IT'S HORSE SHOW TIME in Tennessee

It was a center-ring celebration following the crowing of the 69th Annual Columbia Spring Jubilee Grand Champion. Claiming that honor with a unanimous win was Minor Ordeal with Tyler Baucom in the saddle for owners Dean and Riddley. Friends and family from Baucom Stables join the winners for a candid moment.

Robert Nelms and Back In The Saddle Again claimed the first ribbon of the 69th Annual Columbia Spring Jubilee. The duo won the Riders' Cup Model class unanimously.

COLUMBIA, TN- The 69th Annual Columbia Spring Jubilee was held June 4th-6th at the Maury County Park. This horse show was hosted by the Maury County Horseman's Association. The excitement and anticipation for a multi-night horse show was quite evident from the crowd that gathered on the historic grounds. The very large group of spectators was treated to some of the most competitive horses in the Walking Horse Industry. Rollie Beard, Ross Campbell and Robert Cortner served as the honorable judges. Show organizers were thrilled to announce that the official number of entries was a whopping 505.

Treating the crowd on Friday evening was an exhibition ride, showcasing the talents of the 2018 Tennessee Walking Horse World Grand Champion, Gen A'Mighty and trainer Jimmy McConnell. Proud owner Mike Floyd was very honored for this exhibition to take place at the Columbia Spring Jubilee, his hometown show.

Thursday night's line-up began with the Riders' Cup Model class. Robert Nelms directed Back In The Saddle Again to the win for owner Lisa Teel. Mystic Jazz and Beverly Carter took the reserve award for Rushing Creek Walkers. Closing out the first night was a great group of three year old stallions. Topping the list in this Riders' Cup class was John Allan Callaway aboard Justified Honors. Lisa Baum owns the champion. Riding out with the reserve award was Jose's Cold Hard Facts with Casey Wright in the irons for Bill and Debbie Woods.

Taking the blue in the Country Pleasure Youth 11 & Under class was Peligro Dinero and Lexi Smith.

Getting first on all three judges' cards in the Riders' Cup Two Year Old Mares and Geldings class was Our Girl Charlie and Tyler Baucom.

Beginning Friday evening's festivities were All Day Pleasure horses with youth riders. IB Smokin Joe and Tanner Johnson rode to claim the blue. Tanner and his twin brother Tucker own the entry. Abi Smith directed Jack Rader's entry, Jose Is All I Have To Say, to the reserve award. The final class of the evening was stacked with great Open Specialty contenders. The Riders' Cup Champions were Samsung and Bill Callaway. George Ann Pratt is owner. I'm Dialed In and Robert Stivers grabbed the reserve ribbon for Steve and Michelle Glidewell.

With heavy humidity lingering in the air, Saturday night was kicked-off with a fun group of youngsters and their stick horses. When they left the arena, the Lead Line Ponies and their little riders were presented. All of the entries were treated with a blue ribbon. Saturday's first competitive class began with the Fine Harness contenders. In Ted's Image and Ron Lawrence took top honors while Tom Collins LTL and Dickie Scrivner won the reserve award for owner Kathy Owen. The grand finale of the outstanding three-day show was the Riders' Cup Walking Horse Stake class. Three entries vied for the coveted prize and winning the 69th Columbia Spring Jubilee Championship was Minor Ordeal, with Tyler Baucom up for the Dean/Riddley partnership. Gin's Shadow and Jimmy McConnell took the reserve award for Mike Floyd. Taking the third place ribbon was He's Unleashed with Clay Sanderson in the irons for Evergreen Walking Horse Farm. The Scoop congratulates the Jubilee organizers for an incredible show and each participant for making it a great event.

THORSPORT HOSTS WHOA EVENT

MURFREESBORO, TN- On Saturday, May 30th, the time had finally come to see horses going around a ring competing for top honors. Because of the worldwide pandemic from COVID-19, the nation was at a standstill which meant the show year for the Tennessee Walking Horse Industry had to be put on hold, also. When the national and state leaders gave their approval to carefully open events back up, Walking Horse enthusiasts were on top of the world.

ThorSport Farm in Murfreesboro, Tennessee was the gracious host of this kick-off show. Beginning the busy day was the Walking Horse Owners' Association. They hosted the WHOA Spring Fling with Frankie Jo Bradley marking the cards. The 165 entries were showcased in competitive classes consisting of Showmanship, Model, Academy, Equitation, Driving, Racking and of course, the various divisions of Pleasure Classes. Equestrians of every age were visible as classes were offered for the beginner riders to the most experienced riders. It was a great day as the sun was shining, the humidity was low and horse show friends were finally reunited after a very long break. The Scoop was delighted to be part of THorSport's awesome day.

I'm The Alamo battled against his talented competitors and was crowned the ThorSport Spring Fling Walking Horse Grand Champion. John Allan Callaway was in the irons for owners Barbara Corbett and Lynn Hickok.

MURFREESBORO, TN- The fun-filled day continued into the night at ThorSport Farm on May 30th. The Spring Fling at ThorSport Horse Show was the grand finale of a very busy day. WHOA horses filled the ring for the morning event and Hunter Jumpers competed in the afternoon. Finally, it was time to show the spectators some outstanding performance horses, along with some of the day's great pleasure horses. Jeanette Baucom judged the evening's show which presented 69 entries.

Claiming the first blue was Dog Gone Girl Is Mine with Robert Nelms at the lead for owner Lisa Teel. The duo won the Riders' Cup Model Class. 18 more champions were crowned before the final class of the evening, the Walking Horse Championship. Four entries were announced. John Allan Callaway and I'm The Alamo took the top honor for Ridgemont Farm. The reserve award went to Sisko Kid and Clay Sanderson for the Holcomb/Masters team. The Scoop congratulates each winner and commends the ThorSport crew for putting together a great day of horse competitions.

EQUINE OBITUARY SPLASH OF GEN

(October 3, 1988 – May 18, 2020)

The Walking Horse industry lost one of its greatest broodmares on Monday, May 18, 2020 with the passing of Splash of Gen. "Mama Splash", as she came to be known, was born October 3, 1988 at David Landrum Stables in Franklin, Tennessee. Bred by Dorthy Halsey and David Landrum, "Mama Splash" was a black roan mare out of by WGC Pride's Generator (HOF) and WGC Ebony's Sun Lady (HOF). She was only one of two fillies foaled by Ebony's Sun Lady. After the passing of Ms. Dorthy, she became part of the David Landrum Family as her only owner her entire life.

Although a show ring career was not in her cards, she would rise to be one of the most prominent mares in the industry. "Mama Splash" foaled 14 babies, all sired by WGC Gen's Major General (HOF), who would all go on to capture numerous Futurity, World and World Grand Champions. They included: WGC Major Splash, WC Major Splish Splash, WC Brother Splash, RWC I'm Splashed, Splotched, WC General Splash, Splash Seven, V-8 Splash, Futurity Champion Cocoa Splash, Futurity Champion Another Brother Splash (who currently is the TWH breed representative at the Kentucky Horse Park), One More Splash, The Next Splash, Futurity Champion Brother Oh Brother, and Splashilicious.

"Mama Splash" received the TWHEBEA's Dam of the Year by Total Points and Dam of the Year by Percentage Points in 2001. She consistently was honored as a part of TWHEBEA's Top 10 Dam of the Year Broodmares during her breeding career.

All of her 31 years were spent in Franklin, Tennessee, where she enjoyed her last days with lots of love, attention and carrots. She joins her half-sister, My Magic Dream (HOF), whose parents were My Magic Marker (HOF) x Ebony's Sun Lady (HOF), who died September 8, 2018 also at the age of 31. The two sisters were stabled side by side their entire lives. Mama Splash's legacy will be one that lives on to serve the Tennessee Walking Horse industry for many years to come.

SPRING FUN SHOW

As the 50th Annual Spring Fun Show is just around the corner, it will be one to remember. This golden anniversary celebration had to be rescheduled from its' traditional weekend in May to the last weekend in June. This change was due to COVID-19 and the safety precautions for large groups mapped out from Tennessee's Governor, Bill Lee. The show will also be held outside in The Celebration's Maverick Arena, instead of inside the Calsonic Arena. Serving on this year's judging panel are Smokey Carswell, Dickie Scrivner and Chris Bobo.

SHOW RULE CHANGE

The SHOW Board of Directors has requested the following recommendation from the Rules Committee be put out for a sixty (60) day comment period. It would be a change in the "Changing Divisions" Rule. If approved, this rule will go into effect January 1, 2021.

Once competing in a division at a show, the horse must stay in the same division the entire show regardless of change of ownership. *Amateur Owned & Trained: A horse entered in a show in the Amateur Owned & Trained division cannot be shown at the same show by a professional in an open class unless the horse changed ownership during the show.

The Rules' Committee is proposing the following:

(j) Changing Divisions. There are three divisions, 1.) Flat shod, 2.) Park Performance and Show Pleasure, 3.) Performance. Within a calendar year, a horse may change from one division to another division multiple times without penalty." Once competing in a division at a show, the horse must stay in the same division the entire show regardless of change of ownership. *Amateur Owned & Trained: A horse entered in a show in the Amateur Owned & Trained division cannot be shown at the same show by a professional in an open class unless the horse changed ownership during the show.

John D Warmbrod

John David Warmbrod, age 87, of Belvidere, Tennessee, was welcomed into Heaven on Wednesday, May 27, 2020, at his residence, spending his final days of this life surrounded by his treasured family.

Mr. Warmbrod was born in Belvidere, Tennessee on June 26, 1932, to the late John Earl (Chick) and Mary Lou (Osborne) Warmbrod. He graduated from Franklin County High School in 1950 where he played football. He joined the Navy on December 27, 1950. He served aboard the Ship USS Bexar-APA 237 which was stationed in San Diego with deployments to Hawaii, Hong Kong, and Manila during the Korean War. He served until October 1954 when he returned to Franklin County. He married Miss Bettye Joyce Swann on June 11, 1955. He graduated from MTSU with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1958 and a Master of Arts degree in mathematics from the University of Alabama in 1962, with his thesis being, "An Analysis of a System of Differential Equations." Mr. Warmbrod began his professional career at Brown Engineering and during his career was a consultant for Remtech. The majority of his professional life was spent with NASA where he was one of the charter members of the Marshall Space Flight Center. He retired from NASA in 1997 after over 30 years there as an aerospace engineer, during the Apollo and Space Shuttle Programs. His work involved determining and analyzing the pressures and temperatures of the heat shields of the orbiter sections and reusable boosters during separation and re-entry into the earth's atmosphere, the possible effects of the interaction of the exhaust gases, and the shock wave interactions from the rocket motors of the shuttle. Mr. Warmbrod received many awards during his NASA career including the Exceptional Service Medal and First Shuttle Flight Achievement Award. He was also selected as a Space Flight Honoree where John and Bettye were invited to view a shuttle launch from Kennedy Space Flight Center.

Known by many friends as Johnny, he was extremely outgoing and made friends everywhere he went, with his larger than life personality. He was an animal lover and truly a modern-day cowboy. He grew up loving and riding Tennessee Walking Horses. Johnny attended every Tennessee Walking Horse Celebration in Shelbyville from its beginning in 1939 when his Dad showed in the very first Celebration, missing only during his years spent serving in the Navy. As dearly as he enjoyed the horse shows, Johnny also thoroughly enjoyed his retirement years on many trail rides. He also loved his bird dogs and quail hunting. He trained, trialed, and judged bird dogs for American Field horseback trials across Tennessee and Alabama. He was an avid fisherman as well with many of his trophies mounted on the walls of his cabin, Johnny's Place.

He was a dedicated lifelong member of the First United Methodist Church (FUMC) of Winchester. He was a member, a former teacher, and a former president of the Friendship Sunday School Class. He served on numerous committees in varying capacities at FUMC, including serving as treasurer on the finance committee and chairing the Staff Parish Relations Committee.

He was preceded in death by his parents, John Earl and Mary Lou Warmbrod and nephew, Troy Warmbrod. Swann and his wife Stephanie (of Decherd); nephews, Eric Warmbrod (of Windsor, CO) and his wife Lori, Terry Weaver and his wife Leslie (of Gunter, TX), Stephen Swann and his wife Mary (of Decherd), and Jedd Swann and his wife Meredith (of Decherd); nieces, Cindy Chambless and her husband Don (of Jacksonville, FL), Wendi Weaver (of Decherd), and Joanna Miller and her husband Clifton (of Belvidere); 7 great nephews; 4 great nieces; 4 great-great nephews; and so many very special friends.

Graveside services were held on June 1st, at the family cemetery. He was laid to rest at his beloved farm in Belvidere.

Bettye Joyce Swann Warmbrod

Bettye Joyce Swann Warmbrod, age 86, of Belvidere, Tennessee, was welcomed into heaven on Sunday, June 7, 2020, surrounded by her daughters, granddaughters, sister, and niece. Mrs. Warmbrod was born in Alto, Tennessee, on April 22, 1934, to the late Virgil and Foye (Sublett) Swann. She spent her dearly beloved childhood years in Decherd with her parents, her big brother Bill, her inseparable sister Barbara, and her baby brother Jim. She graduated from Franklin County High School in 1951 where she played basketball. She married Mr. John David Warmbrod on June 11, 1955. She graduated from Saint Thomas School of Nursing as a registered nurse in 1954. Mrs. Warmbrod's nursing career began at Huntsville Hospital in labor and delivery alongside Dr. Cameron. When John and Bettye returned to Franklin County TN, they purchased what had in years past been part of the Warmbrod family farm. Bettye worked with Dr. Fine at Smith Memorial Hospital in Winchester. After many highly favorable and memorable years at the hospital in Winchester, Bettye then was the nurse for the construction of Times Ford Dam. Following the completion of the dam, Bettye became the school nurse for Franklin County High School. Perhaps the largest impact of her professional career came as she next began teaching health occupations for many years at FCHS. In all the years following her retirement, Mrs. Warmbrod dearly loved running into her previous nursing students who always seemed to remember her so fondly from the time they spent together at FCHS.

For all who knew Mrs. Warmbrod, they knew Bettye to truly have a servant's heart. If there was any need to be met or any work to be done, she was the first to step up and serve without question nor consideration for any recognition. In fact, it was her preference not to be in the spotlight despite all that she served and shared. The only thing Mrs. Warmbrod loved as much as serving others was spending time with her family. She cooked for well over half a century of family Sunday dinners and holiday gatherings. Mrs. Warmbrod loved to travel on family trips, school trips, mission trips, senior mystery trips, camping trips, and just about any trip where friends, family, and most especially her sister Barbara wanted to go. Known by so many as "Meme," she was always enthusiastically happy to get to be a part of any event with her family and never missed the chance to get to cheer on her daughters and granddaughters at every event imaginable, even volunteering many times over the years as camp nurse for all her girls summer camps. Whether with her beloved family or dear friends, she truly had a great time wherever she went. She loved to dance, from dancing the jitterbug and square dancing with John to her years of line dancing and then learning to clog in her senior years. She thoroughly enjoyed performing and visiting for many years at most all of the nursing homes in Franklin County. She was an avid University of Tennessee Lady Vols basketball fan, always decked out in her orange for every game, especially during the years of Pat Summit as coach. Her other interests included sewing, gardening, canning, and bird watching. Bettye was a 17-year breast cancer survivor and was a supporter of the Multi-County Cancer Support Network. She was a volunteer for Good Samaritan. Mrs. Warmbrod was a dedicated member of the First United Methodist Church (FUMC) of Winchester where she was also a member of the Friendship Sunday School Class and volunteered for many children's programs including Vacation Bible School. She will always be remembered by her family and church friends for so dearly loving to sing her favorite church hymns all the days of her life.

She was preceded in death by her husband John David Warmbrod, who passed away two weeks earlier, her parents Virgil and Foye (Sublett) Swann, brothers Bill and Jim Swann, and nephew Troy Warmbrod. She is survived by daughters, Barbara "Babs" Feaster and her husband Joe and Sharon "Shen" Gamble and her husband Jeff; granddaughters, Rachel Crossland and her husband Travis and Amber Heath and her husband Max; great-grandchildren, Chloe Crossland, Maxwell Heath, and Elizabeth "Libby" Heath (all of the above of Belvidere); sister, Barbara Weaver (of Decherd); brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law, Joan Swann (of Winchester), Stephanie Swann (of Decherd), Julia Warmbrod (of Belvidere), and Joe and Anita Warmbrod (of Greeley, CO); nieces and nephews, Wendi Weaver (of Decherd), Cindy Chambless and her husband Don (of Jacksonville, FL), Joanna Miller and her husband Clifton (of Belvidere), Terry Weaver and his wife Leslie (of Gunter, TX), Stephen Swann and his wife Mary (of Decherd), Jedd Swann and his wife Meredith (of Decherd), and Eric Warmbrod and his wife Lori (of Windsor, CO). 7 great nephews; 4 great nieces; 4 great-great nephews; and so many very special friends.

Graveside services were held on June 11th, at the family cemetery next to her husband John on their 65th anniversary. The Warmbrod Family has suffered a great loss with both Mr. and Mrs. Warmbrod passing away in such a short time span. The Scoop sends our prayers of comfort to the entire family.

JEANETTE BAUCOM

Jeanette Baucom is from Mount Airy, North Carolina and moved to Monroe, North Carolina in 1989 and has lived there ever since. Baucom is a trainer, judge, and horse show mom to her two children Tyler and Kayla Baucom. Baucom is always on the rail cheering for customers and giving instructions, but her greatest highlight is watching Tyler and Kayla succeed in the show ring. Baucom is the daughter of well known horse legend, Ronald Mozley, who she learned a lot from growing up. Terry Mozley, her step-mother, organizes and keeps the North Carolina Walking Horse Association running. Rhonda Baucom, her sister, is Baucom Stables biggest cheerleader. # IT'S ALL ABOUT APPEARANCE

In the show horse world, being a fashion plate doesn't earn you blue ribbons. But being correctly attired and accessorized could make the difference when all else is equal.

Show season is here! It's time to look forward to a new year of fun and enjoyment at horse shows. Though the economy overshadows us all, show ring competition will still be fierce and presentation will play as important a role as ever this year.

Do you find yourself getting confused before a big show when it comes to picking out the perfect combination of suit, shirt and tie? If you are like most of us, the choices seem endless and the guidelines for what to wear and what not to wear slip from memory. You cannot let those last minute details escape your thoughts before a show because the judges come with a scrutinizing eye! You want to have the appearance of an experienced winner and be the envy of riders and audiences alike!

This is where The SCOOP steps in and helps to pull your presentation together before the gate call. You should be acquainted with the rules and regulations of your local Horse Industry Organization (HIO) that governs attire. You can also garner valuable input from experienced apparel and tack merchants.

First thing's first. You must familiarize yourself with a valid definition for presentation. Webster's dictionary defines presentation as "a symbol or image that represents something". In this case, tack and apparel are the symbols or images that represent the rider.

Wisely planning a good show wardrobe will not only help you make a good impression, but will also give you an extra bit of confidence each time you enter the arena, and save you time and aggravation in the long run. Invest in the best within your budget. Your apparel will last for years and still have good resale value if you plan, choose, and buy with long-term quality and durability in mind.

ENGLISH ATTIRE

English classes require an English riding habit (saddle suit), riding boots, optional English spurs, pant tie downs or underpasses, optional gloves, and optional hat (homburg, top hat, derby, snap brim or helmet). Hair must be neatly groomed and long hair should be styled so that it does not hide the back number. In the Ladies Auxiliary class, exhibitors are required to wear a snap brim hat or derby and hair cannot hang below the collar.

Earrings should be small pearls, diamonds, or colored stones and under no circumstances should earrings dangle. Nice touches include a collar bar under the tie and either a very small flower or the more modern option of a small lapel pin. Keep your lapel pins at a reasonable size, and equine related pins are preferred.

Anything you wear must be fitted correctly. Finding a good tailor and investing in proper fit can do wonders for the appearance of any riding suit.

MODEL / HANDLING ATTIRE

Clothing for colt handlers can vary upon the time of day they are showing and the weather conditions at the show. Typical attire is an English riding habit minus the jacket. Formal attire is desired for Championship classes held after 6 PM.

Handlers in the Model class can wear either English or Western attire, but the attire should be appropriate for the horse. If wearing English attire, the horse's tack must be English. If wearing Western attire, the horse's tack must be Western. (See checklists below.)

FORMAL ATTIRE

Formal attire should never be worn at a one-night show. It is never appropriate to wear formal attire before 5 PM, even for Championship classes held during the day. During a multi-day show, even in a qualifying class after 5 PM, a day coat and suit are acceptable. Formal attire should be reserved for Championship classes after 5 PM. A new trend this year is a sequin formal coat or crystals around the collar to add more sparkle in the show ring. Formal attire includes:

- Formal jods with a satin stripe can be worn with a day coat with shawl collar. They should be paired with a wing collar shirt, vest and bowtie or a cummerbund and bowtie.
- A tuxedo jacket and jods should match. The jacket should have satin lapels and a satin stripe should follow the outer seam of the jods. The tux should be worn with a wing collar shirt, vest and bowtie or a cummerbund and bowtie.
- White gloves are only appropriate if worn with a white wing collar shirt, vest and bowtie or a white cummerbund and bowtie.
- A lovely top hat, steamed and brushed, should always accompany formal attire.
- A wing collar shirt for ladies should have a smooth front. The shirt can have either a fly front or studs. Formal shirts can be made of cotton, but the most popular are silk.
- Formal vests and bowties are preferred over cummerbunds and bow ties, especially for ladies out of adolescence and with mature figures. The vest helps keep a pulled together look and adds punch to the outfit.
- Boots should be patent leather. Black works well with navy blue or black tuxedo or jods. To get your boots shining, clean them with Vaseline worked into a small, clean cloth.
- Bows in the hair should not be overpowering; they should be small and subtle and complement the outfit.

HATS

If you have a round face, a derby is not for you. You would look better in a small brimmed homberg steamed and shaped just for you. If you have a heart shaped face, you would look better in a derby steamed and curled. If you have a long slim face, a wider brimmed homberg would look best on you. If you are in a class where you must wear a tux, a top hat is a must; it finishes the look. Men should always show in a hat. You should always pick a hat color that goes well with your suit or if showing in a day coat, normally the hat matches the jods. If you choose to show without a hat, your hair should be very short or pulled back and put up and no strands hanging. This will ensure a very neat appearance.

WESTERN ATTIRE

To be eligible to show in Western classes, you must have western style long pants or jeans, western style long sleeved, collared shirt, a western hat, and western boots. Optional attire includes western style chaps, spurs, vest, jackets, and gloves. Western riders continue to have beautiful choices in colors and fabrics for their show apparel. Elaborately embellished clothes are always popular, but classic looks in quality materials and detailed tailoring are a wise investment that can be worn for years, not just a season.

For women's western tops, the key is comfort and the palette is pretty. Tall collars and ornate cuffs on fitted bodices continue to be the preferred silhouette, with many riders wearing waist-length tops worn tails out over the waistband of chaps.

Western clothing should coordinate with horse and saddle blanket. White hats are a new trend and look great paired with black chaps. Dale Chavez saddles are definitely taking over in the show ring this year.

FINE HARNESS DIVISION

Fine harness attire requires men to wear a riding suit, formal suit or business suit with hat. Ladies must wear riding suits, formal or cocktail wear, or dress with appropriate top. Skirts and slits in dresses cannot be above the knee without the use of a lap blanket.

EQUITATION APPOINTMENTS

In Equitation classes, the judge shall penalize those exhibitors who do not conform to proper appointments. Appointment requirements are based on good taste, which is always in style and always correct. A solid color or conservative pinstripe saddle suit is correct both day and evening and should be worn with coordinating vest, four-in-hand tie, man's style shirt, gloves, homburg, derby, or snap brim hat, and jodhpur boots. Underpasses are required, long hair must be styled above the collar and only small post earrings are acceptable.

Semi-formal Equitation classes require a saddle seat tuxedo suit with one-button coat in dark blue, brown, gray or black, with the collar and lapels of the same color and matching jodhpurs with a vertical satin stripe of matching color. A top hat, white formal tuxedo shirt, dark bow tie, cummerbund or pique vest, gloves, and jodhpur boots are also necessary.

Formal attire for Equitation is the same as the semi-formal suit, except worn with a top hat and white accessories, including white bow tie, cummerbund or pique vest, and gloves. Underpasses are required. The formal suit is worn only after 6 PM.

TIPS ON CARING FOR YOUR SHOW ATTIRE

The following recommendations may seem redundant to a seasoned exhibitor but, with so many new exhibitors in the industry, we felt these tips would be beneficial. Careful maintenance will lengthen the life of your quality apparel by years.

- Always keep your show coat on a well padded hanger. A cloth bag is far superior to a plastic bag to protect your garments from dust and dirt. Plastic bags breed mold and dust and may dry out suede knee patches.
- Bring a lint roller to every show for quick touch-ups before entering the show ring. A soft bristle brush should be used sparingly due to the stress it may cause to some fabrics.
- Try to use the same pin holes for back number pins, as well as decorative pins worn on your coat lapel.
- Before and after showing, it is best to keep your garments away from the sunlight because the sun can cause damage to the fabric as well as fading.
- Keep a container of alcohol-free baby wipes in your tack box. When horse sweat gets on your coat (and eventually it will) use a few wipes and gently scoop away the sweat. Use the wipes as soon as your class is over so the sweat doesn't set in the fabric. This practice will make the dry cleaner's job a lot easier.
- Store your garments indoors in a well ventilated environment. It is best not to keep them in a tack room. Thoroughly and gently brush your garments after each show. Unless there are serious stains on any garment, it is not necessary to dry clean after each show. Frequent dry cleaning can be stressful to many fabrics and everyone's budget. A quick steaming will remove wrinkles.
- Make every effort to develop a good relationship with a reputable dry cleaner, to protect your investment. Suggest that your garments be cleaned with fresh fluid. Used or old fluid will not remove some spots and/or stains, and may actually discolor many fabrics.
- Do not use club soda or nail polish remover. They can aggravate the stain making it impossible to remove.
- Never press a stain on any garment as the stain may become permanently set.
- A baby's soft hairbrush will clean your hat, but the long handle on a real hat brush makes the job easier. Spots on felt hats can sometimes be removed by gently using fine sandpaper or an emery board. For straw hats, a soft brush whisks away dirt, and small stains can be removed with a dab of liquid soap on a soft cloth.
- Invest in a strong hat carrier. Don't use a plastic bag to store your hat as heat and moisture can mildew or warp the hat. Heat is your hat's enemy, so never store it in a horse trailer, car, or other area that may heat up.
- Always have on hand special rain gear for protection of your suit and hat. These plastic covers can be purchased at most any tack shop.
- Jod keepers are a great way to give your show pants a longer life. These jod keepers now come in fun colors and patterns. These have always been used in the Saddlebred breed and some walking trend setters are using them.

Remember, you'll never get a second chance to make a first impression, so be sure that you and your horse create the best possible impression each and every time you step into the show arena. Enjoy yourself! Years after the horse shows have ended, it's the friendships and adventures you remember more than any award or judge. Best of Luck!

SHOW RING ACCESSORIES

GLOVES—Gloves are a must have for the formal look. Some riders wear white gloves to give the complete black tie affair appearance. Gloves are always necessary in the equitation classes and are a great way to polish any rider in the show ring both male and female.

TIE DOWNS— Tie downs are required in English competition. There are many places that offer these for sale both with single or double buttons or holes whichever works best with your jods.

SPURS— Spurs are needed by some riders. There are English and western attire spurs. A very popular item now in the Western division is the crystal or poncho looking western leather spur straps. These styles help bling out the outfit.

LAPEL PINS— Everyone loves to dress their riding suit up with a lapel pin. There are the very traditional looking pins that are silver or gold. Many enjoy adding a crystal looking pin to add some sparkle to the arena.

BRIDLES—The classic bridles in both English and Western divisions are being covered in crystals to give your horse a one of a kind look in the show ring.

NUMBER PINS—These are the classic equitation pins to place your back number on your suit after being cut down to have the classic look in the show ring.

NUMBER MAGNETS—These are a great way to give the polished equitation look similar to the Number Pins without the wear and tear on your suit. These come in a variety of colors and shapes. Also are great in the Western division too.

TIE RINGS—These are a new trend that are very popular in the Saddlebred breed and a few of the trend setters for the walking breed are wearing them now. They are all uniquely made and designed and help add that little extra flair to a saddle suit.

SHOW RING ACCESSORIES

TIE BARS - There are clip on tie bars and the modern tie bars that go through the shirt. The modern hit is to wear a swarovski crystal tie bar that coordinates with your show suit, vest, and tie.

STIRRUPS - Bling stirrups are a new hit for the show ring. Custom crystal English and Western stirrups help you stand out in the ring.

HAIR BUN BOWS- These are always seen on the equitation riders and many youth and lady riders in saddle seat attire. These come in an array of colors and designs and help dress up any suit. Also a big hit in both the english and western divisions is to pin a lapel pin in your show bun and give a dressy look to your hair.

CUFF LINKS- Are most common on the male riders, but lots of ladies dress up there formal attire with some custom cuff links to set her outfit off and make a little different look than the black and white formals in the ring.

FAKE BUNS - Today people are always in a rush and an easy way to have that great look in the show, like you spent hours on your hair, is to purchase a fake bun. These buns are made perfectly to show in with or without a show hat and come in all colors making it easy to find the perfect match for you natural hair color.

WHIPS- Some riders require a whip to show their horse. There are all types of whips and lengths of whips. There are special whips with wooden handles and a huge hit now is the swarovski crystal whips. These are the special sparkle whips you may have seen in the show ring.

TIES- Bling Tie Affair ties are the biggest hit in the ring today. Patti Pollack picks the perfect tie to match your riding habit and then custom crystals each tie to perfection. This is the perfect way to accessorize any suit to add a little bling!
