I'm Hank Jr.

Few young horses enter the spotlight with a pedigree as accomplished as I'm Hank Jr., but this talented black stallion is proving he has the ability to create a legacy all his own. Owned by Bruce and Robin MacDonald of Shelbyville, Tennessee, I'm Hank Jr. represents a combination of proven bloodlines, thoughtful breeding, and natural talent that has made him one to watch in this year's Prodigy competition. Bred and raised by the MacDonalds, I'm Hank Jr. carries the influence of some of the most respected names in the Tennessee Walking Horse industry. He is sired by the history-making 4x World Grand Champion Justified Honors, the remarkable stallion owned by Dr. Jim and Lisa Baum of Shelbyville. While following in the footsteps of such an accomplished sire is no small task, I'm Hank Jr. has already demonstrated the talent and presence needed to make his own mark.

On the dam side, he is out of Sum It Up, a mare sired by Walk Time Charlie, adding another layer of proven quality and athletic ability to his pedigree. The combination of championship bloodlines and careful breeding has produced a young stallion with all the ingredients for a bright future.

Now under the Equiknox banner, I'm Hank Jr. continues to develop his skills and showcase his potential under the guidance of a talented team dedicated to his success. TWHBEA's Splashing Success

SHELBYVILLE, TN- The Tennessee Walking Horse Breeders' & Exhibitor's Association hosted an afternoon and an evening of great competition for exhibitors of every age, with or without a lot of riding experience. The first part of the successful show was the TWHBEA Summer Splash Academy. This program is designed for any age rider that is learning to become a skilled exhibitor. In order to show, the rider must be learning under the leadership of a Certified Riding Instructor through TWHBEA. Judging this portion of the show was Sarah Caudill.

Following the Academy Show, TWHBEA's youth association hosted their 8th Annual Summer Splash. This event was greatly supported and announced 152 entries. Classes were stacked with some of the industry's leading contenders. This show gave us a little preview of how competitive the 2026 Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration could possibly be. The Honorable Ross Campbell marked the cards.

The Walking Horse Championship ended the evening crowning Charles Lindbergh 4G and Herbert Derickson as victors. Keith and Angela Hayes are the proud owners. Reserve honors went to Twisted With Honors and Tyler Baucom.

The Walking Horse Grand Champion was Charles Lindbergh 4G with Herbert Derickson in the irons for proud owners Keith and Angela Hayes.

Turner PARKER

At just 8 years old, Turner Parker of Green Hill, Alabama, is already making his mark in the Tennessee Walking Horse industry while proudly continuing a family tradition that spans generations.

Growing up surrounded by horses, Turner was naturally drawn to the sport. His dad, uncle B, and Pop all spent their lives around Tennessee Walking Horses, and countless hours spent at the barn with family inspired him to climb into the saddle himself. Today, Turner rides under the banner of Parker Stables, where he has been learning from his father, Ryne Parker, since the very beginning.

Turner currently enjoys showing two special horses, Joy Ride and Honorable Texan. He describes Joy Ride as sweet and dependable, always taking care of him in the show ring. Honorable Texan, affectionately known as "Tex," is another favorite. "Tex is fun to ride and show. I love Tex. He's a good un," Turner says.

Like many young competitors, Turner loves the thrill of competition and the excitement of horse shows. When he's not preparing for a class, he can often be found running around the show grounds with his cousins, Bella and Levi, and a group of friends who make every horse show weekend memorable.

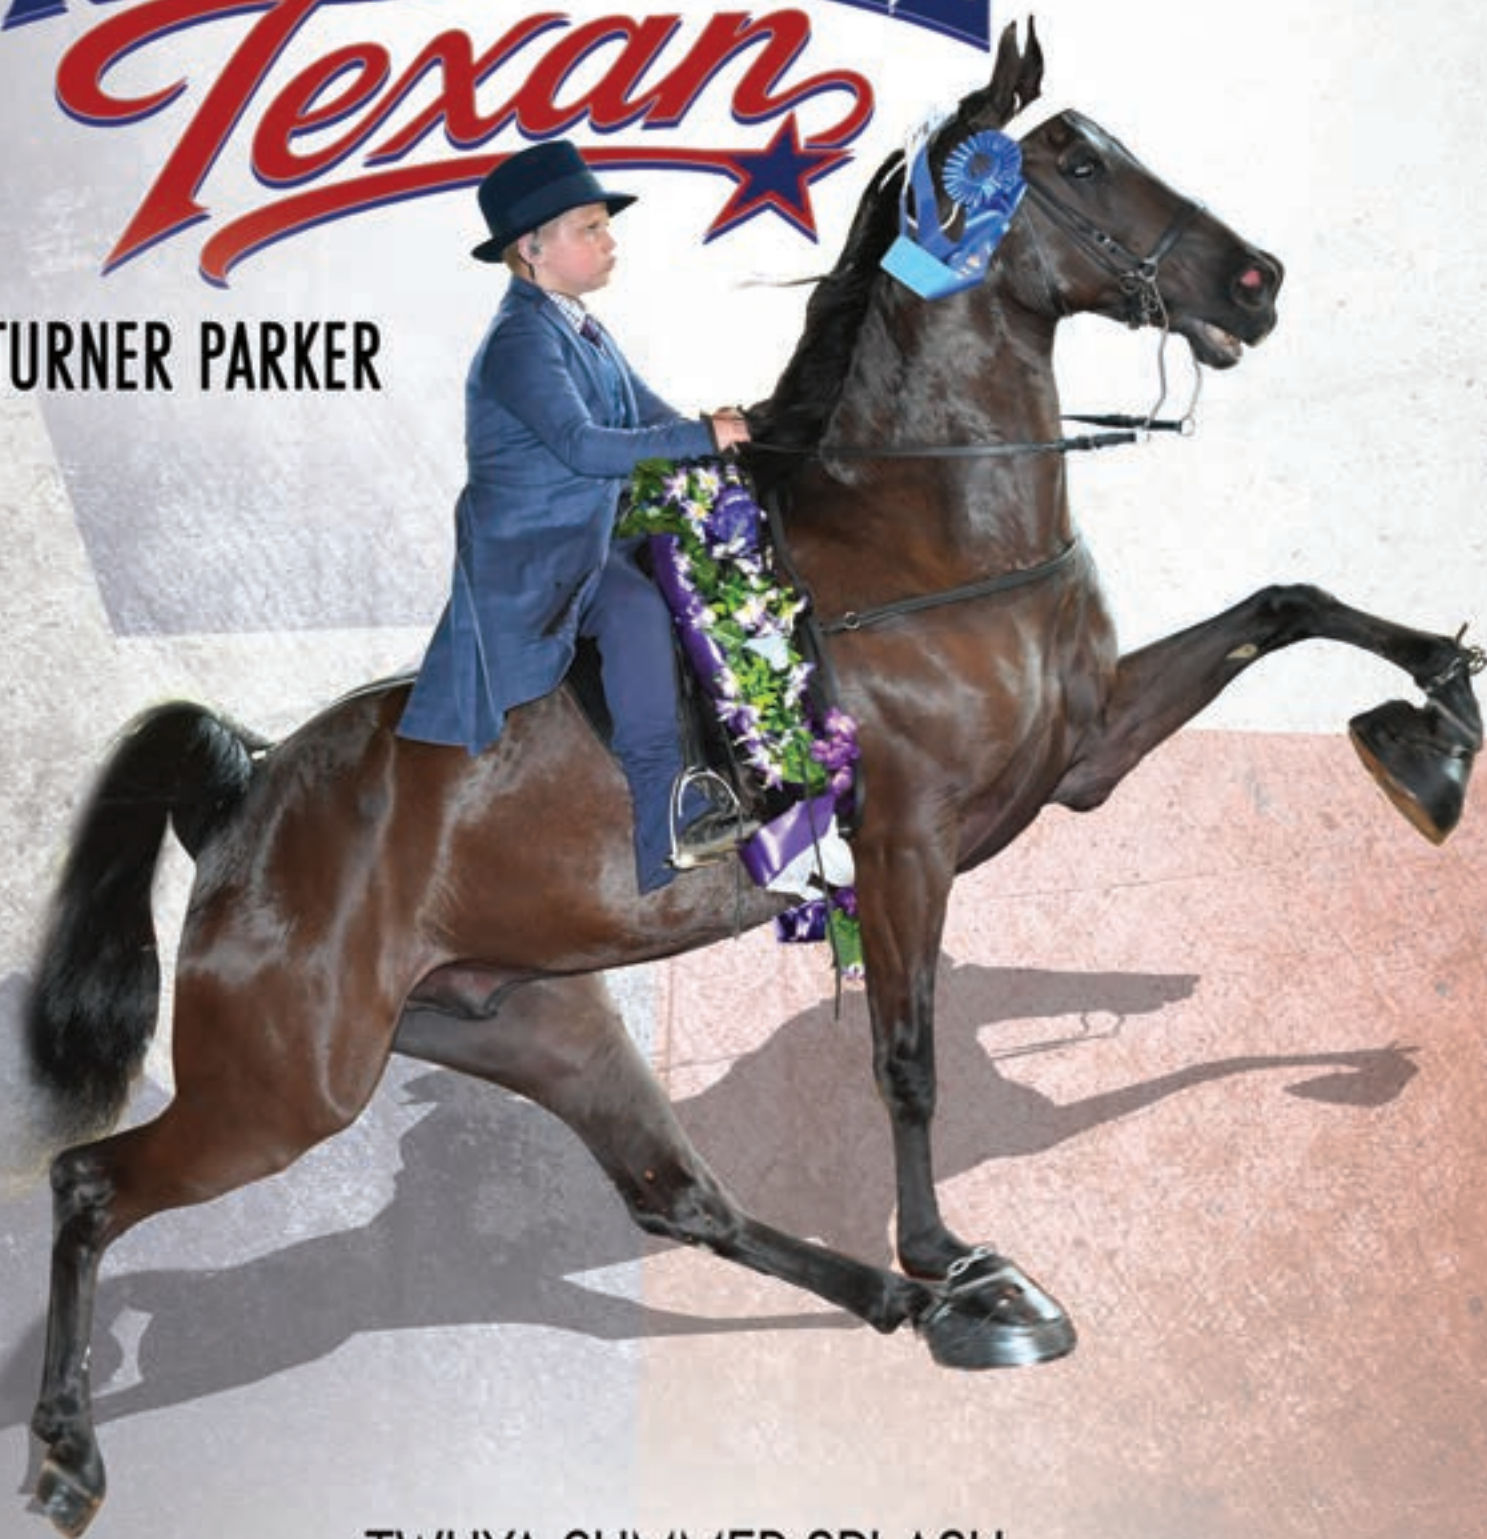

Turner's first experience in the show ring came aboard Highline. While he laughs when remembering that "my horse wasn't very good that night," it was the beginning of a journey that has already produced some impressive accomplishments. One of his proudest achievements was winning the Tennessee Walking Horse Youth Association Summer Splash Youth 11 & Under class. Another standout memory came just two weeks ago when he earned a set of roses, a victory he considers one of the most memorable moments of his young career.

Away from horses, Turner enjoys an active lifestyle. He is preparing to enter the third grade and participates in football, basketball, and baseball. He also enjoys hunting, fishing, and making rubber band bracelets with his cousin Bella. Although he has already experienced success in the show ring, Turner has his sights set on an even bigger goal. Like many young horse enthusiasts who dream of reaching the sport's highest level, Turner hopes one day to earn a World Championship title.

With a supportive family, a passion for horses, and a competitive spirit, Turner Parker is proving that the future of the Tennessee Walking Horse industry is in good hands. The SCOOP welcomes Turner to the show ring and wishes him much success throughout his show ring career.

Horse Show Honors Life of Eli Hill

LONDON, KY- Walking for Eli was a charitable horse show that took place on June 13th at the London/Laurel Optimist Club Sports Complex. According to Show Manager Renee Rouse, The Eli Hill Foundation was the benefactor of the show. Eli passed away at the young age of eight following a tragic accident. Adam and Ashley Hill are Eli's parents and wanted to do something that allowed Eli's incredible life to always be remembered. Eli loved to give and would sneak snacks into the backpacks of other children at his school, so his parents created a backpack program that serves several counties in Kentucky and continues to grow each year.

Evan Alexander served as the judge and chose this year's champions. Three championship classes were the grand finale of this grand event. Claiming the title in the Racking Specialty Action Championship were Angry Bird and Jimmy Baumgardner for owner Ginger Williams. Honky Tonk and Ryan Blackburn won the Walking Horse Championship for The Alan Riddley Family. The final class of the night was the AOT Specialty Championship. Riding to victory was He's A Title Wave with owner Chris Burton in the irons.

Chris Burton and He's A Title Wave celebrated their AOT Specialty Championship blue ribbon and belt with friends and family.
