*What a blessing it is to be able to be in the show ring,
I'm truly a walking miracle!*

Thanks to God, I am able to enjoy my horses. Thank you to my wonderful trainer, my family and friends for their prayers and support.

Every time I enter the ring it really is the most grateful gift. I'm so very thankful!

Hosts Spring Showcase

*Cavender and Tim Smith wore the roses after claiming the Walking Horse Championship title.
Bruce and Robin MacDonald own the champion.*

SHELBYVILLE, TN- During the final weekend of March and on the Eve of Easter, Tennessee Walking Horses gathered at Cooper Steel Arena to show off their skills and help promote the Foundation for the Advancement and Support of the Tennessee Walking Horse, or better known as F.A.S.T.. The event was The FAST Spring Showcase. Judging this year's horse show was Dean Byard, Renee Carlton and Jamie Lawrence. There were 65 classes and 36 of those champions received unanimous ties.

Thursday evening began with the Riders' Cup Model contenders and claiming the top spot was Mystic Jazz and Laurie Toone. Closing out the first night of competition was the Riders' Cup Three Year Old Stallions class with Spotlight On Jose 4G and Bill Callaway making the victory pass.

This Is Who I Am and Chad Spencer kicked off Friday night's schedule by capturing the blue in the Amateur Trail Pleasure Three & Under division. Tim Smith and Tua MCF claimed the Riders' Cup Open Specialty win and the final blue ribbon on Friday evening.

Saturday night called for the Youth All Day Pleasure contenders to enter the ring first and riding out with the blue were Let's Get Rowdy and Caroline Stanley. The Walking Horse Stake was the final class of the three-night show. One entry answered the gate call. Tim Smith and Cavender wore the roses for owners Bruce & Robin MacDonald.

SMOKIES WITH A TWIST

SEVIERVILLE, TN- Springtime in the Smokies is always picturesque, and the one thing that made April 4th-6th more beautiful was the addition of Tennessee Walking Horses and Racking Horses. The Smoky Mountain Classic once again created a caravan of horses entering East Tennessee and more specifically, the Smoky Mountain Arena. Judging this year's show and its 60 classes were Jamie Bradshaw, Stephen Hankins and Amy Trimble

Six championship classes served as a perfect finale for the wonderful weekend. Claiming top honors in each championship class is the following: Riders' Cup Trail Pleasure- Jalapeno and Joe Lester for Kimberly Walden; Amateur- My Shockwave and owner Dr. Lynda Brogdon; All Day Pleasure Amateur- She's Never Been Kissed and owner Kimberly Walden; Youth- Elway and owner Laci Mathews.

The Racking Specialty Action Championship had two entries. In Honor and Bryan Barnhill won the top prize for owner Greg Kiser. This is a repeat win from the previous year. The Master Switch and JD smith were the reserve champions. The final title up for grabs was the Riders' Cup Walking Horse Championship. One entry answered the gate call, and riding out with the title and prizes was Tyler Baucom aboard Twisted With Honors. Allyson Armstrong owns the champion. The Scoop congratulates each new champion.
