

The 2nd Annual AWHLA Horse Show scheduled for Saturday, May 4, at Baileyton Park is being postponed due to inclement weather conditions. Even though the weather forecast calls for the rain to have moved through the area prior to show time, show management felt that, in consideration for the safety and welfare of the horses, exhibitors and trainers, it is best to postpone the show.

A new date will be announced soon.

Joan

Joan Kemp, Secretary

Walking Horse Association of Alabama