EAST TENNESSEE SPOTLIGHTS

Ocoee Spring Fling

Dan Waddell and Honor And Remember were awarded the top spot in the Walking Horse Stake for owner Kim Lewis.

Andy Stooksberry and He's A Knight Rider won the Trail Pleasure Amateur Championship.

Taking the top spot in the Racking Specialty Action Stake was I'm Sky with Bryan Barnhill in the irons.

MCDONALD, TN- The East Tennessee Trainers' Association, the East Tennessee Classic Horse Show and the Smoky Mountain Walking Horse Association joined forces to put on a new show in the East Tennessee area. The show was named the Ocoee Spring Fling, and the inaugural event was a true success.

The Ocoee Spring Fling took place on April 19th and 20th at the Tri-State Exhibition Center in McDonald, Tennessee. Mack Hess served as Show Manager, Blake Drew served as Farrier and the three dignitaries that made up the judges panel were Claire Hankins, Chad Adams and Keith Blackburn. The two-day show offered 59 classes for Racking and Walking Horses. Riding into Ocoee Spring Fling history was Skyler Nipper aboard Space Cowboy SN. This team claimed the first blue ribbon ever given from this horse show.

Five classes boasted eight or more entries. Those large classes, along with their winners, are the following: Riders' Cup Three Year Old Mares & Geldings- Jose's Jackpot and Jerry Graves for owner Janson Patterson; Amateur Ladies- He's A Lucky Strike and Aubrey Derrickson for owner Ralph Derrickson; Riders' Cup Three Year Old Stallions- Charlie's My Papa and Drew Graves for owner Terry Vaught; Show Pleasure Amateur- Smoky Mountain Squire and owner Ivy Freeman; Park Performance Amateur- Batman JC and Dr. Jim Baum for owner Lisa Baum.

The Riders' Cup Walking Horse Championship closed out the show with five talented entries contending for the title. Honor And Remember and Dan Waddell made the winning ride and claimed the first Ocoee Spring Fling Grand Championship title for proud owner Kim Lewis. The reserve champions were Showing Honors and Larry Latham.

GREEN WINS MEMORIAL SHOW

RICHMOND, KY

The Slick Conner Memorial Horse Show took place on April 13th at the Madison County Fairgrounds in Richmond, Kentucky. Choosing this year's champions was World Grand Champion trainer Rodney Dick.

Numerous talented horses were showcased throughout the evening in pleasure and performance divisions. The final class of the show crowned the grand champion Walking Horse of the night. Two teams contended for top honors. Capturing that title and the blue ribbon were Asking For A Friend and Renardo Green. Ginger Williams is the proud owner. The reserve champions were Master Of The Ritz and Robby Bradley.

---

On behalf of the Slick Conner Memorial Horse Show we want to thank each and every person that had a hand in making this show possible. Without our sponsors, trainers, exhibitors, spectators, vendors, workers of all types we could not have done it without you! You all are what makes these shows happen! We know Slick would have been proud of this tonight! We can see him now sitting on the rail, working the track, chatting people up, and talking about horses! He was proud of his military service and loved his Tennessee Walking Horses! Every person honored here tonight helped build this industry. They left legacies some got to experience, others walked hand and hand, and the next group will only hear the tales left behind. Let's continue building legacies like these for the next generation of Walking Horse Enthusiasts!

See you next year!
