Manchester Lions Club Horse Show

MANCHESTER, TN-The Manchester Lions Club hosted their 55th annual show at the Coffee County Fairgrounds in Manchester, TN. The judge of this event was the Honorable Sam Sorrell of Lexington, KY. Working side by side with the judge was Sylvester Skierkowski, the ringmaster, from Murfreesboro, TN. The show was affiliated with SHOW HIO. John F. Brantley, IV was the official organist who did an outstanding job playing some of the usual horse show songs, but added some songs not often played at horse shows. He certainly kept everyone's attention.

The show started at 6:00 pm and the overcast weather made for a cool evening! About half way through the evening it started sprinkling and then stopped. Even though there were only 99 entries, the Lions Club had a good show. This show is known for their barbeque chicken and it was the hit of the evening. The show had 26 classes with a very special stick horse class added for the kids.

There were two memorable highlights of the evening. The first was when the Manchester Lions Club members recognized Nellie Brantley for her 55 years of service and made her an honorary member. Her husband, Charles Brantley, has been a regular member for 60 plus years. The second memorable highlight was when I'm Mayhem and Sue Ann Dowell exhibited for the crowd. This team was honored for their recent achievement of becoming the O/A Two Year Old Stallions A Div. World Champion at the 2012 World Celebration.

The Walking Horse Stake class was won by Score Card and Jeff Green for owner, Samantha Green. Some of the other interesting classes of the evening were the Two Year Old Amateur class with Jason Myatt at the reins winning the blue ribbon aboard I'm A Title One. The Youth 12-17 Specialty class with Mistress Of Jazz and rider, Annalisa Cooper, who did an outstanding job to claim the blue ribbon. Knock Em Ted and Bobby Hugh won the Riders' Cup Three Year Old Stallions class for new owners, Dr. Bill and Jannie Chapman. This show was extremely successful and The SCOOP invites all of its readers to visit The SCOOP's FREE website at www.thescooponline.com for complete results and industry news.

Score Card and Jeff Green received the blue ribbon in the Walking Horse Championship Riders' Cup class for owner, Samantha Green. Other family members joined in to celebrate.

SOUTHERN CHAMPIONSHIP WELCOMED GEORGIA COMMISSIONER OF AGRICULTURE

Conyers, GA – Opening the 55th Annual Southern Championship Charity Horse Show singing The National Anthem was the Georgia Commissioner of Agriculture, Gary Black, who is a proud supporter of the Southern Championship show and the industry. The show was held at the Georgia International Horse Park in Conyers, Georgia. The proceeds from this show benefit the following charities: First United Methodist Church Youth, Horses for Heroes, Lions Club Light House for the Blind Baseball Program, Perry Volunteer Outreach, East Hall Dugout Baseball, Shriners' Hospitals for Children, Exchange Club of Phenix City, Alabama, and the Edison Lions Club.

Dr. Tom Morgan gave the invocation both nights and Col. Paul Walker and Allen's Spotted Threat presented the stars and stripes of our nation's flag, Old Glory. Judging the two-night event was the Honorable Jamie Hankins from Paris, Kentucky. Harris Blackwood did a great job as announcer and Connie Dunlap entertained with her organ. Taking the action shots and presentation awards pictures was Debbie Bush. Ringmasters Jimmy Brown, Joel Brookshire, and Don Bridges did an excellent lining up the horses.

Carole Frankum Rylee's beautiful voice filled the arena Saturday night as she sang our National Anthem. Another highlight of the Saturday night performance was the presentation of Multi World Champion and World Grand Champion A Victoria Secret and Macie McSwain. They made a spectacular exhibition to the delight of the crowd. Also, on Saturday night was the GWHEA Legacy Reunion. Pictures of those who have been a part of the Georgia Walking Horse Exhibitors' Association since its inception were on exhibit for all to enjoy and to take a trip down memory lane. There was an impressive list of 128 names of trainers who have worked in Georgia at some time in their careers. It was a pleasure to swap stories and reminisce about the horses and the people of Georgia and the proud legacy they have left for all of us.

The Jimmy Kimbro Memorial Trophy was awarded to the winner of the Amateur Specialty Championship. This trophy was donated by GWHEA and presented by Denise Coleman, Danny Rylee, and Billy Gray. The Adult & Youth Pony Champion winner was the recipient of the Betty Landrum Memorial Trophy donated by GWHEA and presented by Denise Coleman, Danny Rylee, Bill Landrum, and Kay Landrum Norris. The Stake class winner received the Black Vengeance Perpetual Trophy donated by Mariella Fugger and the James Meadows Memorial Trophy donated and presented by Martha Branson.

The grand finale of the show was the Walking Horse Championship. Showing in his hometown for the first time and taking all the acclaim was World Grand Champion, Honors. He was ridden by Larry Edwards for the Dan, Keith, and Kelly McSwain Families of Atlanta, Georgia. Reserve went to Lampshade and Bill Cantrell for Warr and Majors.

The SCOOP was proud to be on hand at the Southern Championship Horse Show to congratulate the winners and to enjoy all of the festivities and good fellowship. Please visit our FREE website at www.thescooponline.com for all results, candid pictures, and news.

The Scoop For The Walking Horse Industry

TWHBEA NUMBERS UPTREND

Lewisburg, TN - The Tennessee Walking Horse Breeders' And Exhibitors' Association (TWHBEA) recently compared registry statistics from the period September 21, 2011 through September 20, 2012 to those from the same period during the previous year. While, due primarily to the state of the economy and industry issues, total registrations and transfers are down, there is reason for optimism. Both the number of stallion reports submitted and the number of different mares listed on those reports are up. The number of stallion reports increased by 19% and the number of mares bred was up by 21%. These two uptrends, coupled with only a minor decrease in new foal registrations, indicate that the business of breeding Tennessee Walking Horses remains promising. "We are encouraged by the increase in stallion reports turned in and the increase in number of mares bred shown on those stallion reports," states TWHBEA President Marty Irby. As the breeders form the foundation of our industry, these statistics bode extremely well for each and every segment of the Tennessee Walking Horse world.

WALKING HORSES NEEDED FOR NASHVILLE/METRO MOUNTED PATROL UNIT

Our S.O.P. states that we only use Tennessee Walking horses and some of our restrictions are that the horse be between 4 and 8 years of age when we obtain them and be between 15.2 - 17 hands tall. We don't have a color restriction but we do know that the lighter color horses are harder to keep clean and are harder hit by flies and that could affect a decision. When we go to look at a horse that the owner is interested in donating to the police dept., if we feel the horse is worth further consideration we explain to the owner that we will take the horse for a 60 day trial period (there is a form that the owner is requested to sign along with a representative of the Mounted Unit for this 60 day trial) and that at the end of the 60 days that if we feel the horse does not have the characteristics that we are looking for, that we will return the horse to the owner. If, on the other hand we feel that this horse has the potential to be a police horse we will request that the owner sign the donation papers and then this document will go before the Metro Council to be voted on whether to except or reject this donation. If I've been vague in any way please contact me at (615) 830-6645 or (615) 834-8545

The Cornersville Lions Club 66th Annual Walking Horse Show

CORNERSVILLE, TN- The Cornersville Lions Club held their 66th Annual Walking Horse Show on Saturday, September 29, 2012. The show started at 6:00pm at the Cornersville, TN horse show grounds. The judge marking the cards of the 31 classes was Paula Roddy. Assisting her was ringmaster, Joseph Goldman. The organist was Brian Peery and he kept the tunes flowing, while announcer Bobby Sands kept everyone on their toes. Jennifer Barr was the photographer for the evening. Bobby McDaniel along with the Cornersville Lions Club members put on a first class horse show and everything ran smoothly. They would like to thank everyone for supporting their horse show and would like to invite you to attend their show in 2013.

Many top horses competed at the horse show for blue ribbon honors. Some of the highlights of the night were the Youth 11 & Under class. It is always great to watch the future of our industry compete. Our youth riders are so exciting and put on great performances. Meghan Davis is another youth that had two thrilling rides for the evening with a blue aboard Ritz's Tornado and Jose's Dulce. Kailin Kesselring made a bold performance to claim the top honors in the Youth Show Pleasure class on Bold Reaction. The World Grand Championship team of A Cloudy Sky and Nathan Oliver won the blue ribbon in their class. Another exciting class was the Two Year Old Stallions Riders' Cup class. Winning it was TN Waltzin In Frisco with Phillip Trimble in the irons for proud owner, Meredith Driskel. This was this team's debut blue ribbon.

The final class of the night was the Walking Horse Stake class and five top entries made the gate call to work the three gaits. Coming out on top was Hillview Promotions entry, I'm Splashed, with Tim Smith in the irons. Reserve in the fine class was Skywatch's Masterpiece with Bill Callaway riding for owner, Bill Hill.

The SCOOP congratulates all the winners from the show and was glad to start Fall off right with a great horse show.

Cornersville, TN

Lady LA LA with Justin Harris in the irons won the Open Two Year Old Mares and Geldings class for owners, Darrell and Tracy Oliver. Justin had to get on another horse so the Olivers and Flemings along with Wesley met the winning filly.

A Night Owl and Christy Warner made a great show to prove they didn't need any rest to claim the blue in the Amateur Two Year Old Mares and Geldings class.

King Air and Herbert Derickson proved the sky was the limit for this talented horse. After claiming the blue in the Riders' Cup Three Year Old Mares and Geldings class for owner, Tim Brooks, Ernest Upton, Thomas, Will and Jill Derickson met the winning duo.

Bold Reaction and Kailin Kesselring were met by Corey Green, Freda Dean and trainer Wayne Dean after her win in the Show Pleasure Youth class.

No Way Jose and Hannah Pulvers did an outstanding job in the show ring to win the blue in the Lite Shod class for proud owner, Rachel Allen. Justice Carter congratulated the winning team.

Racking Horse World Grand Championship

DECATUR, AL – The 41st Annual Racking Horse World Celebration was spectacular! The show had 181 classes, with something for everyone. The largest racking horse show in the United States was held September 21-29, 2012, at the Morgan County Celebration Arena in Decatur, AL. This year there were well over a thousand entries contending for top honors.

Shows were held nightly at 6:00 p.m. except on Thursday when show time was at 5:30 p.m. The World Celebration offers plenty of other activities for participants to enjoy, including horse sales and a barn decorating contest. On Saturday night prior to announcing the World Grand Champion, children were invited to participate in the Stick Horse class, a chance for children to bring their own stick horse into the arena for a little friendly competition. There was also a highly anticipated and competitive costume class which brought some very elaborate costumes to the show ring.

Judges for the Celebration were the Honorable Gerald Campbell, Larry George, Greg Johnston, Jimmy Lacy and Adrian Rehkemper. Melisa Taylor did a fantastic job of coordinating the multi-night show. Other officials were Gene Frye, master of ceremonies; Jane Frye, organist; Charles McClain, ringmaster; John Cordell, paddock master; and John Mark Cordell and Dwayne Harrison, stewards. The center ring coordinator was Caitlyn Buchanan. Entry office coordinators Chase Hurst and Tracy Marks, entry office assistant Betsy Thompson, office assistant Dorothy Jones, veterinarian Dr. Michael Brown, farrier Don King and official photographer Jack Greene did a fabulous job making this a great show.

With the formation of the Racking Horse Breeders Association of America (RHBA) in 1971, the Racking Horse has grown in popularity. Today, there are over 80,000 racking horses registered with the RHBA, a non-profit organization headquartered in Decatur, AL. Moreover, the Alabama Legislature proclaimed the racking horse as the "Official State Horse for the State of Alabama" on October 5, 1975.

There were some special treats also at the show each day. A special luncheon hosted by the City of Decatur was held on the show grounds. There was a big fish fry for all the trainers, exhibitors and owners to thank them for supporting the show and their city year after year.

The preliminary classes held Friday through Thursday led to the best of the best horses competing in the Friday and Saturday evening Stake classes. World Champions were crowned in divisions for professional, amateur and youth riders, as well as for categories divided by age and sex of horse.

The final night of competition the local Chamber of Commerce was present at the show getting everyone to sign a petition to oppose the bill that has been presented in the United States Congress to take the chains and pads from our breed. They were also educating the public on the bill that is pending. The Racking Horse supports this town and so many other towns that benefit from this great breed.

Racking Horse World Grand Championship

Last year's World Grand Champion Score At Halftime owned by the Bellamy Family was exhibited for everyone to enjoy on the last Saturday night. The official retirement ceremony was something everyone will remember as Jonathan Bellamy made a lap once again in the big ring leading Score At Halftime wearing his gorgeous retirement blanket. Another exhibition was on Friday night, Tennessee Walking Horse 15.2 & Under World Grand Champion, Mr. Heisman with trainer, Brandye Mills, in the irons. This team made an outstanding performance for the crowd and for owners, Randall and Sadie Baskin. On Wednesday night, Kelley Peevy exhibited her gorgeous Fresian horse, WC Berend. She drove Berend to the buggy and that gorgeous main and tail and bold trot made everyone stop and look at this fabulous team. Also, another exciting exhibition was the World Grand Championship team of Miss Ebony Rose and Ross Campbell for very proud owners, Bob and Sudie Reed.

The Speed Racking classes on the final Saturday night made everyone jump to their feet and pick their favorites as they cheered for the winner. The Four Year Old Open World Grand Champion was recently selected under a new partnership and Barbara Agnigh rode Dollar Dynamite to this World Grand Championship title. She only took a spin on this horse once before competing and showed off her winning ways to claim the title. Barbara, in 1997, won the big stake aboard Guaranteed Perfect. Chris Zahnd made an exciting ride to claim the blue in the Classic Horse Specialty Action aboard The Santini for owner, Mike Conley. This was one of the most talked about entries of the show. Skyliner and Brian Barnhill won the Specialty Action World Grand Championship class for proud owners, Carlson Robinette and Kathy Blankenship. Terry Stone picked up several blue ribbons and World Grand Championship titles. He made an excellent ride earlier in the week to claim the blue in the Amateur Two Year Old Stallion class aboard Master Switch for owner, Lamar Denny. The Amateur Owned and Trained division continues to grow and in the Specialty Action Gentleman division Arvolle Brown won on Jose's Turning Point. Don Hancock won the Amateur Owned and Trained division with Tootsie Pie. Sturgis was the Ladies Amateur Specialty Action Open Champion with proud owner and exhibitor, Liz Nunnelley. The Specialty Action Two Year Old Stallions winner, A Legacy By Jose, is owned by Larry Latham and Gary Hill and shown by Larry Latham. This team made an outstanding show.

Everyone came to experience the excitement of crowning a new Grand Champion and they were not disappointed! The nine day competition ended with the announcement of the new World Grand Champion, Papa's Final Cut with Larris Missildine riding for owner, Riley Fenn. Riley Fenn owned several other horses that left the ring with titles and roses. Reserve in this great class was Doyce Lawrence who received the red ribbon aboard Multi-World Grand Champion, Unreal for owner, S.A. Barber. Doyce's son, Jamie Lawrence, also competed in this class and placed fourth aboard Jose's Pushover who won a preliminary class for owner, Denny Russell.

The SCOOP would like to give a big round of applause to all of the winners at the Racking Horse World Celebration! Congratulations on your wins and exciting rides. We were very proud to greet you in the winner's circle. For more information, please visit our FREE website at www.thescooponline.com.
