2025 MISS KENTUCKY CELEBRATION...

Brooklyn Jones

Brooklyn, the 16-year-old granddaughter of Robert and Loretta Jones, is a sophomore at Southwestern High School in Pulaski County, Kentucky. An athlete, student leader, and dedicated horsewoman, she plays volleyball for Southwestern and Danville Elite Volleyball Academy, is active in FCA, and attends Flat Rock Missionary Baptist Church in Whitley City.

Horses have been a part of Brooklyn's life since before she could walk, and she proudly carries on her family's second-generation legacy in the Tennessee Walking Horse industry. From her very first show in 2018 with Dixie Lined Sky, to winning unforgettable moments with Bakersfield and Honors Dixie, Brooklyn has made lifelong memories in the show ring and built lasting friendships along the way.

Outside of the barn, she enjoys spending time with her family and friends, golfing with her dad, life on the farm, and her barn family. After high school, she plans to attend the University of Kentucky to pursue a career as an Ultrasound Technician.

Brooklyn is honored to represent the Tennessee Walking Horse community as the 2025 Miss Kentucky Celebration Queen and looks forward to continuing her journey in and out of the show ring.

WC & RWC WARBIRD

IS KING OF KENTUCKY

HARRODSBURG, KY

The prestigious Kentucky Celebration was held September 19th & 20th at the Mercer County Fairgrounds. Judging the event were Brad Beard, David Finger and Kemp Martin.

Six championship classes concluded the show and those winners were the following: Country Pleasure Amateur Championship- Habanero Picante and Shane Smith; Youth Championship- Dixie Rita and Anna Osborne; Trail Pleasure Amateur Championship- Allstate and Teresa Tyra; Amateur Specialty Championship- McIlroy MCF and Kourtney Tyra; Trail Pleasure Youth Championship- Jazz & Everything and Shane Smith.

The Walking Horse Championship was the grand finale and grand it certainly was. Five talented entries contended for top honors, but receiving the title was Warbird with Ryan Blackburn in the irons. Ginger Williams owns the Kentucky Grand Champion. Reserve honors went to Big Bertha B and Mike Hannah.

Ryan Blackburn directed Warbird to the title of 2025 Kentucky Celebration Grand Champion. Ginger Williams is the very proud owner.

World Grand Championship*

FALL FUN in BEAUTIFUL VIRGINIA

CHATHAM, VA

Walking, Racking and Spotted Saddle Horses invaded the Olde Dominion Agricultural Complex September 19th & 20th as the Virginia Walking and Racking Horse Owners Association (VWRHOA) held the Virginia Fall Classic. Jeff Best served as judge, choosing this year's champions. The two-day equine show also hosted a Fun Show complete with costume classes and a Lead Line class with parents riding. A Dog Show was also held, crowning other four-legged contenders.

Before crowning a grand champion Walking Horse, seven other championship classes were held. The victors of each division follow: TWH Pleasure Championship- Stellar Cash Out and Joni Henderson; Spotted Open Shod Championship- I'm Mr. Blues and Addy Brown; Racking Stake- Mexico Million and Bryan Barnhill; TWH Pleasure Youth Championship- She's A Cash Deal and Koen Morris; Specialty Racking Stake- Cag's Johnny Ringo and Mark Bandy; Racking Specialty Action Stake- Desperate Man and Bryan Barnhill; Racking Trail Pleasure Stake- Charlie Rich and Stella Lovelace.

The Walking Horse Championship ended the show with two talented entries. Claiming the win was The White Hawk and Amber Zahnd for owner Barkley Bowling. Olivia Pope and Bryan Barnhill won reserve honors.

Koen Morris and She's A Cash Deal captured the roses in the TWH Pleasure Youth Championship.
