Some horses arrive in this world with a spark that doesn't shout for attention but waits patiently to be discovered. Daddy's Cash was one of those horses. Born in the fall of 2010 at Southern Gaits Farm, his story has been one of patience and a rise that has stretched far beyond the expectations of his earliest days.

The owners of Southern Gaits Farm -Donnie & Pat Headrick

Daddy's Cash

Daddy's Cash pedigree traces back to a thoughtful decision by Dr. Donnie Headrick, owner of Southern Gaits Farm. Twenty years ago, Dr. Headrick purchased A Sundrop's Cover Girl, a mare by Generator's Sundrop and out of an Ebony's Threat's mare. After three successful years in the show ring, she was bred to the celebrated stallion Lined With Cash. The result was a strong, goodminded colt, Daddy's Cash.

Early on, he wasn't the type of horse that made people stop in their tracks. As a yearling with Robert Nelms, he won three blue ribbons in the halter division, but his true potential didn't show itself right away. At one point, he was nearly sold, but fate intervened when his papers were misplaced and Dr. Headrick brought him home. That twist of circumstance gave him time to mature, and when Bobby and BJ Richards took him on, the colt began to reveal the talent that had been there all along.

Daddy's Cash's first under-saddle appearance came at the Shelbyville Plantation Classic, where he and BJ Richards marked their debut with a blue ribbon win. From that moment, he began carving out a reputation as a competitor with talent and presence.

In 2013, he showed his strength at the International Pleasure Championship, dominating the Trail Pleasure Two-Year-Old divisions with two blue ribbon wins, one with Bobby Richards and another with Dr. Headrick. That same season, he and Richards placed Reserve Grand Champion in the Open Trail Pleasure Championship against aged horses.

But the defining moment came later that year at the Celebration. Paired with Dr. Headrick, Daddy's Cash was crowned the Owner-Amateur Trail Pleasure Two-Year-Old World Champion, and it was Dr. Headrick's very first world championship ride. Sharing that milestone honor with Daddy's Cash was unforgettable.

In 2014, Daddy's Cash returned stronger than ever to the show ring, collecting nine blue ribbons and seven reserves at shows like the International, Germantown, and the Celebration. By the end of his career, his record stood at 19 victories, 16 reserves, and 10 top-three finishes. For a stallion who only spent two full seasons under saddle, those numbers carry immense weight and respect.

WGC He'z Sugar Daddy

WGC Cha Cha Ching SF

By age four, Daddy's Cash had been retired to the breeding barn, where his real influence began to unfold. Standing at Fantasy Farm in Bell Buckle, Tennessee, he quickly proved himself to be more than just another son of Lined With Cash.

From the start, his foals were marked with substance, strength, and early talent. Trainers repeatedly noted how quickly his colts showed a natural way of going, often in the very first rides. They were smart, but also had enough motor and presence to demand attention in the ring. His foals didn't take long to start making their mark, and soon breeders realized Daddy's Cash wasn't just producing show horses; he was producing winners.

What sets him apart most is his dominance in the flat shod division. Nearly all his offspring are bred and shown flat shod, and they are reshaping what people expect from the pleasure horse. In a breed often centered on performance stallions, Daddy's Cash has given the flat-shod ranks a stallion whose name is now impossible to ignore.

If there is any doubt about Daddy's Cash's impact, one only needs to look at his offspring. They aren't just competitive, but they're changing the conversation about what it means to be a flat-shod champion.

He'z Sugar Daddy and Cha Cha Ching SF have each earned multiple World Grand Championships. She's Venomous turned heads in the Maiden as a two-yearold, finishing fifth in her debut year and later capturing a World Grand Championship, proving that Daddy's Cash could produce headline-makers right out of the gate. Dead Beat Daddy added his own World Grand Championship to the offspring résumé. At the same time, Daddy's Señorita nearly stole the show in 2025, finishing Reserve in the Maiden after a performance that had breeders buzzing. Daddy's Home DH, a two-time World Champion, was one of his first head turners, selling for a very high price as a young flatshod prospect. Horses like Hit List, Bedrock Babe, and Reputation stood out in the Maiden ranks, pushing into the top tier of finals and showing the kind of consistency that makes trainers and owners eager to book their mares back to Daddy's Cash.

Time and again, Daddy's Cash foals are proving that they have both the look and the longevity to stay competitive well beyond their young horse years. His offspring are gritty, stylish, and versatile, which are the kind of horses that keep filling the barns of top trainers because they deliver results season after season.

Perhaps nowhere has Daddy's Cash made more impact than in the Maiden class. His foals have repeatedly risen to the top of one of the most competitive stages in the industry. From She's Venomous's breakout year to his run in 2024, when four of the six top horses were sired by Daddy's Cash, his dominance has been impossible to overlook.

That kind of performance doesn't just reflect well on a stallion, but it changes the flat-shod market. In 2021 and 2022, breeder interest in Daddy's Cash began to surge. By 2024, after his offspring's success in the Maiden, demand skyrocketed. In fact, following that record-breaking year in 2024, every foal on Dr. Headrick's place sold within days.

The Maiden has become a proving ground for stallions in today's Walking Horse industry, and Daddy's Cash has not only passed the test, but he has set a new standard. He has given flat shod breeding a stallion that rivals the performance sires in influence and momentum, something the industry has long needed.

Through all of this, one thing hasn't changed, which is Dr. Headrick's humble pride in the sire and his foals. A veterinarian with decades of experience in animal breeding, he is no stranger to producing quality stock, but Daddy's Cash has been different. He closely follows the careers of his offspring, staying in touch with their owners and cheering them on at every level of the sport.

He can often be found at shows, sometimes with tears in his eyes, not out of self-congratulation, but from genuine enthusiasm for the horses and people connected to Daddy's Cash. Whether it's a youth rider at a local show or a brick win at the Celebration, he celebrates them all the same.

Daddy's Cash's legacy is still being written. His influence in the breeding barn has already reshaped flat shod divisions, and with each new crop of foals, that impact deepens. His offspring are winning the World titles, elevating the Maiden, and proving that a flat-shod sire can sit at the very top tier of influence in the Tennessee Walking Horse industry.

Daddy's Cash didn't start as the obvious star. But through patience and the proper guidance, he became something greater - A stallion whose name will carry forward not only in titles, but in the champion horses that keep filling the ring with strength, style, and heart.

SPOTLIGHTING THE 2025 NSSHA WORLD GRAND CHAMPION...

LASER COMMOTION

On September 20, 2025, The Laser Commotion and Ryan Gannon rode their way to the World Grand Championship title in the National Spotted Saddle Horse Association. Janson Patterson purchased the champion earlier this year and is a very proud owner. The beautiful Spotted Saddle Horse won this same title last year with Timmy Parks.

The Laser Commotion is sired by Gen's Laser Beam and out of the dam, The Star Commotion. His show career began in 2018 as a Two Year Old and was shown with then owner, Timmy Parks. From the beginning, this horse showed great potential and only continued getting better. That is proven by his outstanding show resume. The Laser Commotion has entered the show ring 48 times and exited with 43 wins and 5 reserves. Wow! What a talented horse! Out of the 43 wins, 8 of those are World Grand Championship titles. The Scoop congratulates the Patterson and Gannon Families on the recent World Grand Championship win of The Laser Commotion.

TAEP INFORMATION WORKSHOP HELD AT TWHBEA

Monday, September 22nd TWHBEA and the Tennessee Department of Agriculture hosted an information workshop to educate eligible equine business owners about the addition of equine to the TAEP program. The workshop was held at the TWHBEA headquarters in Lewisburg, TN and via Zoom. Participants were walked through the TAEP website information and were able to ask questions.

Equine businesses across Tennessee will soon be able to apply for support through the Tennessee Department of Agriculture's premier cost-share initiative, the Tennessee Agricultural Enhancement Program (TAEP). The application period for TAEP is October 1–7, 2025. For more details or to apply: www.tn.gov/taep

Also, during the application period TWHBEA is offering a "helpline" for members to call with questions or for help completing their applications. HELPLINE: 931-359-0581

The recently crowned Owner Amateur Youth 6-17 Trail Pleasure World Grand Championship duo, delivered the game ball to kick off the Middle Tennessee State University Homecoming football game in Murfreesboro. Tennessee.

JUDGES SELECTED FOR CELEBRATION FALL CLASSIC

TWHNC Press Release September 25, 2005

The Celebration has selected Ryne Parker, Sam Sorrell and Chad Williams to judge the Celebration Fall Classic. The Fall Classic will be held in Cooper Steel Arena on October 30th through November 1st.

Sam Sorrell is a veteran to Celebration events having judged the Celebration eight times with the most recent coming in 2022. Sorrell has only judged three shows since that Celebration in 2022. His last judging assignment prior to this Fall Classic was the Walking For Cancer show in 2024.

Williams will mark the cards for the second time at a Celebration event. Williams also judged the Fall Classic in 2023. Williams also judged The Columbia Spring Jubilee in 2023.

Parker will be making his debut at a Celebration sponsored event. He most recently judged the 2024 Racking Horse World Celebration but has also judged Walking For Angels twice as well as the Alabama Jubilee in 2022.

For more information on the 2025 Celebration Fall Classic visit www.TWHNC.com or call 931-685-5915.

31-November-2 Four Beats for Pleasure All Around Gaited Spooktacular Lake Waccamaw, NC An avid sportsman, John loved everything about the outdoors. He purchased property in Midland, where he raised his family and created Grey Rock Farms. There, he bred and trained Tennessee Walking Horses. He competed in horse shows all over the south, including the Tennessee Walking Horse National Celebration in Shelbyville, Tennessee. On the farm, he also raised cattle. When the herd outgrew Grey Rock Farms, he partnered with Harold Goodman and the two raised cattle throughout northern Muscogee County and Harris County.

John was also a licensed private pilot. He and his friend Pearce Massey owned a Cessna 172 and they enjoyed flying in the Chattahoochee Valley area and to air shows throughout the Southeast.

Quail hunting was always a passion of Mr. Mayher. In 1988, he established Greenfield Hunting Preserve and Sporting Clays in Pittsview, AL, where some of the finest quail hunting in the South was enjoyed by customers, friends, and family.

One of the original founding members of the "Lake Harding Hoodlums," John spent most of his life enjoying "The River" with his family and his childhood friend, the late Charlie Boy Hudson.

Mr. Mayher was a member of the Big Eddy Club, and was a former board member of the National Civil War Naval Museum. He was also a supporter of the National Infantry Museum.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his sisters Betty Jean Mayher Ward and Margaret Mayher Badcock, and an infant daughter Jennifer Shannon Mayher. He is survived by his wife, Ginny Lee Mayher; his sister, Dorothy Mayher Shepard; children and bonus-children, Natalye Mayher, Joy Mayher Bohn (Todd), John Mayher III (Linda), Lisa Brady Solomon (Scott), Cheryl Brady Norton (Greg), Rem Brady (Bardie); grandchildren, Brent Benefield, Will Solomon (Jaclyn), Carly Nordhues (Eric), McKenney Spence (Matt), Rem Brady (Amy), Lawson Brady, Shannon Hamric (Andrew), Benjamin Sloan, Tommy Mayher, and Wynn Mayher; his children's mothers, Peggy Sweet Shappard and Joyce Cone Mayher; 10 great-grandchildren and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Columbus Hospice.

BLACKBURN & LANGSTON EXCHANGE VOWS

Alex Blackburn and Jake Langston were united in marriage on September 20, 2025 before a large number of guests. The vows were exchanged at the home of the groom's parents, John and Melissa Langston in Columbia, Tennessee. The bride is the daughter of Knox and Stacy Blackburn. The couple will reside in Columbia.

OBITUARY - JOHN WILLIAM MAYHER

John William Mayher, Jr. 84, of Midland, Georgia, passed away Saturday, September 13, 2025 surrounded by his family. Funeral services were Thursday, September 18 at St. Paul Church, Columbus, Georgia with Rev. Dr. Shane Green and Rev. Norman Dunlap officiating. The family received friends on Wednesday, September 17 in The Mill Room of Striffler Hamby. A private interment followed immediately after the service.

John, son of the late Dr. John William Mayher and Dorothy Illges Mayher, was born February 17, 1941 in Chicago, Illinois during his father's medical internship at Cooke County Hospital. The family moved back to his mother's hometown of Columbus, where he attended St. Elmo Elementary School and Clubview School. He attended Riverside Military Academy and graduated from Columbus High School in 1959. After graduation, he attended Georgia Southwestern and Columbus College.

Taylor Wilson

Taylor, a spirited eleventh grader at Cascade High School, has spent this year chasing dreams that began long before she ever slipped a foot into a stirrup. From the time she was little, her dad would take her along as he visited barns and worked with performance horses. She loved everything about those trips—the smell of fresh shavings, the quiet nickers of horses waiting in their stalls, and the stories her dad told of great trainers and riders. Those early moments sparked a passion that quickly grew into a calling. Determined to follow in the footsteps of the legends she'd heard so much about, Taylor began riding and showing horses. Today she partners with the talented Z for Zorro and Gunns and Glory, training under the experienced eyes of Rod Slagle and Joel Rodriguez. Her parents laid the foundation, teaching her the basics of riding and the care of horses, but it was in the show world that her trainers refined her skills. From them she learned not only how to ride and train performance horses but also the history and traditions of the industry she loves.

Among all the events on her busy calendar, The Celebration stands out as the highlight of her year. For Taylor, it isn't just a show; it's an experience—a gathering where horsemen and women from across the country come together to celebrate the beauty and athleticism of the Tennessee Walking Horse. She loves the hum of excitement around the barns, the late-night conversations, and the feeling of community that comes alive during those days. This year's Celebration gave her a memory she will never forget. Competing in the Youth Show Pleasure Championships, she rode down the famous chute multiple times, the lights of the arena glittering like stars and the crowd cheering behind her. In that moment, with Z for Zorro beneath her and the sound of applause in her ears, she felt the fulfillment of a dream she had carried since childhood.

Taylor lives by a simple but powerful piece of advice: "Live boldly." To her, that means taking every opportunity to grow, to share her faith, and to embrace life with courage and joy. "We truly only get one chance at life," she says, "so why not live it to the fullest? Whether it's being bold in my faith or just in everyday activities, I'm truly blessed to live this life—so I'm going to go all out."

Her biggest goal reaches beyond blue ribbons or championship titles. Taylor hopes to leave a mark of kindness wherever she goes. Life's challenges have shown her how much even a small act of compassion can brighten someone's day, and she wants her life to be a testament to how great—and how lucky—this life can be.

When she isn't in the show ring, Taylor finds adventure in other places. She loves to travel and is deeply involved in FFA, where she competes in contests and hones her judging skills. She's equally committed to her church youth group, where her faith continues to grow and guide her. On an ordinary Saturday night you might find her on a date with her boyfriend or at home catching up on the week with her family, savoring the simple moments that keep her grounded.

Taylor is quick to express gratitude for the people who have helped her along the way. She thanks her parents and family for their unwavering support, her trainers for their patient guidance, and the customers at the barn who have encouraged her at every step. "My dad, Rod, Jordy, and Joel have made a little girl's dreams come true by getting to show this year," she says. "I never thought I'd be able to come down the chute at the Celebration, but they made it happen and I'm forever grateful for it."

With her faith, her love for the Tennessee Walking Horse, and her fearless determination to live boldly, Taylor is just beginning a journey that promises to leave a lasting impression —both in the show ring and far beyond it.

SWEETWATER, TN

On September 20th, the East Tennessee Walking Horse Trainers' Show welcomed horses to the Sweetwater Lions Club Show Grounds. David Latham was judge.

After numerous classes of great contenders, it was time to choose a Walking Horse Grand Champion. Five entries contended for top honors, but it was Ozark and Chris Pickel that won the title. Brian Jeffers owns the champion. The reserve title went to Cinco De Charlie and Hayden Burks.
