J.G. "G" Adcock

J.G Adcock was a life long admirer of horses and mules. He bred and raised them on his farm located on Adcock Road near Barfield, TN.

If there was a horse show in the area he would be there, this included the Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration as well.

To my knowledge he never showed a horse at the Celebration but was known to have shown a mule in the 1940's. He did not miss many nights attending the Celebration. He enjoyed the horse show from his box seat in row D. J.G. held ownership of that box since its construction.

J.G. Adcock was a good judge, admirer and was very appreciative of the Tennessee Walking Horse.

He will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

His brother,

Odie Adcock
