

PRESS RELEASE

HEART OF AMERICA RESIGNS FROM PSHA AND BEGINS AFFILIATING SHOWS AT REDUCED RATES

The Horse of America Horse Show HIO has resigned its Board of Directors position with the PSHA HIO that was formed in March, 2013.

Heart of America will continue to operate as an HIO and will affiliate horse shows anywhere in the United States.

A DQP clinic and training session will be conducted for anyone desiring to be a DQP with Heart of America on Saturday, May 4, 2013.

Heart of America will Charge show management a fee of $50.00 to affiliate a show and there will be a $10.00 per horse inspection fee. The $50.00 fee will be waived for any show that has already affiliated with another HIO and wishes to change their affiliation over to Heart of America.

Everett Clamp is the President of Heart of America and says that shows are affiliating at a very fast pace from many different states. He may be reached at 417-531-0991.
