

Horses Visit Sweet Virginia

CHATHAM, VA- The Virginia Walking and Racking Horse Owners' Association held their annual horse show on June 26th and 27th at the Olde Dominion Agricultural Complex. The two-day show showcased 56 classes of Tennessee Walking Horses, Racking Horses and Spotted Saddle Horses. Brent Carter and Andy Carter marked the cards, serving as the judges.

The VWRHOA Members Only Pleasure class had a great turnout and claiming the top honor in that division was Walk Like Mick Jagger with owner Tomi Chittum in the irons. Riding to the blue in the VWRHOA Members Only Specialty class were Walk On Command and Karen Baum.

The horse show's final list of classes was the championship classes for various divisions. El Mariachi and owner Ava Tuck won the TWH Pleasure Championship. The Spotted Open Shod Championship title went to Beams On Parole and owner Eric Johnson. Charlie Rich and his owner Stella Lovelace were crowned the Racking Trail Pleasure champions while Luck Of The Ritz and Grandy Tuck Jr. were crowned Trail Pleasure champions for owner John Harris. Riding to the top honor in the Park Pleasure Championship was Grassy Creek Gin with Grandy Tuck Jr. in the saddle for Angela Tuck. Debbie Simpson directed Honor Society to the Racking Championship title for owner Harold Keatts. He's So Fine carried Curtis Thompson to the Racking Specialty Action Championship win for owner Sandy Livingston. The class that closed out a great weekend was the Walking Horse Championship. Ice Cold Gold and Allen Abee received the final championship ribbon for owner Tom Shipman.
