusted and outraged over the horrific acts of Jackie McConnell. In response, we took the strongest action available to us by issuing a life time ban that prohibits him from entering our grounds for any and all events. Additionally we stripped him of his status in our hall of fame. As far as we are concerned the only place Jackie McConnell belongs is in a jail cell and it is unfortunate that he is not being prosecuted under the new horse cruelty law."

The Scoop For The Walking Horse Industry

HUMANE SOCIETY OF UNITED STATES ON DEFENSIVE

Humane Society Releases Inflammatory and False Video of Known Felon to Distract from Criticism that They Allowed Horse Abuse for Eleven Straight Months

Shelbyville, TN - The Humane Society of the United States was on the defensive today over a Chattanooga Times Free Press article that ran in today's newspaper detailing the fact that they allowed horse abuse to continue for 11 months in order to fuel their fundraising and public relations machines. Their response was to release a video testimonial from a convicted felon and horse abuser who was turned into authorities by SHOW HIO and banned from the Celebration for eternity. The fact is that the Celebration, SHOW HIO and TWSHO are committed to reform and have implemented the strictest standards and penalties in the business.

CELEBRATION ATTENDANCE UP DESPITE ECONOMIC DOWNTURN

Shelbyville, TN – The Celebration today announced that attendance at the midpoint of the 11-day event is higher than in 2010 despite the economic downturn. During the first six days of 2010, 57,203 people attended and this year, 61,205 have attended. There are also several nights this year that have surpassed attendance in 2011, including the paid attendance for the two premier weekend nights that are up almost 7%. Celebration officials predict overall event attendance rate will be comparable to last year and surpass 2010.

“We are delighted with the excitement surrounding the 74th annual Celebration. The event raises money for several local charities and we couldn't be more pleased with the numbers we are seeing,” said Doyle Meadows, Celebration CEO. “We are thankful to all those who have attended and will do so in the coming nights as this event is a significant contributor to the Middle Tennessee economy.”

The Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration is the world's largest and most prestigious event celebrating the Tennessee Walking Horse. For over 70 years, the Celebration has crowned world champions and left an indelible mark on the community that is both economic and civic. In addition to the $38 million impact on Middle Tennessee's economy, the Celebration raises over $200,000 for local charities. The Celebration's highest priority is placed on the safety of the horses and the Celebration is proud to lead the way in safety reforms by imposing the most stringent inspection measures and strictest penalties of any Tennessee Walking Horse event.

WALK TIME CHARLIE GOES TO THE FAIR!

Walk Time Charlie, the 2012 Tennessee Walking Horse World Grand Champion, and Chad Baucom will be present for an exhibition and time with fans at the upcoming Tennessee State Fair at the fairgrounds in Nashville, Tenn. This will be the first public appearance for Baucom and Walk Time Charlie since being crowned the 74th Annual Celebration champions over Labor Day weekend. Walk Time Charlie will be available for fans to see and visit on Wednesday September 12, 2012 from 6:00PM-

8:00PM with an exhibition to follow in the equestrian center on the fairgrounds. The Tennessee State Fair runs from Friday September 7 through Sunday September 16, 2012.

Walk Time Charlie and Baucom are excited to make the trip from North Carolina to allow fans and visitors of the State Fair to be up close and personal with the newly crowned champion. For more information about the Tennessee State Fair visit www.tnstatefair.org.

WE MOURN WIRT HARLIN

William Wirt Harlin, III of Franklin, TN passed away on September 8, 2012. Harlin attended Battle Ground Academy and received his BS degree from Samford University. He was a long-time member of the National Guard and worked in the financial industry.

Harlin was preceded in death by his mother, Barbara Nunally Harlin. He is survived by his wife, Tracey T. Harlin; sons, Bill (Kelly) Harlin, IV and Tom (Laura) Harlin; father, Bill Harlin; brother, Clay (Faye) Harlin; sister, Camille Harlin; grandchildren, Tucker, Luke, and Emily Harlin. LEGACY REUNION AT THE 2012 SOUTHERN CHAMPIONSHIP CHARITY HORSE SHOW

During the Southern Championship Charity Horse Show, we will be holding a reception to honor the many people within the Tennessee Walking Horse industry who have been associated with and supported GWHEA over the years. This includes trainers, owners, vendors and other supporters who have had ties with the TWH industry in Georgia in the past. We would especially like to include the families of those who are no longer with us, in order to honor their memories.

We will publish a souvenir commemorative brochure for this event and would like to include information about each honoree, consisting of information about their career in the industry, personal information about them and a photo. Please let us know if you -- or someone you know -- would like to participate in this reunion, and send us the information that you would like to have included in the brochure. Anyone who has ever been associated with the TWH industry in Georgia in any way -- no matter how small -- and their families are encouraged to participate! Please bring old photos and other memorabilia that we can display during the reception. To submit information for the brochure, including a photo, please email cfrankum@windstream.net

A reception will be held from 4:00pm —6:00 pm Saturday afternoon to honor these long-time supporters of the industry and their families. The reception will be held at a banquet room in the Georgia International Horse Park, and will include a cash bar and hors d'oeuvres. Everyone is invited to attend and take a walk down memory lane with these legends of the industry! For more information, contact Danny Rylee at 770-677-1570 or 770-654-6707.

Stable Decorating Winners

2012 TWHNC

The Shelbyville/Bedford County Chamber of Commerce in conjunction with the Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration asks you to join in the excitement and pride they feel each year when they announce the stable award winners.

The stables entered in the competition were judged on elegance, taste, beauty, equine décor, neatness, work efficiency and pleasant and inviting appearance with a friendly atmosphere. Stables are entered in three divisions.

This contest is as much a Celebration tradition as the doughnuts and the hat giveaways. The awards for contest winners honor the hard work that goes into the beautiful Celebration backdrop. Prior to August, the Celebration show grounds look like a ghost town in and around the stables; but when August rolls around, much preparation and hard work goes into designing the stable décor, which are good enough to be movie sets. Several farms made stalls into temporary tack rooms or hospitality rooms. Some were even equipped with restrooms and air conditioning. The barn porches are the place to be during the big event, with each barn given the option to hook up to cable and enjoy the show on their personal TV while socializing and rocking on their patio. Tenants are also able to rent the big marquis signs that rise high above the stables and can be seen from a distance. These signs rotate and are lighted at night to promote champion contenders.

People came from all over to this year's main event from Germany, California, Florida, Mississippi, North and South Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, Georgia, Alabama, Missouri, Arkansas, Oregon, Ohio and Texas, to support their home turf and promote their businesses and horses in the stable area.

The sponsors are proud to announce this year's Stable Decorating Contest winners as follows:

Division A (Horses stabled on the Celebration grounds):

1st – Laurie Coats Stables

Division B (Horses not stabled on the Celebration grounds, one to six)

1st – Milly Player – Tintern Abbey Farms

Division C – (Horses not stabled on the Celebration grounds, six or more)

1st – Leigh Stuart Stables

2nd – Justin Jenne Stables

3rd – Bruce Hankins Stables

Division C Winner – Leigh Stuart Stables

Division B Winner – Milly Player/Tintern Abbey Farms

Division C 3rd place – Bruce Hankins Stables

Division C 2nd place – Justin Jenne Stables

MEET THE JUDGES

Nathan Clark

Nathan Clark has been looking forward to the challenge of judging the greatest horse show in the world his entire life. This year Nathan will be making his third appearance, having judged in both 2008 and 2010. At the age of 35, this will be his 36th consecutive Celebration that he has attended, so it's safe to say The Celebration® has been an important part of Nathan's life.

Nathan has been involved in the industry since birth and has experienced it from the perspective of a trainer and a judge. Clark's judging resume includes the Celebration Spring Fun Show, Delta Fall Classic, Wartrace, Fayetteville, Germantown Charity, Mississippi State Charity, Columbia Spring Jubilee, Woodbury, Pulaski, Southern Championship, Ohio Celebration, and Big D Charity. Nathan becomes the second generation of his family to judge at The Celebration®. His father, Steve, was on the panel in 1998. Clark says, "Judging The Celebration® is the greatest of all achievements for myself in the horse business." Nathan is married to his wife of ten years, Anna, and they have two boys, Frank and John Winston.

Joel Weaver

After judging the Celebration Spring Fun Show in both 2004 and 2012, Joel Weaver is now making his debut as a judge at the Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration®. Joel resides in Shelbyville, TN, with his wife Kristy Butler Weaver. He has three children, Stratton, Lake, and Ireland. Joel has been involved with the Tennessee Walking Horse for many years, and he has passed his love for our great breed on to his children. Apart from his judging appearances at the Celebration Spring Fun Show, Joel has also judged shows such as the Red Carpet Show of the South, Alabama Jubilee, Gulf Coast Charity, and multiple one-night shows.

Chris Bobo

The grandson of the late C.A. Bobo and son of Bill Bobo, both Tennessee Walking Horse World Grand Champion® trainers and riders, Chris Bobo is a third generation Tennessee Walking Horse enthusiast. He currently resides in Shelbyville, TN, and graduated in 1996 from Freed Hardeman University. Although this will be Chris's first appearance on the Celebration judging panel, he is no stranger to the judge's card. Chris judged the Great Celebration Mule and Donkey Show in 2012. He has also judged the Mississippi Charity, Gulf Coast Charity, West Coast Trainers, International Pleasure and Colt Grand Championship, Big D, Marshal County Horseman's, and multiple one-night shows. Chris is married to Katybeth Beasley Bobo, and they have two sons, Elijah and Benjamin.

Carol Smithson

A Clarksville, TN, native, Carol Smithson will be making her debut at this year's Celebration on the Pleasure Judging panel. Although this is her first time judging at The Celebration®, she is no stranger to the big oval. Carol began showing Tennessee Walking Horses at the young age of five. Having owned and trained multiple World Champions and International Champions, Carol has experienced great success in the Tennessee Walking Horse industry. She has also trained two TWHBEA Supreme Versatility Champions and WHOA Register of Merit Champions. Carol currently holds the title of Chairperson of the SHOW Judges' Committee and is a current SHOW DQP.

MEET THE JUDGES

Jennifer Bingham

Jennifer Bingham was born and raised in Burlington, KY. She moved to Middle Tennessee in 1994 to attend college at Middle Tennessee State University where she majored in Finance with an emphasis in insurance, and so she could be closer to the heart of the Tennessee Walking Horse. She currently resides in Shelbyville.

Jennifer's first trip to the Celebration was in 1988, where she placed reserve in the Walking Pony class. In 1992, Jennifer earned her first World Championship in Equitation, and in 2000, she claimed the Owner-Amateur Novice Lady Riders on Novice Mares & Geldings World Championship with Something Extra Special.

Jennifer is no stranger to the center ring at The Celebration®. This year will mark her fourth consecutive year to judge this world class event. Other notable shows around the country that Jennifer has judged include the Celebration Spring Fun Show, Gulf Coast Charity Horse Show, SSHBEA World Championship Show, Land O Sky, East TN Classic, Germantown Charity Show, and multiple one night shows.

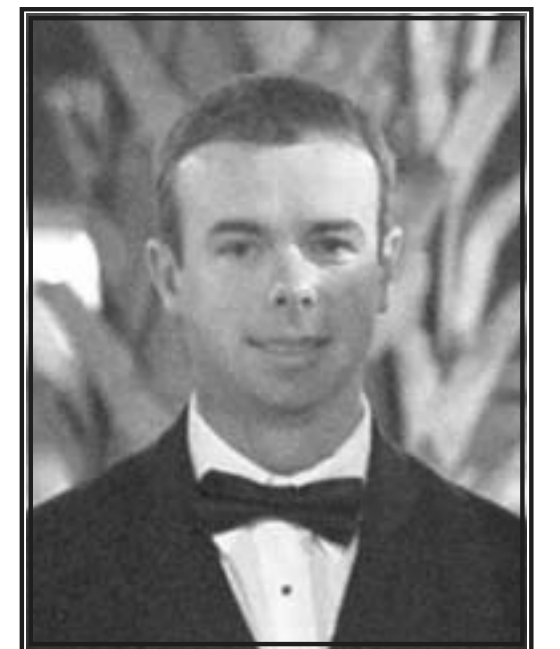

Connie Waldo

Originally from Montana, Connie Waldo moved to Middle Tennessee following her retirement from Montana State University where she worked in Information Technology - Computer Operations and the Student I.D. department. She made the move to Tennessee to pursue a more competitive show ring career. Connie grew up with horses and participated in 4-H as a child. She is noted as an accomplished pleasure horse rider and judge. Her first TWHNC Ribbon was in 1995 on a two year old performance filly that she trained herself from her home in Montana. Her most memorable Celebration memories are of her four World Grand Championships® on a horse she trained named Drop The Hammer. Connie is an AAAA Master Judge with S.H.O.W. She serves on the S.H.O.W. Judges panel and The Celebration® Advisory Board. She is a Certified Riding Instructor and has traveled around the United States and Canada presenting clinics to Walking Horse Enthusiasts. Her 25 year judging career spans a wide variety of shows including multiple gaited breed shows. As a S.H.O.W. Judge, she has judged many multiple day and one-night shows and the 2010 International.

Brent Grider

Born and raised in Columbia, KY, Brent Grider has been involved in the walking horse industry his entire life. He is the son of Ronnie Grider, the grandson of the late O.E. Grider and the nephew of Tommy Grider and Donnie Grider, all of which are long time Walking Horse enthusiasts. Brent is married to his wife of seven years, Courtney, and they have a daughter, Harper who is six. Brent operates Grider Stables located in Columbia, home of numerous World Champions. Brent won his first World Championship in 2006 aboard Witch Revival and won two World Championship titles at last year's show with Generating The Command and Major Sky Command. While this is Brent's first time in the big oval, he has been a licensed judge since 2002. He judged the Gulf Coast Charity Celebration Horse Show, managed by The Celebration® this year. Other notable shows that he has judged include Columbia Spring Jubilee, Alabama Jubilee, Kentucky Celebration, Kentucky Ladies Auxiliary and multiple shows in Tennessee, Missouri, Arkansas and Iowa. When asked how he felt about being chosen as one of the judges for this year's show, Brent said, "I am very honored and excited to be selected as one of this year's judges and look forward to a great 2012 Celebration."

Celebration Dog Show

The Celebration Dog Show was held August 26, 2012, at 12:30. The show was held in the Calsonic Arena and, even though it was hot, it didn't keep the exhibitors and their four-legged friends away. The entry booth opened at 12:00 noon and the 14 class show was underway. The show had so many entries that the majority of the classes were split. The dog show is sponsored each year by the Walking Horse Ladies Auxiliary. The show managers were Alie Napier and Marguerite Sims. Auxiliary member volunteers pitched in to make the show a huge success again this year! Lauren Hawks-Abernathy had the hard job of marking the cards and judging the dog show.

Mr. Whiskers and Patrick Thomas for proud owners, Jim and Debbie Nichols from New Market, TN, were the Stake- Best of Show Champions. This dynamic duo placed reserve in the Gentleman And Their Dogs class and came back in the big stake to walk away with a championship title. Uggs Way and Jayden Jackson made a great performance to claim the blue in the Youth Stake class. This duo claimed two reserve titles prior to their championship title. Lauren Hamilton and Hank presented an exhibition to show off their 2011 World Grand Championship walk to the crowd.
