

HUGHES RESIGNS FROM NEW ORGANIZATION

Danny Hughes, well known industry leader and horse trainer, of Russell Springs, KY has resigned from his board position on the super HIO, PSHA.

Hughes was a board member on the new organization that was formed in March of this year. He was one of two board members that represented the PRIDE HIO. PSHA was a super HIO to be made up of PRIDE, HEART OF AMERICA HIO and SHOW HIO.

The new HIO (PSHA) was to have several board members including two from the trainers association, two from PRIDE, two from SHOW, two from HEART OF AMERICA.

It has been reported that Hughes felt his voice on the board was not being heard.
